LUCK OF PERKINS.

Portlanders Tell of Fisherman Who Becomes Baseball Player.

A Portland paper says: Floyd Perkins, Beaver recruit backstop, has for several years been a Columbia River and Umpqua River fisherman. His specialty is salmon.

His catches were always a marvel. It was a case of "fisherman's luck." When seine and gillnetters returned in the morning from a session on the tide stretches, Perkins invariably had a load when others had few.

"Luck has always been with me. My fond hope is that it sticks with me now when I will need it most," said Perkins.

When catching on the Columbia University team Perkins batted .314 one year, and won the Honeyman trophy for bat-leader. The following year he took second for the same kind of work. That was a mere nothing to his showing last year, when he went to Marshfield and clouted the ball through 25 games at a pace better than .400

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Battling Levinsky thinks this is a hard world to please. If a fellow does not win fights he is placed with the "has-beens." If he wins too many then his rivals grow to fear him and it is hard to get engagements. Levinsky has reached the place where they almost write up the results of his bouts in advance, so certain is the result. The clever fellow will have to do something unusual if he wants to continue to get free advertising, for it's always known beforehand just exactly what he will do: it is a foregone conclusion that he will feint and duck and clinch three-quarters of the time, while doing merely just enough offensive work to get a decision.

The grading and filling of the Yankees' new park at Kingsbridge is so near completion that only the cold weather prevents the work of beginning the erection of the playing stands at once. It is expected that this work will be started about the middle of March.

In all probabilities the Phillies will be without the services of Eppa Rixey, the elongated Virginia pitcher, until June 1. Rixey graduated from Virginia this season and must remain until June 1 for his diploma. He has accepted terms with the Phillies, but has not signed a contract and the chances are that he will not until he gets permission of the club to finish his studies.

A number of Australian fighters have signified their desire to meet Tommy Burns, former heavyweight

BAUM NAMES UMPIRES

Experienced Men Will Call Strikes and Balls.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—President Allan T. Baum, of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, made the official announcement of the umpires who will call the strikes and balls during the coming season. They are all old men in the league excepting Gerald Hayes, who has umpired six years in the American Association and International Leagues, both of the same classification as the Pacific Coast League.

The hold-over umpires are J. E. Finney, W. J. Phyle, W. J. Guthrie, H. R. Held and J. F. McCarthy.

champion, who is on his way to the island continent, with a string of six fighters, or any of the boxers that Burns has with him. Burns plans to be in Australia six months. It was there that he lost the title to Jack Johnson.

Connie Mack evidently believes that the world's tour of the White Sox will not prove a barrier to Comiskey's team in making the American race exciting. He anticipates much trouble and says the club "has the best staff of pitchers in the country" and that "if the rest of the players come around they'll cut as much figure in the pennant question as anyone."

It is only a question of time before summer baseball will be in vogue all over the country. Some of the mollycoddles connected with college baseball might be opposed to a college baseball player earning a few paltry dollars playing the game in the summer time, instead of waiting on table and the like, but the time is not far distant when they will wake up to the fact that a college ball player is only human and can help to earn his college tuition by no more honorable means.

Less than two weeks and the Giants will have arrived on American soil again. Well, there are numberless good things provided for the spread to be given in their sportsmen's honor. If they have tried humming birds' tongues, crabs brains and such other delicacies in the Far East; pate de foie gras and Mumm's extra dry in Paris, some have already written to say that plain sauerkraut and Virginia ham will taste good in dear old New York. Never mind about the pigs' feet and lady fingers.

If William Herring, the big semi-professional pitcher who will be tried out by the Giants lives up to his Long Island records, Walter Johnson will have a rival as a strike-out king in a game against the Baldwin nine, a Long Island semi-professional club, last year. Herring fanned eleven of the first twelve men to face him and mowed down twenty victims in fourteen innings. In a nine inning game against the Press A. C. he struck out twenty men. Herring played with the South Side A. C. of Freeport.

So the Cleveland Naps are the first away to the Southland. Evidently Jos Birmingham thinks it wise to put what is left out of reach of the outlaws.

There are still many men needed to complete the ranks of the Federal organization and not only will players now on minor league rosters be sought, but those who may receive their ten days' notice of release from major to minor will be offered places by the new circuit.

"Jim" O'Connor, the lanky miler of the New York A. C., is moving in good fashion these days. From a runner who had all he could do to run a mile in 4m. 45s. a year ago, he has become a consistent "4:30" man.

So the English people are not so disgusted with Jack Johnson after all. After long consideration the National Sporting Club of London has decided to offer a purse of $15,000 for a twenty-round bout between Jack and Sam Langford, the "Boston Tar Baby," to take place probably early in June. What then would become of Johnson's engagement with Moran.

