WILL MOVE.

The following from a paper at Wenatchee, Wash., will be of interest to the many Coos Bay friends of Mrs. Fuller, who will be remembered as Miss Chapman, daughter of Mrs. M. C. Chapman:

"The members of the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian Church tendered a banquet last evening, in the church parlors, to Mrs. Lee B. Fuller, their former president, who leaves soon for Omak, and Mrs. J. A. Van Valkenburg, their new president. Miss Flora Belle Ludington in behalf of the Guild presented to Mrs. Fuller a beautiful bunch of carnations in appreciation of the work she had done for them."

MISSION SEWING.

Mrs. W. F. Byerly was hostess at a Missionary Sewing at her home in Eastside Thursday afternoon, the afternoon's work being contributed for a missionary box. The work was not completed and it was decided to meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Percy Peet to continue the work. Violets, daffodils and narcissus made the Byerly home most attractive. Refreshments were served during the afternoon, Misses Willa Byerly and Ferris Swanson serving. Those present were Mrs. J. A. Swanson, Mrs. A. Horton, Mrs. J. D. McKay, Mrs. C. Wallace, Mrs. Percy Peet, Mrs. F. Herman, Mrs. Frank Frey, Mrs. F. Cassidy, Mrs. Will Stecke and Mrs. Martin Breen.
