We Sell For Less Because We Sell For Cash

We make no extravagant claims for them. We know that there are other clothes as good, but we have yet to see ready-to-wear clothes that are better tailored, fit better to keep their shape longer than clothing you purchase at THE PARISIAN.

The way a suit fits you depends largely on the workmanship put into it. The finest materials mean nothing unless tailored properly.

The master tailors in a Parisian Suit is apparent when you buy it and as long as you wear it. To LOOK you are welcome and NOT obligated to buy.

We guarantee Satisfaction.

The Goods and the Price

There is but one satisfactory reason for the constant growth of the GOLDEN RULE STORE—the right goods at the right price. When you trade at the GOLDEN RULE you have the pleasure of knowing that you have received the full value for your money. The charge, born of envy, has been made by some people that we carry cheap goods. Consider the following well-known brands of the various lines carried by us and decide for yourself. The real difference is that we sell them for less:

- Queen Quality Shoes for women.
- Buster Brown Blue Ribbon Shoes for boys and girls.
- Feblich, Fox, Hilker and White House shoes for men.
- Wright's Underwear.
- Arrow Collars.
- Warner's Rust-Proof and Redfern Corsets.
- Topsy, Burson and Ipswich Hosiery.
- La Vogue Suits and Coats.
- Amoskeg Domestics and Woolens.
- Pequot and Pepperell Sheetings.
- Fruit of the Loom and Lonsdale Muslins.

Sells Auto.—C. I. Bonebrake today sold his automobile, which has been in the city livery service, to Emerson Perry.

Recovers Badge.—Duncan Ferguson today recovered his lost fireman's badge. He advertised for it in The Times last night and later his mother found it at their home.

Band Concert.—Director Fenton of the Coos Bay Concert Band announces that another concert will be given Sunday afternoon at the Masonic Opera House.

Party Friday.—Mrs. G. W. Kaufman has issued invitations for Friday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. A. J. Reise and Mrs. Defendau.

Return Thursday.—Word from Portland is that L. J. Simpson and wife and daughter, Miss Belle Stearns, will arrive home on the Breakwater Thursday.

In Charge of Stock.—Arthur McKeown is in charge of the I. X. L. store pending further action by the San Francisco Board of Trade which forced the assignment of S. Levin.

Serves Papers.—Sheriff Gage arrived here today to serve the formal papers citing Mayor Allen, John D. Goss, Constable Cox and V. C. Gorst for contempt of court in connection with the sale of the Fox auto at North Bend recently.

Charter Vessel.—The Encore, of the Simpson company fleet of sailing vessels, is taking on a cargo at Portland for Valparaiso for Romyn, Mackall & Co., by whom she has been chartered.

In College Play.—Henry Russell, a brother of T. C. Russell of Beaver Hill, is to be the leading man in the play "Mice and Men," which will be presented next week at Corvallis by the members of the Mask and Dagger Club of Oregon Agricultural College.

To Coquille.—Rev. Father McDevitt, of North Bend, will spend the latter part of the week at Coquille, where he will celebrate mass next Sunday. In consequence, Rev. Father Munro will hold only one mass in Marshfield and that at 10 o'clock Sunday.

May Leave.—Dr. Werner A. Lagus has gone to Raymond, Washington, with a view of locating there. He likes Marshfield, but a large Finnish colony has been insisting that he come to Raymond and so he finally decided to go and look the field over and will decide later.

Return Boys.—C. H. Walter received word last night from the Roseburg police that they had picked up his son, Henry Walter, and the Vestal boy, who left here Friday on a hike. They said they would send the lads back in care of the mail stage driver today.

Is Manager.—Mr. Lothman, of the Scandinavian Pharmacy, which was absorbed by the Lockhart-Parsons Company yesterday, will remain with the Central avenue store. He takes stock in the company. F. M. Parsons will have the general management of both stores.

Horse Runs Away.—Dr. E. E. Straw demonstrated his ability to stop a runaway when he jumped from the curb in front of the Pullman bar today and grabbed a horse that was making his way up Front street at a terrific rate of speed. The horse was attached to a garbage wagon and started to run at the Palace restaurant.

Beat Hampton.—Chas. Jensen yesterday morning borrowed $2 from B. E. Hampton, proprietor of the Central Hotel, on the claim that he had a time check which he would cash later and repay. It was found that he had no time check and had invested the funds in liquor. He was arrested and given five days in the city jail. He claimed to be a logger.

For Fine Dairy.—Jas. Ferry, Jr., who has taken over the Ferry ranch on Isthmus Inlet, is planning to start a fine herd of Holsteins there and make it one of the best ranches in this section. There are 537 acres in the ranch and he plans to clear more of it and otherwise improve it and also to put in a herd of goats there soon. The ranch belonged to the J. L. Ferry estate.

Recovers Doll.—A Times lost ad restored a Kewpie doll which Mrs. Warner Ogren's baby lost on the street the other day. It was the only one of its kind in Marshfield, having been sent from Germany. It was picked up by Miss Elizabeth Flanagan, daughter of J. W. Flanagan, who promptly brought it to the Times office.

Buy Home.—Ben Wright and Irving Hadlock have purchased the Rosenberg property at Eastside near the end of the long wharf. The property consists of two lots 50x100 and a three-story house and the price was about $1600. They will move there from Ferndale and occupy it jointly. Messrs. Hadlock and Wright being brothers-in-law.

Entertain Scots.—The local Caledonian Club held a meeting Saturday evening to arrange a program for a large entertainment. Among the star performers of the evening will be Pat Devlin of Beaver Hill, an enthusiastic Scotchman who has a world wide reputation as an orator. Mr. Devlin served fourteen years in the British army and has seen active service in South Africa and India, and has also traveled extensively throughout the United States and Canada, gaining a varied experience in Scottish organizations.

The musical numbers were very good. Messrs. Davila and Long rendered some charming selections on banjo, mandolin and guitar, every number being encored.

CIVIC BEAUTY CLUB MEETING

Will Determine Whether to Continue Organization or Dispose of Funds

A meeting of the members and contributors of the former Marshfield Improvement Club, which was started two years ago for the purpose of aiding a city beautiful here, has been called for Thursday evening at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce to determine whether the organization shall be revived or what shall be done with the funds on hand. Owing to unfavorable conditions, the original plans of the club were not carried out and about $90 of the funds collected for prizes and to carry on the plan remains on hand. Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen, the secretary and treasurer of the organization, wants to have something done with it.

Many would like to see the original plans of the organization carried out in hopes that it would stimulate the beautifying of the streets and homes of the city and also arouse a greater civic spirit here. However, it is difficult to get active ones to take hold of it.

If the club is not revived the Marshfield Public Library would like to have the balance of the funds on hand turned over to it.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a Republican candidate for Joint Representative for Coos and Curry counties at the primary election May 15.
