BORN.
STODDARD—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoddard, at Mercy Hospital, a son. Mr. Stoddard is engineer at the Smith Powers South Inlet camp. Mother and child are doing nicely and Mr. Stoddard is as happy as a man can be.

KARDELL—To Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kardell of Coos River at the home of Mr. Kardell's parent in South Marshfield, an eleven-pound son, their first child.

Laborers Leave.—A large detachment of Greek laborers left on the North Star Wednesday afternoon to commence work on Tunnels eight and nine.

Repair Boat.—Neil Watson returned to Isthmus Inlet on the Aloha on Wednesday, sailing the craft from the Kruse & Banks shipyard where repairs were being made.

Nann Smith Towed.—The Nann Smith was towed from the Kruse & Banks shipyards on Wednesday to the C. A. Smith mill, to take on a cargo of lumber preparatory to her trip south.

Buy's Home.—D. W. Rhodes has purchased the Hendrickson place on Eighth street in Ferndale for $2,000 and moved his family into it. It is a fine place and he plans many improvements in it.

Register Voters.—The slowness with which the voters are registering is causing more or less alarm among the candidates for office and a strenuous effort will be made to get them registered. Tom James has made arrangements to register voters at his office in the Chandler evenings and a number of others have done likewise.

Coquille Wedding.—Word was received here today that Miss Lucia Sperry, the accomplished daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. D. Sperry, of Coquille and Mr. Stratton, a well-known Coquille decorator, will be married there next Sunday. The services will be at the Episcopal Church immediately after the morning services and Archdeacon Horsfall will officiate. Miss Sperry is well-known on Coos Bay.

Lenten Service.—There will be a Lenten service, consisting of shortened form of evening prayer and an address by the Rector in the Episcopal Church this evening at 7:30. A series of addresses on the general subject "Studies in Religion" will be given on the Thursday evening in Lent. This evening the subject of the address will be: "What is Religion?" The general public is cordially invited to hear these Lenten addresses.
