

Variety and Value in Rugs

Mr. and Mrs. Good-appearing:

Have you never seen well-furnished homes spoiled by old, worn rugs? New furniture demands new rugs. Come and see our new stock of rugs. We can sell you rugs that will make your floors as beautiful as your walls. We sell the kind, also, that give LONG WEAR and always keep their bright colors. You know the value of good rugs, therefore, you will think our PRICES ARE SQUARE

An inspection of our rug display will give you an inkling of assortments shown here.

There are scores of different room-size rugs on this fixture alone. The collection represents all the well-known makes, the most desirable weaves, the choicest patterns and colorings. It will take only a few minutes to glance through them and pick out a pattern to harmonize with the color scheme of your room. There are conventional and floral designs. There are handsome Oriental and French floral effects.

9x12 Rugs from $5 to $50.

One Arrest.—Charles Davis was arrested by Officer Shoupe on Wednesday afternoon and charged with drunkenness. He was released later in the day on $5 cash bail.

Wed in June.—Friends of Jas. L. Ferry Jr. and Flora M. Hartman a well known Marshfield young couple, have been appraised that their marriage will take place in June.

Union Laid Up.—The launch Union, which broke its pump eccentric while en route to Lakeside on Wednesday, and was towed to the Smith and Wade Machine Shops for repairs.

Move Railway Camp.—The crew and fixtures at Camp Four were moved from their station near Lakeside to Saunders Lake on Wednesday. They will add more to this force and start clearing the right of way immediately.

New Business.—Mr. Lang of Eugene, is making arrangements to open a large flour and feed business in Marshfield. He is now operating this business at Eugene. He has contracts for supplying Porter Brothers' contractors on the new line and will supply them out of here also.

Recovers Umbrella.—Through a Times want ad Mrs. E. H. Joehnk has recovered a valuable umbrella. It was taken from the M. E. Church by mistake the other night and soon after the lost ad appeared in The Times, Mrs. Nelson, of Bunker Hill, telephoned Mrs. Joehnk that the umbrella was at her place and would be returned.

Recovers pin.—Through a Times ad Miss Gladys Prittelle, stenographer in A. H. Stutsman's office, has recovered a valuable pin. It was found by Will Sneddon who brought it to the Times office and one insertion of the ad found the owner. The pin was a present to Miss Prittelle, a party who took it in settlement of a $60 debt having given it to her.

Not Going Away.—There has been circulated a report that Ivan Hobenthal, of the Russian Steam Baths, had sold out and was about to leave town. This report is untrue. Mr. Hobenthal has been negotiating the sale of his establishment, but he has taken a position in the pulp mill and expects to remain here permanently. He has made many friends and his business is growing.

Piling Loose.—Eighteen piling that support the corner of the dock on which Sacchi's milk depot stands, gave way on Wednesday and caused the dock to sag about ten inches. Mr. Sacchi says he believes the piling

TIER STOCKINGS IS FASHION'S DECREE

Ruffle on Ruffle, Even to Knees, Seen on Board Walk.
ATLANTIC CITY, April 15.—Hosiery adorned with lace ruffles and pantalettes were two novelties in feminine attire much in evidence in the Easter boardwalk parade when inquisitive breezes toyed with what should have covered them.
The breezes revealed that more than a score of women were wearing stockings which bore tiers of lace clear to the knees, in two or three instances even higher, and more than a dozen women beneath their slit skirts were seen to be wearing panta-
