

IN THE FEMININE DEMAND FOR SMART-NESS HIP DRAPERIES HOLD FIRST PLACE

At a recent fashionable wedding it was remarked that there was scarcely a gown that did not show some form of hip drapery. From the wired minaret they ranged to the narrow puffed ruffles, but the effect was nearly the same in all cases.

These ruffles, panniers and flaring tunics made up gracefully in these new soft taffetas, stand out to just the graceful degree without wire or bones. Taffetas has been nearly perfected both in texture and wearing qualities. It is as soft and pliable as the old time surah and does not crack as formerly.

Aside from the taffetas, there are many other effective silks and numberless cotton fabrics that will be favored for the South, and, later, for spring in the North. In choosing gowns and suits for the southern resorts one should always keep in mind the fact that spring is close upon us and have the garments suited to that season as well.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma Kept Her Locks Dark, Glossy and Thick With a Simple Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.
