THE STAFF

I have a staff to prop my way
As I plod onward through the day;
And if by stony paths I fare
I lean on it—the Staff of Prayer.

If so be I must toll and cease
The heights that frown above the vale,
It aids my lagging footsteps there;
It buoys my heart—the Staff of Prayer.

—Clinton Scollard.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS
News of Upper Coquille Valley as Told by The Enterprise
The corpse accidentally found on the Albert Barklow place near here the other day is believed to be that of Mike Madigan, a young miner who mysteriously disappeared about thirty-five years ago. There were rumors of foul play then and the discovery of the corpse now seems to prove it. Jim Guerin and Z. T. Johnson recall the Madigan case plainly.

R. G. Masters last week sold his clothes cleaning and pressing business to J. A. Pressler, who took charge of the business Friday morning. Mr. Masters left for Portland on the last Breakwater and from there expects to go to work in a logging camp near Corvallis.

Mrs. C. A. Gourley went to Marshfield Saturday to join Mr. Gourley. They expected to leave on this week's trip of the Redondo for California and will spend a month or six weeks visiting relatives at Palo Alto. Mrs. Gourley's son is at present visiting at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Condon, who have resided in the Page house, corner Second and Maple street for the past two years, while Mr. Condon has been working on various grading contracts in this section, packed their household goods last week and Saturday shipped them to Marshfield where it understood Mr. Condon has a position with the C. A. Smith Company. John Whobrey went to Coaledo on business Monday, from there he expected to go to Marshfield and on by way of the Siuslaw to Portland, where he will make arrangements to handle the wool crop of this section the coming season. Mr. Whobrey states judging from the present outlook he hopes to be in a position to pay more by at least one or two cents that was paid last year.

AVOID STUFFY, WHEEZY, BREATHING
Take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for an inflamed and congested condition of the air passages and bronchial tubes. A cold develops quickly if not checked and bronchitis, la grippe and pneumonia are dangerous possibilities. Harsh, racking coughs weaken the system, but Foley's Honey and Tar is safe, pure and certain in results. Contains no opiates. Owl Prescription Pharmacy, Frank D. Cohan, Opposite Chandler Hotel. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Charles A. Johns was a continuous resident of Baker City for twenty-four years, during which time he served four terms as Mayor and eighteen consecutive years as School Director.

As Mayor he gave the city an honest, efficient administration, and its financial affairs were conducted on a close, safe, economical basis and at the very lowest expense to the taxpayers.

As School Director he always worked for the best of results and for economy in administration, without impairing the high standard of the Baker City schools.

In our judgment, as Governor, he could and would do the same thing for the State.
