

MANY RESPOND TO ROAD DAY

North Bend People Accomplish Most—Ten Mile, North Inlet and Coquille Work.

"Goods Roads Day" was a great success at North Bend, over a mile and three-quarters of right of way for the new North Bend-Empire road being cleared Saturday.

Saturday forenoon, Mayor Simpson says that fully 300 men were at work. They labored all morning and at noon some of the business men had to quit but a large force remained the entire day, slashing and burning.

The work was practically completed from North Bend to within 400 feet of Newmark street, where the road turns west to Empire. This is about a mile and three-quarters. A stretch sixty feet wide was cleared. This makes about ten acres cleared and $100 per acre is a low estimate on the cost of clearing and burning.

The North Bend women aided in the work with a will and at noon served the finest dinner imaginable. Coffee was served during the work. The North Bend women worked under the direction of the North Bend Library Association, Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Mrs. C. M. Byler, Mrs. Herbert Armstrong, Mrs. Fredrick Hollister and Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein being some of the leaders.

At 5 o'clock Saturday evening, a tired but happy band stopped their labors. A panoramic picture was taken, showing the force of laborers, the work they had accomplished and a view of North Bend.

The plan is to complete the grading of the road within the next few months and hard surface a roadway sixteen feet wide with bitulthic.

Work to Ten Mile.

Axel Ruth, supervisor of the North Inlet-Ten Mile road district was in today and was pleased with the Good Road Day showing there. He says that the citizens deserve the greatest praise. Work at Coquille.

Parties from Coquille state that there was a big response of Coquille people to the Good Roads Day work, over 100 townspeople turning out and laboring hard.

Many of the forest fires attributed to railroads are caused not by sparks from locomotives, but from cigar and cigarette butts thrown from smoking car windows.

MYRTLE POINT GETS LEAGUE

1915 Session of Coos County Christian Endeavorers to Be Held There.

The ninth annual session of the Coos Sub-district Ministerial Association and Epworth League Convention for Eugene District closed yesterday after a most enthusiastic and interesting session.

Commencing Friday noon, the Epworth League took complete control of the situation and the local chapter did all in their power to show the visiting delegates the best time possible.

A trip to the state fish hatchery was the first move made and the ideal weather and beautiful scenery proved to be an inspiration for the devotional and business sessions of the convention. The handiwork of God, in the settings of nature, proved an ideal inspiration for the carrying on of this work on earth and the young people who took this trip proved beyond doubt that they were here for work as well as play.

Every devotional and business meeting was well attended and the hours of the day proved themselves rather short for the enthusiastic delegates and speakers to say all they wished.

The Epworth League pledged was the most vital discussion of the session. After it had been torn apart and assigned to different delegates, it was examined and the contents were quite a surprise to many of the members and it is hoped by this session that all the chapters will erect the pledge to a higher plane in the future and make their ideal in Christian service.

Myrtle Point was chosen as the place to hold the convention one year from now and although Coquille with its ideal climate, central location and quintette of ardent supporters made a bid that looked pretty good for a while, it could not stand up under the Myrtle Point "steam roller."

Intermingled with the young ideas of Christian service were the experience and advice of some of the ministers of this district and district deacons and district superintendent. Beautiful solos rendered by Miss Twidwell were enjoyed by all. The following officers were elected and the business session closed:

- President—Mr. McWhinney, Myrtle Point.
 - First Vice president—Frank Sumner, Marshfield.
 - Second Vice president—Miss Peel, Myrtle Point.
 - Third Vice president—Miss Philpott, Bandon.
 - Fourth Vice president—Miss Sweet of Coquille.
 - Secretary—Mr. Woodbury, North Bend.
 - Cor. Secretary—E. I. Richardson, Marshfield.
 - Treasurer—Mrs. Aasen, Coquille.
 - Junior League Superintendent—Mrs. Woodworth, Marshfield.
- Sunday closed the convention and all the services, commencing with the sunrise prayer service, were well attended.

GOES AFTER MORE BUICKS

I. R. Tower Leaves for Portland to Hurry Shipment of Autos Here.

I. R. Tower left Saturday for Portland where he goes to hurry a shipment of Buick automobiles for Coos County purchasers. Among the prospective Buick owners who are wanting to try out the new machines are the following:

James Bennett, chief engineer at the C. A. Smith mill, who has purchased a handsome car and plans an extensive business and pleasure trip to California by auto in a few weeks. C. J. Doyle, of Wedderburn has also purchased a new Buick with which he will climb the hills of Curry and enjoy the summer months in a fine machine.

