SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL

Third Grade.
The following have had 100 in spelling for the week: Alfred McElroy, Willie Archer, Lillian Johnson, Frederick Dow, Myrtle Conklin, Cecil Doll, Ell Sampson, Harry Walp, Lorna Wilson, Mark Boone. Last week the third grade had a contest in addition facts up to 20. There were 150 problems on the page.

The following pupils, with the time in which the work was accomplished, following their names, had perfect papers: Alfred McElroy, 5 min.; Myrtle Conklin, 6 min.; Robert Burroughs, 6 min.; Louie Childs, 8 1/2 min.

These children stood 95 or above and finished in less than ten minutes: Dick Walters, 10 min.; Willie Archer, 6 min.; Virginia Johnson, 5 min.; Harry Walp, 9 min.; Alton Kardell, 8 min.; Walter Sneddon, 6 min.; Grace McElroy, 8 1/2 min.

Seventh and Eighth.

Helen Stack, from Minneapolis, in the Seventh A, and Robert Vestal, from San Jose, in the Eighth B, are new pupils in this grade.

ATHLETIC NOTES

Athletics in the High School have been better at this season of the year than at any former time, and though financial weight has been heavier, from present appearances, no deficiency will be found.

In basketball the school is showing marked improvement though not yet within the charmed circle where we hope soon to be. Present outlook is that we will finish not lower than third, and hopes are entertained that second place will be the final position for this year, which will be a decided advance over the last two years.

The management is extremely pleased to see the interest which has been shown in the team this year by the excellent attendance of games. We hope this will continue to grow and increase as our success increases.

Present plans are that both baseball and track will be represented in the spring and strong teams will be put out in both branches.

High School History

The history department is progressing nicely this year, and is in a better condition than ever before. The Seniors have completed the period of secession and Civil War and have made a careful study of the reconstruction of the South following the war.

The Juniors have completed a review of the Tudor period of English history, and begin now with the growth of the nation toward political revolution and freedom.

The Sophomores have completed the period of reformation and the great religious wars of Europe and are now ready to begin the period in which the great revolution against the powers of the king takes place.

The Freshmen are studying the expansion of the great Roman power and nation, having just completed the First Punic War.

CENTRAL SCHOOL

The first of a series of Mothers meetings was given by the children in Miss Watson's and Miss Corning's rooms on Friday afternoon.

Miss Corning conducted one of her regular sense training and number work classes and Miss Watson taught Longfellow's Arrow and Song to her grade as a language lesson. Songs learned this month were sung by both grades and after a short talk by Miss Corning refreshments were served.

Those present were Mesdames Adams, Otto Schetter, R. H. Corey, R. F. Williams, W. U. Douglas, J. L. Koontz, C. C. Going, Sweet, Immel, Hopson, Snow, Langworthy, P. Mirrasoul, Juth, Ward, Stone, Heister, Malloy, Preston, Wright, J. H. Flanagan, J. W. Bennet, Rebecca Luse-Stump and A. H. McKeown.

SOUTH MARSHFIELD SCHOOL

Second Grade.
Pupils receiving 100 in the weekly spelling test were: August Hoffman, Paul Johnson, Florence Kardall, Josephine Savage, George Scott and Viola Wilson.

In the oral test no words were misspelled by John Clausen, Edith Anderson, Myrtle Johnson, Augustus Hoffman, Paul Johnson, Robert Knox, Florence Kardall, Josephine Savage, George Scott, Floyd Scott, Harry Walter, Eldridge Archer, John McManison, Viola Wilson, Elizabeth McGinnis and Ira Sweet.

Those receiving 100 in daily work in spelling were: Edith Anderson, Violet Curry, Florence Kardall, John Clausen, Augustus Hoffman, Josephine Savage, Eldridge Archer, Viola Wilson, Elizabeth McGinnis, Frances Hall, Lois Bassford, Margaret Wood, Eugene Sampson.

Vernon Holmes writes quite an interesting letter from Oakland, California, describing his trip on the Redondo.

Mrs. Wood visited our room Friday, February 20.
