LIGHT FINES IN NORTH BEND SCHOOL PARADE IN NORTH BEND

City Collected Only $15 in Three Months—Plan for Good Roads Day

The reports of City Recorder, C. E. Maybee, Treasurer, John H. Greaves, and City Waharfinger Warren Painter, were approved by the North Bend City Council at a meeting last evening. The report of the Recorder which if estimated according to the fines received from the police court, shows that North Bend is the most orderly community in Southern Oregon, there being but $15.00 collected in fines for the quarter ending March 31, 1914. The largest single revenue from business tax is paid by the saloon proprietors, the sum of $2,400.00 being received.

Supt. Raab Arranges Arbor Day and Good Roads Demonstration There

Supt. A. G. Raab of the North Bend schools has arranged for a big parade of the school children in North Bend Friday in honor of Arbor Day and also a demonstration in behalf of good roads. If the weather will permit, he expects to have every school child in the line of march, directed by their teachers, and this will be followed by Arbor Day programs in the various rooms. It will be the greatest demonstration of its kind ever attempted in the North Bend schools.

FAIR MEETING AT COQUILLE

Expect Definite Action About Coos County Exhibit at San Francisco

A joint meeting of the commercial bodies of Coos County will be held at Coquille on April 20, to decide the question as to whether or not the people of Coos County should have a building and exhibit at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915.

Despite the fact that the heavy rains of yesterday and last night made the roads in much worse condition than they have been in the past few weeks, Capt. Edgar Simpson and his three companions made the return trip from Bullards to North Bend today in just four hours and three minutes, about twelve minutes longer than it took them to make the record breaking trip down yesterday morning.

GOOD ROADS DAY

Mayor Simpson, of North Bend, to Boost It

"I intend to slash and burn one acre of roadway on Saturday April 25th," said Mayor L. J. Simpson at the meeting of the North Bend City Council last evening. "Governor West has set aside this day as a legal holiday, and Judge Hall and the county Commissioners have also made it a holiday in Coos County."

Want All to Help

A meeting of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce will be held this evening to outline a plan for Good Roads Day in order that all efforts made be made in the same direction by united effort.

COOS COUNTY BASEBALL PLAN

North Bend, Marshfield and Bandon Organize League—Want One More Team

At a meeting of the baseball representatives from Bandon, Norway, Marshfield, Empire and North Bend, held in Marshfield yesterday, a Coos County baseball league for the season of 1914 was launched and Henry Kern was elected president, and Arthur McKeown, secretary, and treasurer. Representatives from Coquille and Myrtle Point were invited to be present and participate in the meeting, but did not appear.

The respective teams of the league have been given until May 1, in which to apply for admission into the league, at which time the qualifications of players will be passed upon by the board of directors of the league. It is expected that Coquille and Myrtle Point will take some action and come into the league before May 1.

That a board of directors of one member from each town be elected and that each team take its own gate receipts and pay its own expenses and that the price of admission be not less than 25 cents.

The matter of imported players was discussed for two and a half hours before the final decision was arrived at. The question as to the price to be charged as admission to the games was also given considerable discussion.

Many favored charging fifty cents but Hugh McLain said that if this price was charged 50-cent ball would have to be played. Mr. Sullivan, of Bandon, said that he favored 50-cent ball.

A motion was made by Geo. Laffaw, of Bandon, that two representatives from each community be appointed to organize a Coos County baseball league. The motion was carried, and the following representatives were appointed: Ted Klamann and Henry Kern, North Bend; Geo. Rotnor and Harry McKeown, Marshfield; Geo. M. Laffaw and J. T. Sullivan, of Bandon. A short adjournment was then taken and the committees met and talked over respective rules which were afterwards adopted.

A phone message was sent Henry Schroeder at Myrtle Point, inquiring as to the position taken by Myrtle Point in regard to a team from his community, and he said that the Myrtle Point boys would not organize unless the home-guard rule prevailed.

Charles Baxter at Coquille was also heard over the phone and said that he thought Coquille would organize a team and have two imported players, but did not want his opinion taken as the sentiment of Coquille.