S. S. Jennings, of North Bend, is expecting a handsome new Buick car that is now overdue and which he expects to keep busy the coming season.

FOREST NOTES.

The state of New York has just published a comprehensive report on its wood-using industries.

Of the three Pacific coast states, Oregon and Washington far outstrip California in the work done by private owners for forest protection.

The development of the quicksilver mines promises to make large demands for cordwood and construction timbers on the Tonto National forest, Arizona.

Manufacturers of greenhouses and makers of boxes are getting in touch so that the latter may use for box cleats the cypress waste from the greenhouses.

HARVEY SMITH PASSES AWAY

Well Known Marshfield Man Succumbs at Portland—Burial at Grants Pass.

Harvey Smith, a well known Marshfield man, died at the Portland Convalescent Home in Portland Friday after a prolonged illness. He went to Portland with Mrs. Smith about three weeks ago to consult specialists, but no relief was found and he succumbed. The body was taken to the old home at Grants Pass for burial yesterday.

Mr. Smith had been a resident of Marshfield for about six years. He was a carpenter by trade and for a time worked at the C. A. Smith mill but recently had been employed in the local railroad shops. He suffered from violent headaches since last winter and when he reached Portland, the physicians there diagnosed his case as being a critical kidney and stomach trouble.

He is survived by a wife, formerly Miss Emma Flood of Slason, Calif. Two sisters live in Grants Pass. A niece and nephew of Mrs. Smith, Tyson Keyser and Charlotte Keyser, have been making their home in Marshfield for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith owned their home at Teah and Ingersoll and also considerable other Coos Bay property. News of his death came as a great shock to his many friends here.

AN ATTRACTIVE SHOW WINDOW

Owl Drug Store Makes Fine Display of Nationally Advertised Goods.

Much favorable comment was created on Central Avenue this morning by another one of a series of attractive window displays featuring nationally advertised goods at "The Owl Store."

Upon a background of flaming yellow arranged in several panels may be seen all the old favorites in the magazine pages and the big national weeklies. Good Housekeeping, the authority on pure foods, is featured and "The Owl" is now known and entitled to the distinction of being "The Good Housekeeping Store."

One of the rigidly observed rules at "The Owl" is that you always get exactly what you ask for and you are not requested or required to take "something just as good."

This window brings out this feature prominently, emphasizing the fact that when you see it in the magazines or in any of the popular periodicals you can get it at "The Owl," the "Good Housekeeping Store," where Nationally Advertised goods may always be found.

As an experiment, the supervisor of the Beaverhead national forest is stripping the bark from the bases of a number of lodgepole pine trees at various periods before they are cut for telephone poles. This girdling causes the tree to exude resin, and it is desired to find out what effect this may have as a preservative treatment for the poles.

NEW RULES FOR WOMEN.

OAKLAND, CAL., April 27.—Oakland has a new Moses who has climbed a new Sinai and has brought new tablets and ten new commandments. His other name is Rev. Frank L. Goodspeed, and his other occupation is that of pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland. His new commandments are for women only, and here they are as announced from his pulpit:

"Thou shalt not marry for revenge only or for fear of being an old maid.

"After marriage thou shalt not so forget thy personal appearance as to greet thy husband clad in an old wrapper.

"Thou shalt not dress so as to furnish jokes for the comic papers.

"Thou shalt not allow thy children to run wild in the street even that thou mayst attend the missionary meeting.

"Thou shalt not be jealous of thy neighbor if she rides in an auto while thou art compelled to use the trolley car.

"Thou shalt not tempt men and boys by serving liquor even if thou callest it punch.

"Thou shalt not make thy home a place of faultfinding, lest thy husband acquire the habit of thinking every night is lodge night.

"Thou shalt not spell home in any new way c-i-u-b nor h-r-i-d-g-e nor shalt thou confuse matrimony with alimony.

"Thou shalt not aspire to be a man or other than a noble woman, for when He made the ideal woman, He stopped, because he had reached the summit of creation."
