George Horine, the champion high jumper, is playing first base for a team at Palo Alto. There are a lot of major league shortstops and third basemen who would welcome him, with his six feet seven record.

Frank Schulte, the only surviving member of the old Chicago Cubs baseball machine of 1967, writes from St. Petersburg, Fla., that he realizes that he has a stiff fight on his hands to hold his grip on right field. Wilbur Goode, a substitute last year, is doing some sensational work in his attempt to land Schulte's job.

Tipped off by several New England League managers, so he claimed, that his new purchase could not hit and was not much of a thrower, President Conners of the Syracuse, N. Y., Stars, has refused to pay the figure he had promised for Catcher George W. eeler, who was with Louisville last season.

Young Steve Ketchell, who is now on the Pacific Coast, is not having everything his way, according to reports. He is much liked in the west but Ketchell has been a disappaintment, notably in his bout with Dave Picato recently. He managed to last the limit but was on the verge of being knocked out several times. His gameness won-him many admirers.

When Alfred de Oro lost the pool title to Benny Allen many of the cue authorities expressed the opinion that the wonderful Cuban had reached the end of his string. But evidently there is one department in which the veteran is as good as ever; that is three-cushion billiards. De Oro still holds the title for that style of play and from all indications he is going to retain it. He is running away with all opponents these days.

There's going to be a new scheme of things in Cfncinnati this summer. Whereas previously the manager there had been a rather voiceless little person with scarcely an opinion of his own this senson, walle Charley Herzog's there, Mr. Herzog will run things. Charley has come right out and made the announcement, and has assured his players that they can depend upon it. His word in things baseball around the Red hangout will be final, and Charley explained to his men that he wanted that thoroughly understood.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Commissioner on the Democratic ticket at the coming primary election.
