INFORMAL CHAT.

Mrs. A. Z. Downs left today for Eugene, where she will attend the meeting of the State Camp of the Royal Neighbors, March 18 to 20 inclusive, as the delegate of the Marshfield lodge. In fact she will be the only delegate from the Coos County lodges. She will be absent about ten days or so, going and returning via Portland. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKnight are moving from South Tenth street to their new home on Market avenue. Mrs. Chas. McCullough has received word from Mr. McCullough, who went to Tucson, Ariz., recently to the benefit of his health, that he is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hague are expected home next week from San Francisco.

Mrs. A. T. Lagerstrom arrived home on the Adeline Smith from Southern California, where she spent the winter with relatives.

Miss Agnes Hutchison, who has been confined to her home for the past few weeks as a result of severe colds, is reported much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Coleman and son, Jack, left today for Portland, where they will make their home. Mrs. Coleman has been making an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Savage, while Mr. Coleman was recuperating from the recent injury to his knee. Miss Nettie Savage will leave shortly for a visit in Seattle and will then visit the Colemans at Portland for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thoms of Portland, who have been spending the week on the Bay were guests of Miss Pearl Heath at North Bend Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson and Miss Isabelle Stearns, who were expected home this week, will arrive on the next Breakwater. Mr. Simpson has not yet secured his new suit but expects to have a Merce of a Simplex before another month passes.

Mrs. Litchfield, sister of J. H. Fritch, who spent most of the summer here, and Mrs. E. Pollexfen of San Francisco, accompanied by Mrs. W. S. Chandler and Mrs. Thelma and Mrs. W. G. Chandler of Honolulu. Mrs. Pollexfen was taken ill just before the trip and for a time it was feared that she could not go. Mrs. W. S. Turpen, who is staying with her father during Mrs. Pollexfen's absence, will not return to the Bay until after the party arrives home from Honolulu, which will be about April 14.
