BORN.

OLSON.—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olson, at their home in Bunker Hill, a son. Mother and child are doing fine and Mr. Olson is as proud as the proverbial father of his first-born can be.

Simpson In.—The A. M. Simpson arrived at North Bend Sunday from the South.

Buys Home.—G. A. Bonebrake recently bought the E. A. Nelson property on South Fifth street near Johnson avenue and will occupy it as a home.

No Smallpox.—Joe Sasser, the last man under quarantine for smallpox in Marshfield, was released from the city pest house today. C. O. Gossney and W. F. Irish were released last week.

Finish Loading.—The Tillamook has practically finished unloading its cargo of supplies, engines and dump cars which it brought for Porter Brothers and Houser & Houser for the construction work up North Inlet.

Business Men Will Meet.—A meeting of the Business Men's Club will be held at the Chamber of Commerce tonight. A committee on by-laws will make their report and the organization will be perfected generally.

Has Smallpox.—Mrs. Warren Painter and her youngest son, Warren, Jr., are under quarantine at their home in North Bend for smallpox. Her other little son is with Grandma Sweetman. Mr. Painter was not quarantined.

Street Fight.—J. A. Murphy and John E. Mackey were arrested yesterday by Chief Carter on the charge of fighting on North Front street. Marshal Carter happened along just in time to prevent a free-for-all involving about fifteen.

Gives Bond.—Dan Bravin, one of the witnesses in the Kelly murder case, has been released from the county jail, his brothers furnishing $500 bond for him. John Gall was released on his own recognizance. The others, including Dempsey, are held in the county jail.

Waite to Build.—Frank B. Waite is expected here on the Breakwater this week. It is expected that while here he will make arrangements to build on some of his down town property in Marshfield. He has negotiations on for erecting a fine moving picture and vaudeville house.

Boy Injured.—Frederick Thurston, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Thurston, formerly of the Central Hotel, fell off his toy automobile today and fractured but will leave no serious results. Dr. Houseworth reduced the fracture for him.

Meet Wednesday.—The Baptist Missionary Circle will meet at the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. R. H. Corey will be hostess and Miss Frances Franse leader. The subject for the afternoon will be "China." Election of officers will be held before the program.

Orders Auto Sold.—A notice has been posted by Constable Cox announcing the sale of the Ford automobile at public auction on March 9, 1914. The automobile was formerly owned by Fox, proprietor of the cleaning establishment on Front street, and was taken by the Mayor on a deed of execution.

Will Discuss Exhibit.—The Coos County exhibit in the Oregon building of the Panama-Pacific Exposition will be discussed at the next meeting of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce. It is possible that $3,000 can be raised, including a county appropriation of $1500 by popular subscription.

Score Greater.—Through an error, the score of the Bandon-North Bend basketball game at North Bend last Friday night was given as 33 to 5 when it should have been 69 to 5. The North Bend team was given the honor of their victory but deserve the credit of running up the highest score of the year in a basketball contest.

Buys Business.—G. A. Bonebrake yesterday purchased a half interest in the Union Meat Market in Marshfield from J. E. Ford and the two will be associated in the business henceforth. Mr. Ford has bought out his partner at Bandon, Mr. Bonebrake has been with the Union Market most of the time for several years and he will make a strong addition to the firm.

Leaves Bandon.—The Bandon Recorder has the following to say regarding a former Marshfield man: "W. B. Scott, who has been in the pattern making business in Bandon for some time, left on the Effield for Stockton, Calif., where he will probably locate. Mrs. Scott left by way of Portland and will visit friends in Spokane before joining her husband in the south."

Left Last Night.—J. M. Upton left last night on the Roseburg stage for Roseburg, to take up his new duties in the Roseburg Land Office. He was called there suddenly and this resulted in cancelling a banquet which local people were planning to give him tonight. Mrs. Upton and the children will remain with her folks, Capt. and Mrs. Reed, for a few days, before joining him at Roseburg.

Wed In Myrtle Point.—H. C. Bargelt and bride arrived here yesterday from Myrtle Point, where they were married Sunday. The bride was formerly Miss Hallie Leep and the ceremony was at the home of her parents, Rev. H. C. Coulter officiating. The groom is a son of L. C. Bargelt, formerly editor of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, and the young couple will have the best wishes of a host of friends. They will make their home in Marshfield.

Ward Wins Suit.—A Portland paper announces that E. S. Ward, formerly a well known North Bend logger and wholesaler, has just won the third of his suits over the insurance money on the fire that put him out of business five or six years ago. His loss was about $40,000 and one of the three companies, having $10,000 insurance, has been fighting it ever since, but finally had to pay. Ward has been living in Portland the last few years, being afflicted with a strange malady that leaves him in a semi-comatose state.

Quick Results.—Mrs. M. R. Brown, living at South Twelfth and Ingersoll, in the most recent addition to the list of Coos Bay people who have found Times want ads quick result producers. Her daughter, Mrs. Howard Savage, yesterday inserted a small ad offering a rooster and a dozen laying hens for sale. Within an hour after the paper was printed a man appeared at the house with a copy of The Times in his hand and bought the lot. The ad was ordered inserted two times, but one insertion was all that was required. The Times want ads get quick results because everyone on Coos Bay reads The Times.
