one to turn in a fire alarm. There was no fire or damage.

Walt Seelye.—Word from Coquille is that C. J. Seelye, the well known logger, will probably enter the race for county commissioner against Commissioner Armstrongs.

New Light.—The Gunner and Grand Theater are going in together in putting out a flaming arc electric light on Front street. It will be the first of the kind to be put in here.

New Manager.—L. J. Justin, of Portland, a brother of Mrs. Sullivan, has been announced by the proprietors of the Coos Hotel as its manager upon the completion of the repairs.

Return in April.—Tom Coke last evening received a telegram from W. S. Chandler stating that they would leave San Francisco today on the Matsunaka for Honolulu and would return April 14.

E. W. Wright Here.—E. W. Wright of Portland, who headed a syndicate that purchased considerable Marshfield property a year or so ago, arrived here yesterday to look after interests on the Bay.

Return Home.—In a letter received from Mrs. J. T. Hall yesterday, she stated that she and Mr. Hall would return on the next Redondo. Mr. Hall left the hospital last Saturday and is much improved.

Redondo Delayed.—Owing to a rough bay again today, the Redondo was unable to sail for San Francisco and the passengers returned this afternoon. She will try for the fourth time tomorrow afternoon.

To Open Mine.—J. M. Thomas, who has returned from Bandon, says that a Los Angeles company is putting in a lot of machinery at the old Lane mine, a gold claim long since abandoned, with a view to working over the tailings and black sand.

To Settle Case.—The case of W. W. Helms vs. Ray Hyde for $86.60 claimed due on account was up in Justice Pennock's court this afternoon. Both parties are from Coquille. An effort was being made to settle it before trial. Hyde first offered $16.40.

Basketball Games.—The Bandon High School basketball team is scheduled to play Marshfield here Thursday night and to play North Bend Friday night. Last Friday night the River-ton Independent team defeated Bandon at Riverton by a score of 30 to 12.

Divorce Granted.—Mrs. Maude L. Peters was granted a divorce from Otto H. Peters yesterday by Judge John S. Coke at Coquille. The grounds for divorce were cruel and inhuman treatment. Hoy and Miller represented Mrs. Peters in the action.

Herrin Honored.—D. C. Herrin, who spent considerable time on Coos Bay a few years ago, was honored by being elected president of the Life Underwriters Association at Portland the other day. He formerly lived at Medford and was for several years with the A. O. U. W.

Coquille Case.—It is expected that the case of Mrs. Alice McDonald vs. the city of Coquille, involving a tract of land which she claims is hers and which the city claims has become a highway through uninter-rupted use, is scheduled for trial at Coquille today. Hen Sengstacken has been agent for the McDonald property.

Eggs Lower.—The price of eggs continues on the downward trend and poultrymen today were offering strictly fresh hen fruit at 25c per dozen. As today is the first of the Lenten season, the extra demand for the next forty days may cause an advance, but if the weather continues favorable the advance may not amount to much.

Forgot Name.—W. U. Douglas has received a letter from Congressman Hawley asking him to ascertain the identity of some Marshfield man who wrote Mr. Hawley under date of February 4 a lengthy letter relative to the new homestead law and the interstate road law. The Marshfield man forgot to sign his name and Mr. Hawley doesn't know who to reply to. The letter is typewritten and two pages long.

Reece Wright Promoted.—Cal Wright is in receipt of a letter from his son, Reece Wright, written at Salina Cruz, Mexico, Jan. 20. He stated that the temperature was 105 and the sea like a mirror at the time—the heavy storms were on the west coast. Reece has been transferred to the Nevada, a sister ship of the Alaskan and belonging to the same company, and promoted to second assistant chief engineer. Reece's many Marshfield friends will be pleased to hear of his continued advancement.