Frank Hinkley appears to be the head coach of the Yale football team for next season in name as well as in action.

Anyone who happens to be contemplating a visit to dear old New York any time between the fifth and eighth of March would do well to send ahead by registered mail a nugget of gold or some equally valuable possession as a deposit on a room in some of the out-of-the-way hotels. For notice is hereby given that all available space in the hostelrys where swell folks congregate has been lapped up by enthusiasts who have planned to meet the world's tourist baseball teams when they land. Special trains have been engaged for friends of Comiskey and the White Sox. Special eats at the big blowout will cost $10 a plate.

ADVENTISTS TO HOLD MEETINGS

Southwestern Oregon to Be Represented at Meeting in Washington Soon

Editor Times: The Southern Oregon conference of Seventh-Day Adventists will be well represented at the biennial session of the North Pacific Union Conference of that denomination, which will be held at College Place, Washington, February 25 to March 8. Elder F. S. Bunch, of Roseburg, president, will head the delegation from this conference, which will be composed of practically all of the clergymen and Bible teachers in its employ. Among others who will attend are T. G. Bunch, L. A. Gibson, R. W. Airey, C. J. Cole and Lowell Tupper. Among the cities that will be represented are Roseburg, Ashland, Cottage Grove, Marshfield and other places. Clergymen and Bible teachers from the conferences in Montana, Western Oregon, Idaho and Washington, which with Southern Oregon comprise the North Pacific Union Conference, will also attend the session. The visiting clergymen will include Elders I. H. Evans, president of the North American Division Conference; G. B. Thompson, secretary of the North American Division Conference; W. W. Eastman, head of the publishing work in North America, and Meade MacGuire, field secretary of the Young People's Missionary Volunteer Department. All of these are from the world's headquarters of the denomination in Washington, D. C., with the exception of Elder MacGuire, who comes from Loveland, Colorado. Elder C. W. Flatz, of College Place, president of the North Pacific Conference, will have charge of the meetings.

This will be the seventh of twelve similar meetings scheduled in different parts of the United States and Canada, and which will continue until next day.

It is stated that there are now over 20,000 young men and women in the schools, academies and colleges operated by the denomination, and the necessity of winning every one of these for gospel workers will be brought to the attention of the delegates. Elder Eastman will tell of the progress that is being made in North America toward distributing Christian literature.

Officers will be elected for the next two years, credentials and licenses issued, and it is probable that several changes will be made in the forces in different parts of the North Pacific Union territory.

CLUB BACKS PORT WORK.

ROSEBURG, Or., Feb. 18.—The Roseburg Commercial Club at its last meeting passed a resolution in which it resolved to give its hearty approval and support to the project of improving the Port of Umpqua harbor and waterway, and earnestly requests our senators and representatives to use their utmost endeavors in this improvement.

The man who wants to fight when a joke is played on him is the same man who thinks it great fun to play jokes on others.

the Yankees, etc. It's the way with most of them. They flop this way and that and when they land right side up it is a knife in the back for the other proposition.

Looks as if Willie Hoppe will soon have to go into vaudeville, because there will be nothing else to do. There doesn't seem to be a queist anywhere who can even make it interesting for the wizard. Events which occurred at a recent reception, however, have caused some admirers of Hoppe to warn him against taking too much "for the stomach's sake," for fear that it may shake his nerves.

Friends of Ad Wolgast are declaring that he will surely regain the lightweight championship of the world if Willie Ritchie ever agrees to fight him. Ad did suca clever work in his recent fight with Joe Rivers in Milwaukee that he has persuaded many fight fans of his ability to "come back."

They talk about drawing cards like Cobb, Wagner, Johnson and others. "Billy" Sunday has it on them all if a peep into the Oakland tabernacle, Pittsburg, prove anything. If the Federals could sign the evangelist, modern baseball stadiums wouldn't be big enough to hold the crowds.

Federal league agents, by the way, have made themselves unwelcome members of the committee that will greet the homecoming Giants and White Sox when they land in New York. Many of the tourists have not signed major league contracts and the Federal league agents feel confident of doing some proselyting.

Genial Pat Conway has been elected president of the Irish-American Athletic Club for the eighteenth time. Conway raised his good right hand before the meeting and vowed "never again," but the members of the club paid about as much attention to him as Tinker would pay to an offer from organized baseball. Pat was put into the office smiling and objecting, with a round of cheers that were marvelous, says he, for their sincerity. And he deserved every one.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You.

The American men, and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by taking a good kidney flushing any time.