The position of secretary pro tem was filled by Mr. Smith, of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce at the meeting, and the secretaryship of the league was offered him but he declined, stating that he could not devote his time to ball matters, so the position was tendered to Arthur McKeown.

The next meeting of the league will be held on May 3 and the applications of the various towns will be gone over and accepted. It is estimated that the opening games will be played in May.

In choosing officers, J. T. Sullivan said that owing to the wrangle about Bandon last year, Bandon preferred to let the others organize and then comply with the regulations. He did not want any Bandon man on it at first.

It is stated that unless a fourth team can be secured, no league will be formed. It was also stated that five teams would not be taken in as it would make the schedule unwieldy.

Mr. Dougherty, of Empire, said he thought that they could get up a good team there of home guard players. He said that Empire won the county championship twenty years ago and could do it again.

BIG LEAGUES START TODAY

Nationals and Americans Start 1914 Schedules—Line-ups of Teams.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) NEW YORK, April 15.—The sixteen clubs composing the National and American Leagues opened the 1914 baseball season yesterday. The present season will mark the thirty-ninth year of play in the National League and the fourth in the American League.

The various clubs face the season in the following condition: New York. Winners of 1913 present virtually the same lineup as a year ago, with the exception of Herzog, now managing Cincinnati, and Shafer.

Shot to pieces in the raids of the Federal League, the Philadelphia National League team has reformed its lines. Manager Doolin has Bobby Byrne, a seasoned player, to fill Knabe's place at second and is using Ireland and Murphy, youngsters, at shortstop.

The Cubs will start the season with a new manager, an infielder now in its combination and a pitching staff of veterans. The makeup of the inner line of defense finds only Zimmerman in a place familiar to him.

The Pirate infield, with Konetchy, Viox and Mowrey guarding the bases and the veteran Wagner at short will be as strong on the defense as offense. The veteran Gibson, and Coleman and Brenegan, recruits, will catch.

In the outfield Carney is the only player sure of a place. Mitchell and Jim Kelly are like candidates for the other places. McQuillan, Adams, O'Toole and Harmon will be the regular pitchers. Kautleher will have to show big league calibre.

With a team that has been practically made over since he took charge last season, Manager Stallings predicts that Boston will finish at least fourth. The accession of Johnny Evers, crack second baseman and manager of the 1913 Chicago Cubs, and the resultant loss of Bill Sweeney, was the most notable change in the team.

Whaling is first string catcher, with Gowdy as second choice. The pitchers include Tyler, Perdue, Rudolph and Hess, with Corcoran, Meikle, Crutchers and Beck as possibilities.

With Gilbert Robinson as manager, Brooklyn will have a baseball general and material for a fast combination. The team is strong in battery and infield material.

The Cincinnati National League team this year will have a new leader in Charles Herzog, formerly of the New York Giants. The probable lineup will be: Hoblitzel, 1b; Groh, 2b; Herzog, ss, c. and manager; Leibold, 3b; Marsans, lf; Bates, cf; Moran, rf; Yingling, Johnson and Benton, pitchers, and Clarke, c.

The strength of the St. Louis clubs is an unknown quantity on the eve of the new season. During the ante-season game with the St. Louis Browns, Miller at first,

The Philadelphia Americans stand pat on the team that won the championship of the world for the Quaker City in 1913. This year Bender and Plank will again be the mainstays of the pitching corps.

With but one reliable veteran pitcher and practically the same lineup man for man, the second place prospects of this Washington American League ball club are not bright. Manager Griffith has failed to strengthen the batting department.

The outfield Carney is the only player sure of a place. Mitchell and Jim Kelly are like candidates for the other places. McQuillan, Adams, O'Toole and Harmon will be the regular pitchers.

The New York American League Club under Frank Chance has a virtually new lineup. With the exception of Roy Hartsell, second base, Ed. Sweeney, catcher and several pitchers, the personnel joined the club late last season or this spring.

The St. Louis Americans this year will be a right hand club, 2b of the Browns swinging from the right side and eight from the left.

Pratt and Wares will work the second sack with veteran Walker at shortstop with Blisland. Jimmy Austin, captain will be a far infield corner.
