NORTH BEND LIBRARY MEETING ON THURSDAY

AN IMPORTANT MEETING TO BE HELD TO PLAN FOR FORMAL OPENING—ADDRESS BY MRS. SENGSTACKEN.

The regular business meeting of the North Bend Public Library Association will be held at the library Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. Plans for the musicale at Loggie's Hall Friday evening, May 1st, will be completed and arrangements for the formal opening of the library will also be fathered.

In addition to the regular business meeting Thursday, Mrs. Henry Sengstacken who has been so prominent in the pioneer work of the Marshfield public library movement and who more recently has done so much to secure a Carnegie library for that City, will be present and tell the North Bend ladies about the trials and vicissitudes before them in their work and how these same difficulties have been met and overcome by the Marshfield people. Mrs. Sengstacken is an earnest and attractive speaker and the association members will be enlightened and encouraged by what she has to say. An opportunity will be given those present to ask questions pertaining to early library effort. Every one interested in establishing a public library in North Bend should attend this meeting.
