First Home From School

PARENTS:

Do you remember how you would have enjoyed riding home from school on a bicycle? Why not let your son have one?

Do you remember how you had to hurry in the morning to "get there before the last bell rang?"—Why not let your boy have a TIMESAVER? He'll be late anyhow, I know, but think of the fun he'll have.

Please look over our wheels before you decide on the bicycle for him. We know what's what in durability and can make many suggestions that will prove of value to you.

Our bicycles MUST please, MUST give satisfaction, or we'd have to go out of business.

Special Music.—"Fear Ye Not, O Israel," by Dudley Buck, will be the subject of a solo to be sung tomorrow morning at the 11 o'clock service in the Episcopal church by Mr. R. E. Horse Overboard.—A horse that was being shipped by Dave Mussen to a rancher at Allegany, caused much trouble for the crew of the Alert yesterday just as she was ready to leave the wharf. One of the members of the crew attempted to lead the horse down the gang plank and on the boat. The animal which is blind in one eye, attempted some fancy jumps and plunged into the water between the boat and dock. The boat finally steamed over to the mudflat at Eastside, towing the horse, which was put on a barge and transferred to the Alert. Wait for Simpson.—The Port of Coos Bay Commissioners have decided to wait until L. J. Simpson returns before taking any action on sending a man to Washington.

NEW FORD CAR IS A FAVORITE

THE 1914 FORD ROADSTER CREATES MUCH FAVORABLE COMMENT AMONG THE AUTOISTS.

The new 1914 Ford roadsters which arrived in the special carload consigned to George Goodrum on the Breakwater this week have created much favorable comment among automobile owners. Graceful lines and an artistic appearance contribute to the popularity of this newest product of the Ford factory.

Mr. Goodrum is in receipt of advices from the Ford Company to the effect that the February sales of Ford cars were 24,621 cars or at the rate of 300,000 cars a year. Even now the factory is being rushed with orders.

Mr. Goodrum has another carload coming on the Breakwater next week as he wishes to avoid disappointing any of those who contemplate buying a Ford this year. If you are thinking of getting a Ford see George now.
