

OWNING A HOME

WHY

Every reasonable consideration favors your owning a home; the comfort of your loved ones and yourself, your relation to the community in which you live, and the principle of thrift and economy.

WHERE

Build your home amid pleasant natural surroundings and in a good neighborhood; locate it on a good street accessible to employment, in an addition with city water service and telephones. BUILD IN FIRST ADDITION TO MARSHFIELD.

HOW

Buy your lot in FIRST ADDITION now, securing the best remaining building-site by paying a small sum in cash and the balance in monthly installments. Then buy lumber and start building the house without delay.

FIRST ADDITION TO MARSHFIELD

TRUTH THAT EASTER TELLS.

If you look into the face of humanity on Easter day and listen to its accents and watch its movements wherever the message of Easter has been spoken you know that it is joyful news, good tidings. The pealing bells, the jubilant songs, the churches and the homes bright with the flowers of spring, the festive garments, the whole costume and utterance of Christendom show that the word has been spoken as a word of cheer, a word of hope, a summons to rejoicing. Is not this in itself a great achievement? To fill the heart of the world with a great hope and an unselfish joy—is not that a great good? That Jesus the Christ has done all this for the world no man can deny.

There is reason in this rejoicing. It is the truth that Easter tells that makes the whole earth glad. What is this truth? It is the truth that there is life beyond the grave. To the perfect man there is no death, and in every man there is a spiritual principle over which death has no power. This has been the unquenchable hope of mankind in all the ages, and the resurrection of Christ gives to this hope a great confirmation.—Dr. Washington Gladden in Woman's Home Companion.

EASTER PLANTS.

A little plant is an Easter sermon. It preaches more eloquently than many men. The life story of the plant is the life story of man. Endurance and patience are seen in the struggling seed. Buried in the black earth, it patiently endures until the time of birth. The struggle of the plant pushing its way from darkness to light is well rewarded. In the sunlight and air of the upper world the plant reaches higher growth and development. The beauty of the blossom is symbolic of the beauty of the soul, which has overcome evil influences and radiates its glory to all about.

"CHRIST IS RISEN"—A JOYOUS EASTER MESSAGE.

Easter is the queen of festivals. It is the commemoration of a supreme historic fact, the revelation of a supreme religious truth, the inspiration of a supreme spiritual consolation, the force of a supreme moral motive. Of Christ's resurrection the apostles, the early disciples, were witnesses. His death upon the cross had filled them with anguish and despair. But when the news on that first bright Easter morning spread from lip to lip, "The Lord hath risen, indeed, and appeared unto Peter," they were their sorrow turned into a rapture of joy. The tumultuous notes of that great Easter chorale have rolled through all after ages their unspoken gladness. That resurrection, that triumph over death, has changed all the destinies and brightened all the life of mankind throughout the world during the nineteen centuries which since have passed.—Dean Farrar.

"If I had some fady calico I'd dye you the nicest egg. I'd sew it round the egg, you know"—
"And, as it boiled, each flower or spot Would print right on the shell. I'll hunt—perhaps somewhere I've got Bits that will do quite well."

She found a stray bit of pretty pink, With rosebuds so quaint and prim, But as she sewed it round I think Her eyes grew rather dim, But why this was she did not tell. She boiled the egg awhile, Then clipped the cloth and show'd the shell. Rose prints, with a smile.

Among Our Churches

TOMORROW IS PALM SUNDAY

SPECIAL SERVICES IN HONOR OF THE DAY AT EPISCOPAL AND CATHOLIC CHURCHES—SPECIAL MUSIC AND SERVICES.

Tomorrow is what is commonly termed in the church calendar "Palm Sunday." There will be appropriate music sung in the Episcopal church, including a solo, and a special sermon by the rector on the significance of the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem. There will be special masses at the Catholic church also.

Completes New Pews.
The new Marshfield Episcopal church has about completed its interior furnishings in the procuring of handsome new pews, which were set up this week. They are the product of the sash and door factory in North Bend, and their skill and workmanship have been highly praised. The pews are embodiment of an original and unique design for church seating and are thoroughly in harmony with the remaining church furniture, especially the oak choir stalls. They are provided with book racks and adjustable kneeling benches.

(Ministers and others are requested to hand in the Sunday church notices not later than Friday evening to insure insertion Saturday.)

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
4th and Market.
R. E. Browning, Rector.
8 a. m., Holy Communion.
9:30 a. m., Sunday School.
11 a. m., Morning prayer and sermon.
7:30 p. m., evening prayer and sermon.
3 p. m., services in St. Mary's Episcopal Church, North Bend.
Rev. Robert E. Browning, Rector of the Episcopal Church, will have the following special topics for the sermons tomorrow:

11 a. m., "Our Possible Self," a study in the influence of character over heredity and environment.
7:30 p. m., "Where to Draw the Line," the strength in life of having a margin.

Announcing the New Model

Royal No. 10

(THE TYPEWRITER OF TRIPLE SERVICE.)
This new Royal Master-Model 10 is the only hundred-dollar typewriter that fills the new field for the typewriter of triple service—letter making, card typing and billing, all inbuilt in one master machine at one first cost—without a dollar of extra attachments.

Built for "Big Business" and its Great Army of Expert Operators

Like the "master key" that unlocks all the doors of a giant office building, the new Royal Model 10 opens swiftly and surely each of the three main doors of type-writer service—it writes, types cards and bills!

Think of the tremendous advantages of one machine for all these various uses—one typewriter with the combined advantages of many! Think of the enormous saving in energy, time and money.

The stenographer can now turn instantly from the letter she is writing to "bill-and-charge," loose-leaf indexing, or most complex card typing, without stopping for a second or changing to a "special machine."

The No. 10 Royal has every standardized improvement; Tabulator, Back-Space Key, Bi-Chrome Ribbon and Automatic Reverse, and many brand-new Royal Features found on no other typewriter.

GET THE FACTS.

Send for the "Royal Man" and ask for a demonstration. Let us prove to your own satisfaction that the Royal is the best machine of today. We know it now—you will know it after the demonstration.
