

The old idea of merchandising was to separate customer from dollar; no thought of giving—only of getting.

But this Live Store has introduced a new idea—an idea that will sound rather startling to those who cling to the old haggle-and-barter methods of doing business. We feel here that if we succeed in taking care of your profits well enough, our own will automatically take care of themselves.

And it is in line with this policy of seeing how much we can give, rather than how much we can get, that will call your attention to our new Spring models in

Has Measles.—Mrs. F. C. Birch is confined to her home by a slight attack of German measles.

Sells Business.—Ivan Hohenthal has sold his Russian Steam bath business at Bunker Hill to Otto Rieker, who will continue it.

Very Ill.—Mrs. Jas. Fox, of Bandon, is reported very ill. Her sisters, Mrs. Jud Mills of Sumner, and Mrs. Ed Raymond, of Lakeside, have been sent for.

Horse Hurts Workman.—Malcolm Anderson, a driver at the Smith mill, was injured by a horse falling on him. The car started down grade and jerked the horse over onto the driver. His injuries are not serious.

Baseball Ruction.—It was reported today that some of those who were disgruntled about the plans for organizing a baseball team in Marshfield for the proposed County League were endeavoring to get some of the players to agree to play independent ball instead of playing with the regular league team. It is not believed that the movement will amount to much.

Good Road Day.—Road Supervisor F. P. Norton says that he has a mile of new road to build between Shingle House Slough and the Ross place and he would like to have everyone who is desirous of aiding the good road movement next Saturday turn out there and help. He said that he would like to have enough turn out to get the road ready for grading in one day.

Disaster's Anniversary.—Today, Friday, April 18, is the eighth anniversary of the San Francisco earthquake and fire, which entirely destroyed the business section, and half of the residence section of San Francisco, and burned for three days. The various women's clubs of San Francisco are holding a general meeting today to honor the men who have made complete the restoration of the California metropolis in eight years. Marshfield was the first outside city to offer aid to the San Francisco sufferers.

Grand Theater

Five select reels. All new.
"The Hearts of Women." Special feature Vitagraph in two reels, featuring Miss Julia Gordon Swayne. This will be enough to convince you of the quality of this picture.
"How Burke & Burke Made Good." They are a frost as comedians. They are caught in a house afire and through no fault of their own they become heroes. A dandy fun maker.
"Vaccinating a Village." A real rib-tickler—a picture that will wake you up.
"Pathe Weekly." Eight interesting subjects. The greatest number for the month, showing several of the Mexican war and other items of interest.
Children 10c; adults, 15c.
Coming Monday: "The Vampire." A motion picture masterpiece.
