Elks Ball.—The Marshfield Elks will hold their monthly social dance at the Masonic Hall Wednesday evening.

Postpone Meeting.—The Minnie W's Club's meeting has been postponed till Saturday afternoon on account of Dr. White's lecture.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up a number of matters. If all the councilmen are present, Marshal Carter's salary ordinance will probably come up again.

Cats Buys Paper.—Lew Cates, formerly editor of the Coquille Sentinel, has bought the Polk County Observer at Dallas, Oregon, from Gerald Volk and assumed charge of it.

Kinney Returns.—Major L. D. Kinney arrived home Saturday night on the steamer Yellowstone from San Francisco. He is much improved in health but has not fully recovered from his long illness.

Son on Vessel.—Operator Hunter at the Western Union office yesterday received a letter from his son, Bill who is a wireless operator on the U. S. Charleston, saying that the vessel was being fitted with guns at Bremerton Navy yards and would sail early this week for Mexican waters.

Closes Store.—Geo. N. Bolt has closed The Toggery pending arrangements by the creditors for disposing of it. Mr. Bolt has been in charge of it since E. W. Krammerer assigned it to J. C. Kendall for the creditors.

At Ten Mile.—Tom Hall returned today from Ten Mile where he spent a few days campaigning. He reports that Milo Pierson lost a $300 horse there Saturday, colic being fatal. Yesterday Mr. Hall had to ride a horse from Lakeside to the North Inlet landing, the rain making the trip a hard one.

No Store Now.—J. E. Fitzgerald says that the report that he, Vince Pratt and other members were working on a plan to establish a cooperative store in Marshfield was an error. He says that they were appointed to take up another matter with the Farmers' Union in the Coquille Valley and will report it at a meeting to be held here next Saturday.

Fire Threatened.—A fire that would, had it not been for its timely discovery, have endangered the Blanco Hotel and surrounding buildings was put out this morning before it did much damage. A box of shavings, etc., thrown out in a coal box in the rear of the building caught fire and the flames were shooting up alongside the building when it was discovered. It is believed that some one accidentally threw a match or cigarette stub into the place and started the blaze.

JACK McDONALD returned to Daniels Creek today after a few days in town. He says that the measles have been rampant among the Blue Ridge Tigers lately, there being six or eight cases at a time. They now have 123 men working in their Daniels Creek logging camps.

AMONG THE SICK

DR. E. MINGUS is confined to his home with a threatening attack of pneumonia. Frank Marhoffer was able to be down today after his recent operation for appendicitis.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City, by the Sea as told By The Recorder.

A. J. Bell of San Francisco arrived on the Piffel and has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Bandon Warehouse. Mr. Perriman who has been serving in that capacity expects to leave for San Francisco about the first of May.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sellmer and little daughter left on the last Elizabeth for San Francisco, from which place they will go to Germany for an extended visit with Mr. Sellmer's parents. They will also take several American picture plays with them and exhibit them in the old country. Paris London and Rome will be visited before their return.

O. T. Teany of Salem has purchased the confectionery store of Misses Huntington and Kyle, and will continue the business at the same stand, and expects to greatly enlarge the stock. Misses Huntington and Kyle will leave in a day or two for San Francisco and will probably go east in the near future.

T. T. Allen, who had a leg amputated at the Bandon Hospital a week ago Sunday, is getting along nicely and expects to be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

Attorney C. R. Wade was at Langlois Friday where he organized a corporation known as the Langlois Dairy Products Co. The new corporation owns a cheese factory at Langlois, which they will operate and will probably take up other lines of dairy products in the near future.

Last Saturday F. S. Perry bought the Jensen property on Fifth Street West, consisting of a house and seven lots. He will probably erect some modern bungalows on the property during the summer.

REGISTRATION IN CURRY.

GOLD BEACH, Or., April 26—At the close of business April 18; the registration books of Curry County showed a total registration of 752. Of these 499 are Republicans, 311 Democrats, 22 Socialists, 12 progressives, 4 Independent, 1 prohibition, 1 Progressive Republican and 1 no politics given.

OLD LADY VOTER

The oldest person we have had to note as registering here recently is Mrs. Elizabeth Turner, who resides with her son-in-law, H. W. Dunham, in this city. She is 91 years of age and registered Tuesday as a Democrat.—Coquille Sentinel.

ADELINE IN EARLY TODAY

Capt. Olson Says Bar Dredge Is Helping Some—Slightly Increased Depth.

The Adeline Smith arrived in this morning from Day Point after a fair trip up the coast. It was a little choppy outside. But the bar here was breaking clear across when they came in. Capt. Olson says that he has noticed a slight improvement in the bar since the dredge Michie has been working but it is not great. On the last trip out, twenty-four feet of water at high tide was the least he found. This was on one east and evidently on the bar shoal. This would leave about eighteen feet of water at low tide, considerably less than some have claimed. The Adeline will not go out again until Wednesday, the surplus lumber at the mill being pretty well cleared away.

Yellowstone In and Out.
The steamer Yellowstone arrived here Saturday evening on her initial trip, stopping in en route from San Francisco to Portland. She is only carrying freight now, but they expect to have her equipped for passengers soon to work with the Arline. She brought in a miscellaneous cargo of fruit and vegetables, etc., and took out a lot of cedar, etc. The Yellowstone sailed early Sunday morning.

The Arline is scheduled to sail from San Francisco Thursday and reach here Saturday.

Mr. Hardy Here.
Mr. Hardy, head of the Hardy Lumber company of San Francisco and owners of the steamer Hardy, is on the Bay to visit L. J. Simpson and others. Mr. Hardy conducts a big lumber business in San Francisco on the site that the Simpson Lumber company had for its big retail yards twenty years ago. The Hardy company buys practically all its lumber from the Simpson company. He says that the lumber outlook is better. In San Francisco it is estimated that 600,000,000 feet will be required this year for the exposition building work.

SAYS OREGON COMING SOON

Major Morrow Writes That the Dredge Has a Little Over $10,000 for Work Here.

Major Jay J. Morrow advises the Port of Coos Bay that the dredge Oregon will finish Yaquina Bay about May 10, and will leave for Coos Bay as soon as she can get ready for sea. There is a little over $10,000 available funds for her operation, sufficient to cover operating expenses for two or three months.

READY TO ENLIST.

Col. Garrigus, Father of Mrs. F. A. Golden Tenders Service.

The following from the Portland Oregonian concerning the father of Mrs. F. A. Golden of Marshfield is of interest there.

Colonel Lewis C. Garrigus, who won his title as a cavalryman in the Confederate Army is ready to wear the khaki in Mexico, and has asked President Wilson that in case a call for volunteers is made he be allowed to command a brigade of the Rough Riders, to be recruited in the West from men who can shoot and ride.

The following is a telegram sent to President Wilson by Colonel:

The President, Washington, D. C.—Indications point to the calling of volunteers to aid in pacifying Mexico. If the call is made I wish to command a brigade of Rough Riders. My training was in the Orphan Brigade under Joseph E. Johnston and Joe Wheeler. "Awaiting your call and commission, I am, for the honor of the flag, yours to command."
