

FELLOWSHIP CLUB DISCUSSES SOME VITAL CIVIC PROBLEMS

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION DISCUSSION AT FELLOWSHIP CLUB—OTHER CIVIC CLUB TALKED OVER.

Attention for city employees was given from the affirmative side at the month-end debate of the Fellowship club on Tuesday evening. The affirmative side was led by Dr. Straw, who pointed out that as he did not want to see the policy of the city under the head, he would decline to participate in the subject in its widest scope. Dr. Straw cited the police as an example of the city employees by comparing ordinary labor. He said that laborers were paid 30 cents an hour for a ten hour day, while a police officer is paid $90 per month, according to Dr. Straw, and in the majority of police officers' field are relieving at present men who are more reliable than the people they are relieving. Dr. Straw, and many others, works for a small salary, more than he is worth, and more expensive to the municipality than a good man at a good subject was thrown open for discussion by the chairman who in a voluntary response to Mr. Copple for a short time on the subject. "It is a fact" said Mr. Copple in his in-line of municipal government less service and more money than if he were paid by a large corporation, who work for the city. They have a soft snap, and they in their position such, come and go when they please and are to a great extent their own boss, while taxpayer works much harder to support municipal employees in their positions. My position in this matter is that the city should treat municipal employees as would any other firm or corporation, on a basis.

Hansen availed himself of the opportunity for discussion and in the very pointed paragraphs of his charge of every employee new mayor is elected and re-elected to the want of columns of the paper for the filling of the vacant certain stated amount. In North Bend, the tax is so poor that they are unable to patronize a moving company or buy a dish of ice cream. Mr. Hansen "and its all" of high taxes. That situation will exist in Marshfield if we are not careful. The me of a story Joe Bennett the ouer day of a man from Salem and direct system under which Mr. Hansen's bank should be conducted. I have been running this for these years, said Mr. Bennett now they send a fellow to tell me how to run a bank himself. It's the same with the council, and if they are careful with the people's money will make a failure of government."

A good thing I'm not on the said Dr. Straw to Hansen.

Davis & Long, the banjo player, rendered two selections, the resulting from the immense popularity of the first. Toastmaster, Kendall thanked the players of the Fellowship Club. Arrivals and Where to Put was a subject that was most analyzed by J. Wilson Kaufman. Kaufman made a very interesting address, both from the point of view as a speaker and his fond and Eastside.

His statements as to the real with reality values in a portion of Marshfield at the time. Mr. Kaufman said the filling of Mill Slough would be to the relief of a local property resident. Property owner stated that property its probation of utility-residence property before it some business property. Mr. Kaufman proved himself the best speaker of the evening with facts, classes of, rentitions for home sites, and five rents in Marshfield as well with other cities. Mr. Kaufman concluded by saying that national campaign should be towards cementing a relationship between prospective builder and through the Fellowship working through the Chamber of Commerce.

Right Wilson came in for remarks, in which he agreed with Kaufman saying that he suggestion or further recommendation could add to Mr. Kaufman.

"Broken Melody" a violin and piano accompanied by Kaufman at the piano, interrupted by a broken violin and one of the members rendered the appropriate title should be "The Broken String". Mr. Kaufman adjusted his instrument by the sound of a new string and the audience with two selections which were very well received.

Public Parks and Playgrounds" subject assigned to Prof. Kaufman who analyzed the subject from the present time with the requirement of the public parks. The speaker stated that no interest was manifested in parks and play-to make public spirited citizens parcels of land to these purposes. Prof. Kaufman that more real spirit on all our citizens would show wonderful results in the civic improvements. The meeting closed with a few remarks from Toastmaster John W. Kendall, thanking all who had participated in the banquet. The subject for discussion at the next meeting of the club, which in all probability will be the last of the season, will be the question of combining the cities of Marshfield, OAKLAND WANTS CONVENTION.

OAKLAND, Cal., April 2.—A delegation of 100 Oakland business men and educators will be sent by special train to the meeting at Minneapolis in July of the National Educational Association to urge Oakland as the convention place for the association in 1915. The special train will go east by way of Portland, Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria, at each of which places the California party will be joined by local delegations. Views of every part of California will be taken along.

PORTLAND—Declaring himself to be a real "cop" with authority to "frisk" his victim for firearms, a highwayman went through John B. Moore's pockets and relieved him of $26.65. He had a star too.

WOMAN WOULD BE UNSEXED

NEW YORK, April 2.—Woman suffrage, the feminist movement and Socialism have been bitterly attacked by the Rev. D. Joseph Silverman. He sees polygamy in the woman's vote and the disruption of the home. The noted rabbi denounces the Feminist movement as the forerunner of free love. He pointed out that the Catholic church has opposed the movements and Socialism; no good Catholic lends his support to either of them, for the Catholic church, with its deep knowledge of human nature, sensed the evil and recognized the danger of what would and would follow. In conclusion, Dr. Silverman said: "I call on all Protestant churches to join in opposing these three movements, in the interests of humanity, in the interests of the children of today and in the interests of the children unborn."

Catching the Public Ear

If your business or your needs demand an audience with the public ear you are up against a problem with just one solution. A speech on Front street might attract a hundred or two of Coos Bay's 10,000 divisions of the public ear, but it's not any ways likely you'd get the one or more you wanted. There's just one way to properly and satisfactorily catch Coos Bay's public ear and that is through a TIMES Want Ad. Ninety-five out of every hundred people on Coos Bay read THE TIMES. Phone an ad to 133 and realize the value of reaching practically all the people.
