INFORMAL CHAT.

Word has been received from San Francisco that Mrs. E. Pollexfen, who was planning to accompany W. S. Chandler and family on their trip to Honolulu, had to change her plans owing to Mr. Pollexfen being taken suddenly ill. Their daughter, Mrs. W. S. Turpen, left for there on the last Redondo.

Miss Margaret Hanley of Bandon has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Hoelling at North Bend the past week.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Browning will return from their Portland trip on March 5. Archdeacon Chambers left overland Thursday morning and in the interim Bennett Swanton will have charge of the services.

Mrs. A. T. Lagerstrom will arrive home in a few days from Los Angeles, where she has been spending the winter with relatives.

Mrs. Vernon Smith and her friend, Miss Roberts, are expected here from San Francisco on the next Adeline Smith.

Mrs. Harry G. Butler, who had planned to leave on the Redondo for Santa Rosa, Cal., owing to the illness of her mother, postponed her trip on receipt of a telegram stating that the latter was much improved. Mrs. Butler may go later should the improvement in her mother's health prove only temporary.

Mrs. R. A. Wernich and little daughter, who have been spending the winter in southern California, are expected home in North Bend next week. Mrs. Wernich wired Mr. Wernich that she was much improved in health and that she was getting so homesick that she just couldn't stay away any longer.

Mrs. Thomas Baldwin Brown and little daughter, Claribel, will arrive here from Chicago in June to spend the summer at the J. S. Kaufman home. They expect to remain until September.

Mrs. J. H. Fisher returned this week to their home at Schofield Creek, where Mr. Fisher is one of the S. P. engineers, after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hendryx and baby are expected in North Bend shortly from Seattle. Mrs. Hendryx was formerly Miss Florence Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lashbaugh who have been visiting her son, Geo. Anthony, in North Bend, leave today for their home in Scottsburg.

Mrs. Yates, who has spent the past year as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Witte, left on the last Redondo for Los Angeles.

Mrs. S. W. Van Zile of North Bend is expected home next week from a trip to southern California points.

Mrs. George D. Mandigo of North Bend is confined to her home by a severe injury to her ankle sustained in a fall the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hall are expected home on the next Redondo from an extended stay in San Francisco.

Mrs. McCullough, who has been spending the winter in San Francisco, is expected home on the next Redondo, having reached San Francisco this week. Mr. McCullough has gone to Arizona in hopes of obtaining relief for his tubercular affliction. Mrs. McCullough will probably make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cox, for the time being.

Mrs. Bradford Wheeler will arrive on the next Redondo from San Francisco, where she has spent the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Gee will leave in a few days for a trip through California, after which they will go via Seattle to Minneapolis, where they will make their future home. Mr. Gee has retired as wire chief to engage in business for himself in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Herbert Coleman is guest of Mrs. John Kendall during Mr. Kendall's absence.

Mrs. Wm. Kolm and baby, of Myrtle Point, have been guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bernitt the past week.

C. S. Winsor, of North Bend, who was expected home this week from Southern California, has written that he will remain a few weeks longer

PLAN BENEFIT FOR LIBRARY

Big Concert and Musical Program Week From Tomorrow to Raise Funds

The Marshfield Public Library committee is making arrangements to hold a big benefit musicale at the Masonic Opera House a week from tomorrow to raise funds to purchase books for the juvenile department. The details of the program have not been arranged yet, but the program will contain numbers by the Coos Bay Concert Band, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Mrs. A. B. Gidley and other leading local musicians. A charge of twenty-five cents will be made and all the proceeds will go to the benefit of the juvenile department of the library.

and bring Mrs. Winsor and the children back with him. Mrs. John Kendall and Mrs. Guy Kendall were guests of Mrs. Fred Payne at luncheon Friday.

OPEN REVIVAL HERE MAR. 15

J. Bruce Evans, of Los Angeles, to Conduct Services at Baptist Church

The Marshfield Baptist Church is planning to begin a series of revival meetings Sunday March 15, under the leadership of Evangelist J. Bruce Evans, of Los Angeles. The engagement of Mr. Evans has been pending for several months and the local church counts itself fortunate in being able at length to secure the services of this much-sought and gifted revivalist. Pastor Bannard and his people are making extensive preparations for this series of meetings and are looking forward to a great work under Evangelist Evans' leadership.

NOTICE: All those donating work or money to the Christian Church in North Bend, will pay H. Isaacs same or report to H. P. Gurnea for work.
