LOCAL BREVITIES

TIDES FOR MARCH
Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison on consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on the bar subtract two hours 34 minutes.

WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
OREGON—Occasional rain in northwest; unsettled in south; southerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., March 26, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist:
Maximum . . . . . 47
Minimum . . . . . 32
At 4:43 a. m. . . . . 38
Precipitation . . . . . .35
Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1913 . . . . . 52.76
Precipitation same period last year . . . . . 49.59
Wind: Southwest; cloudy.

Episcopal Services.—The Lenten address in the Episcopal church at 7:30 this evening will be on the subject: "The Obstacle to Religion."

Recovers Umbrella.—A want ad inserted once in The Times recovered a valuable umbrella for Mrs. Harry Mohr. While shopping Mrs. Mohr left it at Mrs. A. G. Alken's store.

Father Dead.—Jim Conrol has received a telegram announcing the death of his father at their old home in Wisconsin. His brother, Samuel, was there during the parent's last illness.

Improving Building.—C. W. Viers is adding much to the appearance of his paint and wallpaper store on North Front street by putting in a new plate glass front and remodeling the interior.

Plan Revival.—Rev. A. F. Bassford, Rev. J. E. Burkhardt, Rev. Samuel Gregg and other Marshfield Protestant ministers are making arrangements for a big union revival to be held at the old Tabernacle during the month of May.

Will Run.—W. J. Rust today received the petitions of Wm. H. Canon of Medford as a candidate for Democratic national committeeman from Oregon. Hugh McLain was aspiring for this place, but whether he will make the race has not been authoritatively announced.

Health Promoters Coming.—Rev. Bassford is in receipt of a letter from the Oregon Sex Hygiene Society stating that Dr. Calvin White, Dr. A. C. Smith and Dr. C. J. Smith of the State Health Board, expect to be here in about a month to deliver some lectures on health topics.

Elks Elect Three.—At a meeting of the Marshfield lodge of Elks last evening, W. J. Conrad and Del Bengtson were elected to membership and will be initiated next Wednesday night. F. G. Horton was also elected to membership on a transfer from another lodge. Next Wednesday night officers will be installed for the ensuing year.

Leaves Suddenly.—Some friends of LeRoy Robertson, a young man who was formerly employed in The Toggery, are mystified by his sudden departure. He has been gone for over a week and did not inform anyone as to where he was going. He told Ed Richardson, his roommate, that he was planning to attend college. He left some of his effects in the room.

Plan Banquet.—Plans are being made for the Fellowship Club's monthly banquet, which will be held next Tuesday night. J. C. Kendall is to be toastmaster. Supt. Tiedgen will talk on the "Playground Movement for Marshfield," and G. W. Kaufman will talk on "Providing Homes for the new arrivals on Coos Bay. Two other timely talks are to be made by local men.

Young People's Association.—The members of the Senior class in the Episcopal Sunday school will meet this evening immediately after the Lenten service at 7:30 for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Anglican Young People's Association. This organization has won great favor among the younger members of the Church of England and the Church in Canada.

DANCE, Eagle's Hall, SATURDAY, March 28, KEYSER'S ORCHESTRA.

The times want ads are the keys to the door of opportunity.

All Over Oregon

FOREST GROVE.—A. E. Scott has purchased "The Press" and will consolidate it with the "News-Times."

ROSEBURG.—This city will hold its annual strawberry carnival May 21, 22 and 23. It is expected that this will be the biggest event of the kind ever held in Roseburg.

PENDLETON.—Wesley Matlock, son of the Mayor of Pendleton, was among those who were heavily fined recently for gambling.

ROSEBURG.—O. H. Porter and City Attorney Abraham have announced that they will be candidates for representative from Douglas county at the Republican primary election to be held on May 15.
