

Social Activities

PROGRESS CLUB.

Mrs. W. F. McEldowney was hostess Monday to the Progress Club. An excellent paper on "Municipal Art" written by Mrs. E. G. Flanagan was read by Mrs. Nicholson. The roll-call was "A Favorite Window-Box." Four new members were admitted, Mrs. F. W. Payne, Mrs. Otto Schetter, Mrs. Hjaltje Nerdrum and Mrs. Rolfe Nerdrum. The hour of meeting was changed from 2 o'clock to 2:30. The next meeting, April 13, at the home of Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, will be open to the public and all persons interested in the club work or in the subject of Mrs. Sengstacken's paper, "The Public Library," are cordially invited to be present. Those attending club Monday were Mrs. Adelsperger, Mrs. Stoll, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Gidley, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Blake, Mrs. Corey, Miss Silverman and Mrs. McEldowney.

THURSDAY CLUB.

The Thursday Club met for sewing and social chat at the home of Mrs. T. S. Harvey on North Broadway. Mrs. LeMieux, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Bradford, Miss Witte, Mrs. Kinney, Mrs. Fenton, Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Furler and Mrs. Harvey were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, but it was not decided whether it would be the regular afternoon meeting or one of the monthly socials at which the husbands are entertained.

AT GUILD HALL.

The Episcopal Guild met Tuesday as usual, with Mesdames Hazard and Perry as hostesses. The afternoon was spent in talk about church matters, and at sewing. The Guild will meet again in two weeks, skipping next week's meeting as the Guild postpones its session the Tuesday before Easter. At this time Mrs. Christine Kruse and Mrs. J. A. Matson will be hostesses. Next Saturday the ladies will hold a cooked food sale and the annual bazaar at the Perry & Nicholson store. Among those out this week were Mesdames Fort, Mary Browning, Robt. Browning, Perry, Payne, Maloney, McKnight, Traver, Matson, J. A. Matson, Lewis, J. W. Flanagan, Schetter, Noble, Toye, Perham, Hazard, Curtis, Small, W. F. Miller, Naaburg and Lockhart, and Miss Maude Reed.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY.

The Presbyterian Auxiliary held a business meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. L. Barker on South Fifth street. Mrs. I. S. Smith, Mrs. Mohr, Mrs. Sweetman, Mrs. LaChapelle, Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. Diment, Mrs. Seaman and Mrs. Hyde were present. The afternoon was devoted almost wholly to business talk and it was decided to hold a silver tea soon, probably at the next meeting in two weeks. The place of meeting was not set.

CANDY PULL.

A Taffy-pull at the Shaw home in North Bend given by Herbert Bowen in honor of Russell Lafferty, was the occasion of a great deal of fun and pleasure Friday night. The young people present were Lola Ritchie, Anna Truman, Lenora Tope, Margaret Smith, Goldie Riggs, Marjorie Swearingen, Russell Lafferty, Roy Carr, Drew Smith, Harold Simpson, Fremont Hodson, Lyle Chapelle, Herman Mende, Melvin Jacobson and Herbert Bowen.

CHRISTENINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hanson will have their young son christened tomorrow at the Episcopal church, John Hartley Hanson being the name conferred upon him. Only members of the family will be in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger will also have their young son, Robert Augustus, christened tomorrow.

PLAN PARTY.

Next Wednesday evening a Rook Party will be enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson on South Tenth street, West Marshfield.

DINNER PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lockhart entertained at a delightful little dinner and bridge party Wednesday evening at their home. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kaufman and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tower.

DINNER PARTY.

Dr. J. T. McCormac, who is here from Berkeley for a short stay, will entertain a few friends at dinner at the Chandler tomorrow.

SPECIAL LECTURE.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Burkhart will deliver a stereopticon lecture on Wednesday evening at the church. His topic will be Japan and special music will be a feature of the program. The general public is invited.

CLUB PARTY.

Miss Signa Larson gave a delightful Japanese party at her home in Bunker Hill Wednesday evening, April 1. The decorations were green and Japanese lanterns. The evening was spent in playing various games, and April Fool tricks. A delicious lunch was served in Japanese fashion, at which time a flash light picture was taken. Those present were: Misses Emma Hansen, Flossie Lattin, Laura Dubay, Lillian Daigle, Harriet Collins, Marie Gregg, Myrtle Nelson, Carrie Ross, Velma Ross, Signa Larson, Vivian Craig, Bessie Immel, Mrs. J. Hanson, Mrs. L. McDonald.

SOCIAL SEWING CLUB.

Mrs. J. C. Swanson was hostess Thursday to the Social Sewing Club members, entertaining Miss Selma Thomas, Mrs. George Ayre, Mrs. D. J. Rees, Mrs. Del Rhodes, Mrs. Minnie Swanson, Mrs. J. C. Swinford, Mrs. Bedford, Mrs. Jack Davis and Miss Kaino. A pleasant afternoon was spent at sewing. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Jack Davis. Mrs. Rhodes will be hostess at the next meeting in two weeks.

ROYAL AUCTION BRIDGE.

