THE GUNNERY

LIFE on the SCREEN

SCENE FROM "SAMSON."

THE film representation which the Universal has evolved from the history of Samson and told in six wonderful reels follows the account in the book of Judges with startling accuracy. Nothing is left out. Warren Kerrigan plays the leading role in this stupendous new photo play spectacle.

"Napoleon" (Ecclectic) shows five reels of historical drama, teeming with action. This is not the first time the life of the "man of destiny" has been filmed—in fact, there are several pictures under the general name of "Napoleon" upon the market at the present time. His life, which up to his coronation has but little bearing upon the future history of the world, is dealt with lightly. From that time on his trials, battles, love affairs and general history given with great care to detail.

"Dope," the Thanhouser six reeler, enters upon its second successful week at Weber's theater, New York city, under the auspices of the Continental Feature Film company.

Robert Edson has been secured by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company for appearance in several motion picture productions of Mr. Edson's recent successes. Mr. Edson is now at his country home, Strongheart House, Sag Harbor, N. Y., resting until May. At that time he will leave for Los Angeles, where the Lasky film productions are all staged.

Universal City, the only incorporated moving picture city in the world, will move from its remote location in California to a 750-acre ranch ten miles from Los Angeles.

IRENE WARFIELD.

When in doubt, wait and see what Miss Irene Warfield of the Esplanade Eastern Dramatic company is wearing. For, besides work, this popular young photo play star has two hobbies. One is clothes, and the other is to attend an afternoon tango tea.

W. L. Abbington has been engaged by Daniel V. Arthur, managing director of the Playgoers' Film company, for the part of the Count de Breigny in the production of "Maison Lescaut," in which Mme. Lina Cavalieri and Lucien Muratore are to be starred.

The Roland Feature Film Company has just released a five reel photo drama entitled "Trapped in the Great Metropolis." The photo play contains 500 scenes and over 400 characters were needed for the ensemble work for the scene of depicting police life in New York city.

Lucius J. Henderson has just been engaged as feature producing director for the California Motion Picture Corporation by Herbert Payne, the president.
