SCHOOL SOCIAL

Elk Rock school on South Coos River held an entertainment and basket social last Saturday night, April 18. Two boats carried the passengers and the school house was filled to its utmost capacity. There were several recitations and dialogues, and a play all of which were well rendered. Some of the actors showed marked ability, especially Mr. Carl Wasson, the teacher. After the play some 35 baskets were sold at auction. Mr. Roy Landrith acted as auctioneer in his usual witty manner and the baskets sold for $103.00. The proceeds of the sale will be used to purchase an organ for the school.

OH, DAMES AND DAMSELS

What next, oh, dames and damsels, can
You do to startle a modest man?
Just now the atmosphere revokes
Your skirts so thin and cries for
for cloaks;
But memories of summer's shows remain and so the wonder grows
As to another season's code
And to what will then be a la mode.
From ancient costume you will steal
Still more, and yet still more reveal?
Or will you fancy exercise
And leave less action for your eyes?
Imagination plays a part,
And thoughts more perfect will impart
Of maid and matron who'll disclose Much less while wearing far more clothes.
An ear of pink, a laughing eye,
A rosebud mouth—all will imply
Synthetic beauties in the fair
Who hides them from the eye and air.
Say, will you once more challenge
gaze—
Though, 'tis not easy to amaze?
Rejecting skirts diaphanous,
Will you still have the laugh on us?
When beauty liberty has won,
Her away has only just begun!
—J. A. Waldron in Judge.

BE CHEERFUL

Be cheerful; no one prefers to give his order to a grouch. No one selects a man with a grievance to make a sale. No one chooses to do business with a sorehead.
A smile removes obstacles, overcomes objections, inspires faith, and paves the way for business.
Cheer spells confidence. Confidence spells success. Men who succeed are cheerful.
Gloom spells trouble. Trouble spells failure. Men who fail are gloomy.
Cheer is an asset. Gloom is a liability. It is a good business to associate with men who are solvent.
Be cheerful as a business proposition.

WAR AND WARLES

A soldier carols loud and long
When sitting at his ease,
The tenor's voice gets in all wrong
When something does not please.
It is a rather curious thing—
No one explains it quite—
That fighters always want to sing
And singers want to fight.

RAILROAD NOTES

President Morris McDonald, of the Boston & Maine Railroad has resigned.
The Illinois Central Railroad has ordered 10,000 gondola cars from the American Car and Foundry Co.
Railroads operating eastward of Chicago are planning to issue orders to passenger conductors in their employ to use greater care in collecting the fares of children whose age ranges between 5 and 12 years.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chance are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

GOOD ROADS DAY NOT A LEGAL HOLIDAY
SALEM, Or., April 25.—Good Roads Day, April 25, is not a legal holiday, according to a telegram sent James Watson, County Clerk of Coos county, by Secretary of State Olcott. The clerk wired the secretary of State asking whether the proclamation issued by the Executive would make the day a legal holiday, and the Secretary replied in the negative.

"THE WATER LILY"

O star on the breast of the river;
O marvel of bloom and grace;
Did you fall right down from heaven
Out of the sweetest place?
You are white as the thoughts of an Angel
Your heart is steeped in the sun;
Did you grow in the Golden City,
My pure and radiant one?
Nay, Nay, I fell not from Heaven,
None gave me my Sainly White;
I slowly grew from the darkness
Down in the dreary night.
From the ooze of the silent river
I won my glow and grace,
White clouds fall not, O my poet,
They rise to the sweetest place.

TANGO AND TATAO ARE ACCEPTED AS PROPER DANCES
PARIS, April 25.—Forty-five professors of dancing from every country in the world, representing 3000 dancing masters in these same countries, have been holding the first international congress of directors of the terpsichorean art in this city for two days.
The question of whether or not the tango ought to be banished from their classes has been the most serious matter discussed at the session of the congress.
The congress decided today that the tango as danced by M. Schwarz, teacher of the Paris Opera, combined the spirit of the Argentine original with the refinement which is due to the highest society, and that therefore it is a suitable dance for their pupils.
The tatao, as illustrated by M. Le Fort, president of the congress, was accepted as a type of dance of which there is a vacancy existing.
Four kinds of furlana dances were illustrated to the congress by Frau von Gasparius, teacher of the German court at Berlin. All four were accepted.