Mrs. D. Y. Stafford entertained the Royal Auction Bridge Club at two tables Tuesday, numbering as guests

Mrs. Dorsey Kretzer, Mrs. Houseworth, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Goodrum, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Harrigan. Mrs. Haines won the prize. Mrs. George Goodrum will be hostess next Tuesday.

MUSICAL EVENING.

Last Tuesday evening while their husbands were attending the Fellowship Club meeting, a number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. John Motley for supper and a social evening of music and chat. Among them were Mrs. Immel, Mrs. Sehlbrede, Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. Motley and Miss Dermal Campbell.

CHRISTIAN SISTERHOOD.

The Christian Sisterhood had an unusually small gathering Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. W. Painter, Mrs. Copple, Mrs. McCarty, Mrs. A. W. Gregg, Mrs. Myrick, Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Sehlbrede and Mrs. Reid being the only ones out. The ladies decided to hold a social session once every six weeks or two months, but the next place of meeting was not set.

CATHOLIC AID.

The North Bend Catholic Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. V. G. Hindmarsh Tuesday and the ladies spent a pleasant afternoon sewing for the bazaar to be given soon after Easter. Mrs. August Hoelling will entertain the Aid Tuesday, April 14. Those attending this week were Mrs. McCullom, Mrs. Kaiser, Mrs. Hoelling, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Mullen, Mrs. Robert Banks, Mrs. Neil Banks, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Lemanski, Mrs. Harry Truman, Mrs. George Truman, Mrs. Hindmarsh, Miss Winifred Doyle, Miss Margaret Stambuck and Miss Elizabeth Hoelling.

D. M. C.

Mrs. L. A. Loomis will be hostess to the D. M. C. Club members at her home in North Bend next Wednesday.

COLLEGE WOMEN.

The College Woman's Club met Wednesday evening at Miss Larson's studio in West Marshfield. The usual literary program was varied this time with music, including, besides Mrs. J. J. Morrow's paper on "Several Local Needs of Marshfield," piano selections by Miss Larson and Mrs. Motley and songs by Mrs. Gidley. It was decided to give the club's first annual banquet on the first Wednesday in May and to this end Mrs. D. C. McCarty, Mrs. R. H. Corey and Miss Frances Franse were appointed a committee. Those present were Mrs. Sweetman, Mrs. Seaman, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Buckingham, Mrs. Glossop,

Mrs. Motley, Dr. Mattie Shaw, Mrs. Harry Nasburg, Mrs. D. C. McCarty, Mrs. Morrow and Misses Helen Landrich, Josephine Griffin, Winifred Watson, Elizabeth Topping, Eva Dresser and Edna Larson.

WIDOWERS DINE.

Last Monday night several of the temporary widowers gave what Dr. Straw calls a "He-dinner" at the Chandler. Among them were Harry Butler, W. S. Turpen, Dr. Srtaw and Will and Irving Chandler.

JOLLY DOZEN.

The Jolly Dozen will be entertained by Mrs. Ross next Wednesday at her home in Bunker Hill. Mrs. Marhoffer will be official entertainer.

N. B. ALTAR GUILD.

Mrs. Paul Dimmick will entertain the Altar Guild next Wednesday at her home in North Bend. It was erroneously announced that the meeting was to have been this week.

PRISCILLA CLUB.

Mrs. F. M. Mosteller entertained the Priscillas Wednesday at the usual social afternoon. Her guests were Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Christenson, Mrs. Gale and Mrs. Sunderson, a guest of the club. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Nelson at Bay Park in two weeks.

NEWLY-WEDS.

Mrs. Nick Stambone entertained the Newly-Weds Wednesday at a very pleasant afternoon of sewing. She had as guests Miss Cynthia Vineyard and Miss Theresa Stein of North Bend, and Mrs. Jack Davis and Mrs. Paul Waddell of Marshfield. The club members present were Mrs. Jas. McIntosh, Mrs. Eimer Vineyard and Mrs. Stambone, Masters Jack Edward and William Davis and Miss Cynthia Louise Stambone accompanied their mothers. Mrs. Stambone had a center piece of very beautiful pansies, a gift from Mrs. A. W. Chapman. As so few members were out, it was not decided where the meeting next Wednesday will be held.

A. N. W.

Mrs. F. E. Hague entertained the A. N. W. Club at needlework Thursday. The attendance was unusually large, everyone being present but the new mother, Mrs. Quist, Mrs. Murch and Mrs. Smith. Those out were Mesdames Allen, Bennett, Edman, Evertsen, Hazard, Hague, Hyde, Hall, Harrigan, Kaiser, Maloney, Mings, Murphy, Mary McKnight, C. F. McKnight, Noble, O'Connell and Stauff. Next week's meeting has been postponed until the following Thursday, April 16, on account of Holy Week. On that date Mrs. Edman will be hostess.

N. L. LADIES' AID.

The Norwegian Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet at the church hall Thursday, Mrs. Jens Hansen and Mrs. O. Larson will be hostesses.

INFORMAL CHAT.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stapp and her daughter, Miss Isabelle Stapp, arrived home in North Bend last week after a two month tour of the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Miller left the Breakwater today for Portland where they will visit for a day and then proceed to San Francisco for a short stay.
