T. RICHARDSON ON COOS BAY

Oregon Booster Arrives for Big Meeting Tomorrow Night Dr. Weatherbee Coming.

Tom Richardson of Portland who has gained fame as a booster for Oregon arrived here today bubbling over with enthusiasm of the good things that the future has in store for this section and with ideas that will hasten their accomplishment.

Mr. Richardson will be the principal speaker at the big booster meeting to be held tomorrow night at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce when C. F. McKnight will preside. He received word today that his old fellow booster, Dr. Weatherbee, now owner of the Star Ranch in Curry county, will be here to speak with him. L. J. Simpson and a few others will also talk and music will be furnished by the Coos Bay Concert band.

"Marshfield and Coos Bay have made almost unbelievable strides since I visited here six or seven years ago" said Mr. Richardson today. "This is a great country and there is no limit to its possibilities and its growth but how soon these possibilities will be realized, depends upon the people."

"The filling of Mill Slough and the great distance around it, the deepening of the harbor, the street improvements and the erection of fine permanent buildings are a few of the things that will be the making of Coos Bay."

"The words 'Coos Bay' recall an idea I had when I first visited here and one that I think, if it had been adopted, would have been the greatest booster stroke the community could have made. It was to unite Marshfield, North Bend and Empire and name the city Coos Bay. It had a geographical and advertising value that is hard to estimate. It is not too late yet but it would probably be more difficult to unite them under the one name now."

Meredith in Portland—W. H. Meredith was in Portland last week on his speaking tour of the district. He gave out an interview there saying that Southwestern Oregon democrats were favoring Dr. C. J. Smith of Fendleton, Gov. West's choice, for governor. His view differs decidedly from other local democrats.

Books Gone—This morning quite a furore was caused at the Marshfield high school by the discovery that all of the books were missing. After several hours search, they were found hidden in the basement. Some of the high school boys are alleged to have got in and caused the bother. Whether anything will be done about it has not been announced.

Organize New Lodge—F. L. Moore has completed his charter list and will organize a lodge of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman in this city tomorrow evening.
