

Announcement

Beginning the first day of May there will be an advance of ten per cent (10 per cent) on all lots in Perham Park. This is in accordance with plans made when the title to this fine residence property was cleared. The values now offered in this tract are the best on Coos Bay and by far the lowest—one-third to one-half lower than adjoining property in West Marshfield. By making your selection now you will not only save from $40 to $60, but will also have the choice of the best and most slightly locations. Lots are now offered at from $400 to $600—a few as low as $300—on easy terms, a small payment down and two years and a half for the balance. Don't wait until the best locations are all taken; make your selection now and save from $40 to $60. "See Reid about it." Make an appointment by phoning 264-J or 327-J. Office open evenings from 7 to 8 o'clock.

PLAN TEA.

The Chancel Guild of the Marshfield Episcopal church is arranging for a Silver Tea to be given soon after Lent, the proceeds of which will go towards paying for the new altar cloths which it is buying.

BABY PARTY.

Mrs. Thomas Juza of North Bend gave a little party at their home last Sunday to celebrate the first birthday of their daughter, Miss Isabelle. A delicious dinner was served, including the cake with its one candle. Those present were Mrs. J. W. Davis and children, Mrs. George Gulovsen and daughter Georgina, Mrs. Wm. Otis and Geraldine and Wilbur, Mrs. W. G. Shepard, Mrs. N. G. Hames and Mrs. R. O. Brainard.

K. C. CLUB.

Mrs. Richard Bock entertained the K. C. Club at a Coos River launch party Wednesday. A big picnic lunch was enjoyed at the creamery. Her guests were Mrs. Frank Muscus, Miss Elizabeth Jennings, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Sherman Gamble.

MEET SATURDAY.

The Christian Sisterhood will meet with Mrs. W. A. Reid next Saturday.

ST. PATRICK'S PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sumner entertained at one of the season's prettiest parties Tuesday evening in honor of St. Patrick's Day. A color scheme of the Irish green and white was carried out in the house decorations of clovers and potatoes and in the "braties and tay" that followed the evening's entertainment. Two Irish maids in green dresses and white caps, Misses Effie Church and Irene Preuss, assisted the hostess in serving. Mrs. F. C. Birch helped in receiving the guests. Among those invited were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Savage, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Bolt, Rev. and Mrs. Jos. Knotts, Mr. and

PROGRESS CLUB

The Progress Club was called to order Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger by the president, Mrs. Blake. Fifteen members responded to roll call, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Gidley, Mrs. Stoll, Miss Silverman, Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Tiedgen, Mrs. McEldowney, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Sengstacken, Mrs. Dan Maloney, Mrs. Butz, Mrs. Adelsperger, Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Blake. Mrs. Maloney had the paper on "Modern Child Education," which was devoted chiefly to a discussion of the Montessori system and was assisted by Mrs. Sengstacken. During the business session it was decided to create the office of critic to the work, and Mrs. Chandler was appointed to take it. Mrs. Adelsperger served tea, coffee and sandwiches after the regular work, assisted by Miss Helen Rush. The club will meet next with Mrs. McEldowney, when Mrs. Flanagan will have a paper on Municipal Art.

THIMBLE CLUB PARTY

The North Bend Thimble Club gave a delightful evening of dancing and cards Tuesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. I. E. Bartle. The rooms were profusely decorated with St. Patrick's symbols, the shamrock and "the harp that once thro' Tara's Halls" taking first place. The small tables were decked with white napkins folded into boots supporting little green-ribbon tied bunches of shamrock. The evening was a great pleasure to all who attended, among whom were Mrs. R. J. Coke, Mrs. Junket, Mrs. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Coleman, Mrs. H. O'Mara, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Linden, Mr. and Mrs. J.
