A significant fact is Stag's instant appeal to old smokers—men who had long settled down to something else.

These wise old critics are perhaps the most enthusiastic of all.

SPORT NEWS

NEW YORK, March 11.—The carpenters are beginning to get busy out at Washington Park, which is to be used by the Feds as their Brooklyn playground. Despite the pooh-poohs and ta-tas of the old-timers, the impression grows that it will not be long before the "out-laws" are recognized as an organization of importance in the baseball world. Just to show how odd a turn things take, one of the leading baseball men in the country in discussing the situation a few days ago said that he could wish the Feds well, just because Finley J. Shepard, the husband of Helen Gould, is connected with them. "Anything in which that grand woman is even remotely connected," said he, "has this boy's wishes."

Bill Bradley, who has been selected to manage the Brooklyn Tip Tops of the Federal League, gained his reputation with the Cleveland Americans, on which he played third base. Last season he was third base for the Toronto team of the International League. He jumped to the outlaws and signed a contract to manage Toronto, but that city was dropped when it was decided to include Brooklyn in the circuit.

Stanislaus Zbyszko now claims the Graeco-Roman wrestling championship of the world. There is nothing to prevent Stan from going as far as he likes, especially since none of the other big fellows seem anxious to meet him on the mat.

With the basketball season on its last legs, it is stated that this form of sport has increased in popularity over fifty per cent during the past season. A number of schools and colleges which have hitherto frowned upon the game will get busy next season and have teams ready for competition.

Fred Blanding, the Cleveland hurler who jumped to the Feds along with Kahler and Falkenberg, declares that he will again pitch for Birmingham's Naps. What kind of a game are those jumpers putting up, anyhow? Maybe they are dancing to the tune of "He Walked Right In and Turned Around and Walked Right Out Again."

There are other ways besides baseball to acquire the easy bank roll. For instance, look at Willie Hoppe. His annual profits from the green cloth aggregate $25,000.

Now it is Jimmy Clabby who is clamoring for a fight with Mike Gibbons. One of these days some scrapper will peeve Mike and then there will be a fight.

Chief Myers has a bat made from the California fusta scrub, with which he can count on driving out half a dozen circuit drives every afternoon. This is more running than the chief can do comfortably, so he expects to abandon the implement before the opening of the season.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Color, Lustre and Thickness to Hair When Faded, Streaked or Gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
