Catching Inlet Services.—Rev. Samuel Gregg will preach in the Unity Chapel on Catching Inlet on Friday evening of this week. He plans to reach outside points every week.

Many Answers.—"Stop that want ad of mine for a girl. We got one soon after we inserted it the first time and are bothered to death with applicants," said W. N. Ekblad today. "Times want ads sure get results."

Bank Examiner.—Lloyd L. Muilt, state bank examiner, arrived here today to inspect the state banks in this section. It is his first visit since his appointment. He arrived in the Oregon State Senate when Judge Coke was a member of the body.

Postpone Dance.—The Marshfield lodge of Elks has postponed its dance which was to have been held tomorrow night for one week owing to the concert of Madam Sandal, as the noise would probably interfere with the recital. It will probably be held a week later.

Ships Trees.—A large shipment of trees was sent from the Albert E. Seaman ranch on Coos River to the J. D. Goss ranch at Ten Mile today. The shipment comprises various trees and plants, among them being apple, peach, pear, loganberry and raspberry. The trees are mostly four years old and should yield fruit in the next season.

Enforce Rule.—Dr. Straw, City Health Officer, announces that he will strictly enforce the city ordinance providing for the disposal of garbage. This ordinance provides that each place having garbage to dispose of must have two metal receptacles for it, one in which to place the vegetables, etc., which are subject to decay and the other ashes and non-decayable matter.

Booster Offer.—A communication was received by J. W. Bennett today from D. B. Grant, who has offered to come to Coos Bay and render his services as a booster for the country at the nominal sum of $200 per month, exclusive of repairs to his car, which he would also bring to the country. Mr. Bennett turned the communication over to the Chamber of Commerce for consideration.

Dredging Needed.—W. M. Ross, captain of the Banshee, reports that dredging is badly needed on Isthmus Inlet from Henryville to the head waters of the Inlet. Captain Ross says that the dredge which worked in the inlets belonging to Julius Larson would suffice for the needs of Isthmus Inlet. Mr. Ross says he would like to have the Port Commission appropriate ample money for the dredging, for if the work is not performed soon he will not be able to make regular stops on the run of the Banshee.

Should Have Sign.—E. B. Jones, of the Coos Bay Realty Company, returned today from a trip to Roseburg. Mr. Jones suggests that in order to inform the public that the bad roads are not in Coos, but in Douglas County, a sign should be placed on the Coos and Douglas County line with the words: "This is Coos County." A marked difference is always noticed when the stage passes from Coos to Douglas County, and not so many complaints are ever in evidence from the Coos County road, still, according to Mr. Jones, the bad roads are all charged up to Coos Bay. In this way the public would be informed that the bad roads are the fault of Douglas and not of Coos County. Mr. Jones reports that many people are in Roseburg anxious to come to Coos Bay this summer and predicts a very prosperous season for the merchants on Coos Bay.

LIBRARY IN NORTH BEND

Many Contributions of Books and Money Made at Delightful Social Last Night

The North Bend Library Association held a very successful public entertainment at the Commercial Club rooms last evening. Music, readings and a few brief addresses on the purposes and plans of the Library Association were followed by refreshments of coffee and sandwiches prepared by the ladies of the Association. A delightful social evening was enjoyed by all and many contributions of books and money were added to the resources with which the new free public library will begin to do business.

The credit for this excellent beginning of the work for a free library is due especially to the ways and means committee of the association, consisting of Mrs. Frank Frame, chairman; Mrs. Frederick Hollister, Mrs. C. M. Byler, Mrs. George Mandigo, Mrs. C. P. McCollum, Mrs. Herbert Armstrong, Mrs. M. E. Everitt, Mrs. George Hazer, Mrs. L. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Henry Bergman.

The Reverend Father McDevitt, representing the Catholic church, gave a series of short stories that convulsed his hearers with laughter, and then spoke seriously of the need of looking after the minds of the children of North Bend by providing good books, just as carefully as we look after the health of their bodies by guarding against disease. He closed by declaring that he could hardly imagine a more worthy enterprise and pledged his hearty co-operation.

Announcement was made of a business meeting of the Library Association at the library room in the Hollister residence Thursday afternoon, March 19th at three o'clock. All persons interested in a free public library for North Bend are urged to be present at that meeting.

The committee has secured space in Fred Hollister's residence for the starting of a library room.
