Time-Savers

Almost every new bicycle you see, is a TIMESAVER. Now, why? Not because of the attractive personality of the man who sells them—hardly. Nor yet, because the TIMESAVER is the only good bicycle made—we don't claim that.

We ask you to buy your bicycles of MARSHFIELD CYCLERY

BECAUSE:—
Quality considered, you can't beat the price anywhere.
BECAUSE:—
Being practical bicycle mechanics, we can serve you better than a general store.

BECAUSE:—
It is to our interest to make good any possible flaw in a bicycle we sell.

BECAUSE:—
We can give you any style of equipment and will sell you any part of a new bicycle if you wish to use part of your old one.

We will deduct the price of tires or any other part that you do not want.

BORN.

STONELAKE—To Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stonelake, at their home at Fourteenth and Commercial, West Marshfield, Friday, February 20, a son.

BOWMAN—To Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bowman at their home in Portland February 12, a son. Mr. Bowman is well known here, being part owner of the Woolen Mill store, and felicitations will be extended by their many friends on the Bay.

STANDRIDGE—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Standridge at their home at Henryville, Saturday, February 21, a son, their first born.

Gets New Auto.—C. C. Going, who returned 11 weeks from Portland, bringing with him a fine Overland touring car.

Recovers Pin.—Through a Times found ad, Mrs. C. H. Marsh has recovered a valuable Eastern Star pin which she lost. One insertion of the ad brought the owner, L. E. Hendrix of the Golden Rule found the pin.

Father Dead.—Friends of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Browning have received the sad intelligence that Mrs. Browning's father died while they were on their vacation in Portland. Mrs. Browning has the sympathy of the community in her bereavement.

Takes Prisoner.—Deputy Sheriff J. L. Tellefson left on the Breakwater 11 morning with Wm. Sherman, wanted at Waupaca, Wis., for a statutory offense against his 15-year-old daughter. Sherman was arrested in a South Slough tie camp.

Fly Fishing.—Ranchers from Coos River report that the fly fishing is unusually good for this early in the season and that a few hours of sunshine results in the trout rising to the fly in fine shape. The reports are stirring up the local anglers who are getting out their paraphernalia.

Recovers Glove.—Mrs. L. L. Gilbert of Eastside today recovered a glove which she lost the other day. Soon after losing it she came to the Times office and described it. Shortly afterwards the glove was brought in by Mr. Luparis, who is employed on the street-cleaning crew.

Woman Injured.—Mrs. David Alexander, wife of the proprietor of the Java Coffee House, sustained a fractured leg and a dislocation when she slipped and fell on the steps leading to their apartment over the Hillier cigar store this morning. She is a heavy woman and the injuries are most painful and severe.

Chicken Ranches.—L. F. Heuperman is planning to establish a fine chicken ranch on his new farm on Catching Inlet, handling only thoroughbred fowls. M. A. MacLeod, of the Marshfield Sun, is also going into the poultry game on his ranch near Libby and this week received some fine fowls from Portland as a starter.

Revivals Here.—Bruce Evans is expected here about March 1st to hold a series of evangelistic meetings in the First Baptist church. He has recently closed a successful campaign in Los Angeles and is now in San Francisco. Mr. Evans is a sweet singer as well as a composer of music and a great treat is in store for the people of Marshfield.

No Lights.—Billy Bohrer, messenger boy at the Western Union, was arrested last night by Officer Doane for riding a bicycle without a light.

Buyer Lots.—M. A. McLaggan, of Eastside, has bought ten lots on Ninth street, between C and D, there from Henry Sengstacken, for $825. They are near Mr. McLaggan's home.

Author Here.—Jan. Upham, who is said to be a magazine writer of note and to have been a big contributor to Everybody's on the big land and timber owners, is at The Chandler. He is said to be looking into the ownership of the big tracts of timber in this section to be used in a series of articles soon.

Sick Again.—Tom MacInnis is reported quite sick again at the home of his wife on South Fifth street. His illness appears to have patched up the family troubles which resulted in Mrs. MacInnis leaving his home some time ago and starting suit for divorce. This is several times their troubles have gotten into the divorce courts, but each time they have been adjusted.

Some Contest.—Don Gardiner was in Marshfield last evening displaying something new in spring styles, an intricate adornment on his upper lip that promises to become a full-fledged moustache. It has not quite caught up with the similar undertaking that W. J. Conrad has started, but Don has hopes unless some real baseball magnate comes along and kidnaps him as a "star in disgust."

For Sidetrack.—It is expected that the Southern Pacific will shortly begin the construction of a sidetrack from its North Front street line to the cold storage plant, F. S. Dow's Ocean Dock and the Standard Oil warehouse, so that those concerns will have the benefit of direct rail connection as soon as the local railway is connected up with the lines bought from the Terminal Company.

An Old Paper.—G. A. Bahr has in his possession one of the original copies of the Ulster County Gazette, published at Kingston, Ulster County, New York, January 4, 1800, just 114 years ago. The paper is yellow with age and worn by much handling, but the print is clear. It is a small four-page paper and contains an account of the death of George Washington as the principal news item. There are a number of advertisements, including one offering for sale a negro wench.

More Smallpox.—Joe Sasser, a cook who has been around town for some time, was quarantined yesterday by City Physician Straw for smallpox, making the third case in this immediate vicinity. Dr. Straw says that he now has the pest house ready to segregate cases that cannot be quarantined in their homes and hopes for a rigid enforcement of the regulations to prevent any spread of it. He says he has been informed there are a number of cases in North Bend that have not been quarantined.

Take Tug South.—According to a report here, the tug Powers will probably be taken to San Francisco as soon as the weather settles and put into service by the C. A. Smith Company there, towing barges of lumber to the various points. In the future, the Smith-Powers Company will have comparatively little difficult rafting to do here, as the South Inlet camp will probably be closed up in a few months and the smaller launches can handle the other towing.

Egg Prices Drop.—As a result of a visit of a Coquille Valley egg dealer here Thursday, prices of eggs on the local market went down with a crash. Thursday morning, local stores were paying as high as thirty-five cents per dozen for fresh eggs, but at noon when the Coquille man had made the rounds, the price had dropped to 27½ cents a dozen. Poultrymen report a big increase in the number of eggs from their flocks the last few days.

Case Set.—J. D. Goss and L. A. Liljeqvist, U. S. contending counsel in the case of Anderson and Brunel vs. the Smith-Powers Logging Company, have been notified that the Supreme Court will hear arguments in it on March 4. The case is of considerable importance, the question at issue being as to whether a logging road is a public carrier which has the right of eminent domain, permitting it to use private land or a public highway as a right of way. The lower courts decided the case, which involves right of way in the slough country, in favor of the Smith-Powers company.

In San Francisco.—Word has been received by Jesse Luse from a friend in San Francisco telling of a number of Coos Bayites there. Chas. Alken, who was with a cannery in northern California, is now visiting there. Alton Sengstacken is with the Crowley Launch Company, of which Henry Weider, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Weider of Ten Mile, is superintendent of construction on the rock piers they are building for the Key Route. Ed Weider has an office position with the company. Grant Eggers is now there and Will Laylor is reported to be making his headquarters near San Rafael while representing an eastern firm on the road.
