BORN.

MERCHANT—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merchant at their home on the Merchant ranch near Bullards Tuesday, April 21 a son.

Flat Tract.—Eugene O'Connell is plating part of his Kittyville holdings as O'Connell Terrace.

Kills Bear.—Guy Cutlip, of Coos River, who was in Marshfield today, reported that he and his brother killed a big bear which they trapped near their ranch yesterday.

Postpone Service.—The midweek service will be omitted at the Baptist church Thursday evening in order that the members may attend the meeting at the Methodist church.

Industrial Clubs.—L. P. Harrington, who is organizing industrial clubs among the school children for county and state fair exhibits, is now in Marshfield organizing the local school children.

Fills garden.—The bulkhead in the rear of W. R. Haines' place in West Marshfield broke last night under the weight of the fill and covered the rear part of his lot. He had bulkheaded it off to save his garden but the bulkhead did not hold.

Richardson Coming.—Tom Richardson, the booster of the Oregon Development League, will arrive here May 5 for a tour of this section. The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce has been asked to arrange an itinerary for him.

Umpqua bar shoals.—The Umpqua bar has been shoaling badly of late and shipping from there is being delayed. Captain Butler of the tug Gleaner is said to have taken soundings a few days ago showing that there was only about eleven feet of water there.

Big Thefts.—According to a report which Mr. Magee, who represents the Langley & Michael Company in this section, has received from San Francisco, his firm has been the victims of a series of thefts that will run into many thousands of dollars. It seems that goods were stolen and then sold to a number of retail drug stores.

Has Birthday.—Yesterday was J. W. Bennett's fifty-ninth birthday, and he received congratulations from many. Some of his friends put up a little job on him and sent him a bunch of toys for birthday presents, but the biggest gift was received from S. H. Hedger. Mr. Sengstacken wished him joy on his "seventy-eighth" birthday, but J. W. insisted that this was too many.

Print Write-ups.—The Christian Science Monitor prints about a half column article boosting Coos Bay, the article having been sent by Secretary Motley of the Chamber of Commerce, in response to a request. He also received a copy today of "Abroad," a magazine circulated by the Southern Pacific in Europe to encourage immigration, in which there is a page write-up of Coos County.

Will Build.—Alva Doll has made arrangements for the erection of a small brick veneer building on his lot on South Broadway, about 300 feet south of the postoffice. It will be one story and 19x31 feet and will be occupied by himself. He and I. S. Kaufman are figuring on erecting a fine brick building on their property at the corner of Broadway and Anderson, just south of the Irving block.

Start Bay Bridge.—According to a report at North Bend, a bridge foreman is there to engage a home for his family, preliminary to starting the construction of the S. P. bridge across the bay. None of the local Southern Pacific officials knew anything about the bridge work being started now.

M'LAUGHLIN IS INDICTED

Marshfield Man Held for Non-Support—Other Indictments Today.

(Special to The Times.) COQUILLE, Or., April 22.—The Coos county grand jury made a partial report today. The following indictments were returned:
C. H. McLaughlin of Marshfield for failure to support wife.
C. H. McLaughlin of Marshfield for failure to support child.
Harry Morgan of Coos Bay for robbery.

James Osborne for receiving stolen money and property.
Gus Johnson of Marshfield for receiving and concealing money stolen in Svea saloon holdup in Marshfield.
Ozella Franklin, negro, for assaulting husband with dangerous weapon.
Harold Hendee of Bandon and Harry E. McDonald of Marshfield were freed on charges of forgery and obtaining money by false pretences.

Contempt Case Up.
Judge Coke will probably decide today the motion of John D. Goss to dismiss the contempt of court proceedings against him, Mayor Allen and Constable Cox of Marshfield. Mr. Goss alleges errors in the attachment proceedings which caused the contempt charges.
Will Remit Penalty.
The county court decided to remit the penalty in the Kinney tax cases but that the interest and other charges must be paid.

FIRE OF FUTURE TO BE FOUGHT WITH CHEMICALS
That chemicals will entirely take the place of water within the next five years as a means of fighting fire was the prophecy made at a recent convention of fire fighters. In the large cities most of the small fires are now put out with chemicals, and it is not a big step from this to the use of guns for shooting into buildings for putting out big fires.
