

NOTES OF THE SPORT WORLD

Manager Griffith says he is through with Charlottesville as a training camp. "Weather conditions at this time of the year can't be as good in Washington as they are in Charlottesville," argues the wise leader of the Senators.

The sloop Defiance, being built at Bath, Maine, for the Tri-City Syndicate as a candidate for the defense of the America's Cup, will be christened by Miss Frances Clark, a daughter of E. Walter Clark of Philadelphia, a number of the syndicate.

Many of the professional golfers, who have either been abroad for the winter or in charge of southern winter, are returning to New York to get everything in order for an active summer season in this vicinity. Those in touch with the situation declare that this year will be one of the most active outside of competitive circles, the game has ever known.

If there are any ball players in the Federal League fold who are laboring under the impression that they can ruin the league, or that James A. Gilmore is president in name only, they have another guess to make, according to Mr. Gilmore himself.

It has developed that the injury of Midshipman J. L. Valden, captain and third baseman of the Naval Academy nine, received in the opening game against Swarthmore recently, was a broken ankle. He will not be able to play until the close of the season, if at all this year.

And now the baseball managers have gone into the reforming business. The first thing we know some of them will be deserting the game for the evangelical tents and making a race with Billy Sunday. There is said to be an understanding between the managers of the big leagues to discontinue gambling. Frank Chance, who controls the destinies of the Yankees, has been the first one to speak out, however. He says that gambling makes the boys tired and dull, in addition to the losses they sustain, therefore they must cut it out.

Thorough canvass of the southern training camps yields these figures: 47 second Cobbs, 19 second Waddells, 22 fastest men in either league, 14 better catchers than Archer, 329 youths who are sure of make good and 491 likely looking youngsters.

The press agent of Frank Moran is responsible for the statement that he has improved wonderfully under the watchful eye of his handlers, so that today he is a far better fighter than when he faced McCarthy. Ever his friends say that, admitting this is true, Moran will have to put on quite a little more polish to make an honest effort to win the championship from the Big Smoke when he meets Jack Johnson in Paris in June.

Massachusetts has more wealth per capita than any other state in the nation, a record that by no means suffered when Johnny Evers invaded the Bay State.

The University of California, about the competition of whose track team there has been some uncertainty in the east, will be on hand at Cambridge next May. But the men from the Pacific coast will be without their star performer, Carl Shattuck, the hammer-thrower, who is ineligible and cannot compete. This will leave one of last year's point winners in this event.

Pittsburg may be strengthened as far as the infield goes, but there is a weak spot behind the plate. Old George Gibson, who was unable to work half the time last season, will be able to do everything this year, with slight assistance as the youth of Coleman can give him.

Loach Cross and his family, with Percy Kline, the featherweight, have reached the Pacific Coast. Cross matched to fight Freddie Weis' twenty rounds on April 28, while Cross hopes to secure engagements among the featherweights.

If the Federal League has grabbed the ball players addicted to the powder throwing habit, then everybody should be thankful to the Federal League.

Baseball is not the only game that pays handsomely. Danny Maher, the jockey, has retired with a bankroll of something like half a million. Maher has been one of the most popular jockeys of the present generation and certainly there is not a fellow who better understands the fine points of the game than he does.

According to dispatches from the other side, some of the athletic critics are bemoaning the fact that John Jones, the famous Cornell runner, is not in competition this year. The British paper states: "If there is a man who should force A. N. S. to make to a record performance, Jones is the one."

At the Cubs in their present more disorganized condition are worth more than three-quarters of a million dollars for just a controlling interest, what, pray, would the Philadelphia Athletics or the New York Yankees command in the open market? The Ohio and Pennsylvania League has been reorganized and the name changed to the Pennsylvania and West Virginia League. McKeesport, Beaver Falls, Butler, Connellsville, Uniontown and Charlestown, in Pennsylvania, Fairmont and Clarksburg, West Virginia, form the new circuit.

No club ever had a more noteworthy career than the Federal League of Toronto. It has no managers, no players, and no letterheads. It was born and died within two months and at no time was in the second division. When completed, the new baseball of the New York Americans will be one of the finest in the world. It is located at Kingsbridge, a borough of New York City, easily accessible. It will have a concrete and steel decked grandstand seating 10,000 persons. The open grandstand, extending beyond the right field foul posts, will have 14,000 more, while it will

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad's Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.
