L. J. SIMPSON STARTED US
A FEW SHORT YEARS AGO;
AND THOUGH WE HAVE NOT GROWN SO LARGE
YOU NEED NOT THINK WE'RE SLOW.

THE "LARGEST" TOWN NOT ALWAYS IS
THE BEST, YOU WILL AGREE;
THE COW MAY GIVE US WATERED MILK
STILL, HONEY COMES FROM THE BEE.

AN ELEPHANT WEIGHS A TON OR MORE,
A DIAMOND IS QUITE SMALL.
A MAN MAY BE THE BIGGEST, STILL SWEET WOMAN GETS THE CALL.

LARGE CITIES BOAST OF MANY THINGS,
THEY ALSO HAVE THEIR POOR;
AND THOUGH WE HAVE FEW MILLIONAIRES
A LIVING HERE IS SURE.

HENCE LET US GRATEFULLY WORK ON,
A STRONG, UNITED BAND;
FOR WHILE WE'RE NOT THE BIGGEST TOWN,
WE'RE THE HAPPIEST IN THE LAND.
—ANON.

HELP YOURSELF By HELPING YOUR TOWN

THE attitude you maintain toward your home town—its business men and its institutions—is reflected in the success or failure of the same.

The success or happiness of every citizen in any community lie in the interest he takes in that community and the good work he can do to assist in its upbuilding. EVERYTHING YOU DO TO HELP IN THE ADVANCEMENT OF YOUR OWN COMMUNITY YOU DO JUST THAT MUCH TOWARD YOUR OWN PERSONAL SUCCESS. No man can live and prosper unto himself alone, for you are interdependent, and, realizing this, as good citizens, you should unite and pull together as a community and as individuals.

NO TOWN CAN STAND STILL. IT MUST EITHER GO FORWARD OR DECLINE, AND IT IS UP TO YOU TO SAY WHICH IT WILL BE.

Some towns hustle and grow—that is, the people, hustle and the town grows. They get the habit of boosting until every citizen becomes a booster, and pretty soon its reputation spreads and it becomes known far and wide as a good town, while others lapse into a state of innocuous desuetude—an easy rock along manner—that soon classes that particular place as a dead one.

If you are knocking and complaining stop it. Nothing hurts a town more. If you cannot say something good don't say anything, and, above all, don't knock. If you are not a booster become one.

The success of the retail merchant depends on the patronage of his home people, the home jobber is largely dependent on the patronage of his home retailer, the banks are dependent likewise on the success of all, while the success and happiness of the people depend on the success of the business men.

Now, one of the greatest injuries you can do your home town or community—to the business men who are dependent on your patronage—is to order your goods from mail order houses or patronize merchants in other towns. Every dime sent from your community to a mail order house is removed entirely from local circulation. Its principal and interest are both gone, whereas the money spent with the home merchant goes immediately into circulation and in due course comes back to you.

And yet, no matter how much the home merchant is dependent on the patronage of his home people, he is supposed to give and to aid in every work undertaken for the material betterment of the town, and he does, being often coerced into giving by the demands of his customers, fearing to offend them because of the fear of loss of their patronage.

UNLIKE YOUR HOME MERCHANT, MAIL ORDER HOUSES PAY NO TAXES OR PRIVILEGE LICENSE TO DO BUSINESS IN YOUR COMMUNITY. NEITHER DO THEY CONTRIBUTE TO YOUR CHURCHES, SCHOOLS, PUBLIC ROADS, CHARITIES OR ANYTHING ELSE, AND, ABOVE ALL, THEY GIVE NO EMPLOYMENT TO ANYONE IN YOUR FAMILY OR HOME TOWN.

You want your schools kept up, your churches supported, your streets kept in repair, your town properly policed and protected by a good fire fighting equipment, etc. In other words, you want your town to prosper, be well run and the people to be happy and contented. YET IF YOU ARE SENDING YOUR MONEY TO OTHER INSTITUTIONS IN OTHER CITIES AND TOWNS YOU ARE DEFEATING THE VERY OBJECT FOR WHICH YOU STRIVE.

Now, this town building is a serious matter—a great big proposition—and if you are not treating it—its business men—fairly you are not treating yourself fairly. You are undermining the very foundation of your well being.

North Bend Man For Congress

FREDERICK HOLLISTER
Democratic Candidate for Congress from Coos Bay, Oregon.

A MAN TO BEAT HAWLEY

FRED HOLLISTER of North Bend is Democratic Candidate for Congress against Mr. Hawley.

From what the Courier learns regarding Mr. Hollister he is a man who, if nominated, will give our standpat representative a run for his life and that is the only calibre of a man there is any use in nominating—as we have already learned by experience.

Mr. Hollister stands ace high in the Coos Bay Country, is a lawyer of high repute and a most successful business man. He is a progressive from the ground up; a man who believes Oregon is bound to be the leading Pacific state if it can only be given a chance to develop and he is an out and out advocate for the two undertakings he thinks will hasten the development—good roads for the entire district and for harbor and waterways improvements.

Mr. Hollister is not a politician. He has never been a candidate or elected to any office but city councilman. He has been a worker and a thinker.

His many admirers have urged him to run and he is a candidate. If the Democrats will nominate him in the May primaries, there is every reason to think he can defeat Mr. Hawley, our present "dead one" congressman, for there are hundreds of Republicans right here in Clackamas county who will vote for any man who looks good and rings true, in preference to Mr. Hawley—the congressman elected for progressive Oregon but whose work is for stand pat New England.

In the judgment of the Courier Democrats can't go wrong on Mr. Hollister. He has a splendid record as an honest man and clean citizen.

They say the standpat friends of Congressman Hawley are sending out the "C. O. D." signal and that if Hollister is nominated they know our big business representative has the fight of his life on.—From Oregon City Courier, March 19, 1914.
