BOOSTERS TO MEET TONIGHT

Big Gathering at Masonic to Hear Orators Outline Development Plans

The booster meeting to be held at the Masonic Opera House tonight promises to draw one of the largest crowds ever gathered for an affair of the kind here. Dr. Weatherbee arrived from the Star ranch today and is bubbling over with enthusiasm over development work.

The meeting is an open one and free. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of the women folk as Tom Richardson, the booster inspirer, says women are more enthusiastic boosters than men.

L. J. Simpson will also talk on harbor work tonight. C. F. McKnight will preside and the band will furnish music.

Mr. Richardson will probably outline a plan for running excursions from San Francisco to Coos Bay and from Portland to Coos Bay next year during the Exposition. He thinks this would bring hundreds into this section to see first hand the unbounded opportunities it affords.

The plan for a county building at the fair, Dr. Weatherbee regards as unfeasible.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude to Judge Hall, the Rev. Gregg and many old-time friends of Marshfield who so kindly assisted me last Saturday in the burial of our mother, who had passed the four score and ten mile post of life.

H. W. DUNHAM AND FAMILY.
Along the Waterfront.

The Randolph is expected back in a day or two from Rogue River. She had some trouble in crossing there, being caught on a shoal for a few hours, but she was not damaged.

BORN

THOMPSON—To Mr. and Mrs. H. Thompson at their home in Vancouver, B. C., a son, Mrs. Thompson is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Thompson, of South Fifth street, teacher of the Seventh grade in the South Marshfield building.

Sewer Breaks—Yesterday during the operations of the dredge Seattle, the manhole and sewer pipe from West Marshfield was broken in the rear of the Finnish hall. The sewer is the main to the entire West Marshfield district and steps were taken at once to repair it.

Services at Bunker Hill—There will be a public preaching service in the Bunker Hill School house on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Rev. A. F. Bassford of the Baptist Church will preach. The public is invited to attend this service which will be the first of a series of union meetings.

Four Arrested—Four men were arrested last night by Marshal Carter on a charge of drunkenness. They were Matt South, Gust Carlson, J. Rogan and Ed Vandell. The latter will serve five days in repairing the streets and the others were fined five dollars. A number of loggers have been arrested recently for drunkenness.

Has Anniversary—W. P. Murphy yesterday celebrated the twenty-seventh anniversary of his arrival in Marshfield. He came from New York to San Francisco and from there to Coos Bay. He intended to spend to spend five years on the coast but he has become a permanent resident. Eleven years of his twenty-seven years residence here were spent in the employ of Eugene O'Connell as a tinner.

Close Estate—Yesterday at Coquille Judge Hall closed up the affairs of Chas. A. Bery, the Empire boy who was killed in a logging accident near Eugene. August Bery, his father was administrator of the estate which consisted principally of $250 damages which the logging company paid for his death. J. C. Kendall was at Coquille as attorney for Mr. Bery in the matter.

North Broadway Change—It is reported that a movement is on foot to hard pave North Broadway avenue to the intersection of Broadway and Front street, a distance of several blocks. It is also proposed to eliminate the grades on Broadway north of Market avenue and also in front of the W. F. Merchant residence, making Broadway practically level. W. P. Murphy and a number of others are said to have signed up for it.

Ball Players Here—Three baseball players came in on the Breakwater yesterday hoping to land jobs in this section and were chagrined when they learned that there was danger of there being no league here this year. They were Messrs. Kelly, Crawford and Krause, who have been trying for places in the Northwest League. They state that Floyd Perkins, of Gardiner, is to be transferred from the Portland Coas League team to the Portland Northwest League team.

Pine Street Up—The plan for opening Pine Street or rather First street is being prosecuted by Arthur McKeown and J. W. Bennett. They have secured the consent of W. P. Murphy and some of the other property owners although many of the property owners are still fighting it vigorously. It is likely that there will be considerable turmoil over the matter and already threats of litigation are being made by the property owners on the street who opposes the big expense that the improvement will incur.

Boy Run Over—Melvin Steen, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Steen fell under the Bunker Hill Department store's auto yesterday and was slightly hurt. The lad hopped on the side of the car for a ride and when it neared the Coal Bank Inlet drawbridge, he jumped off but rolled so that the wheel passed over his leg. It was first feared that it was broken but Dr. McCormack found that it was not, although it was badly bruised. C. R. Dindinger says that he has been having considerable trouble from lads jumping on and off the car although he has repeatedly warned them against the dangerous practice.

Postpone Social—The social of the North Bend Episcopal Ladies' Guild to be held tonight is postponed for two weeks because of so much sickness.

Railway Men Here—Engineers H. P. Hoey and W. R. Fontaine, in charge of the construction of the Coos Bay and Eugene line, arrived here last evening on a tour of inspection and left early this morning back over the route. They are getting in touch with the new work and are planning to hasten it as rapidly as possible. They had little new to give out concerning the road.

Bridge Booming—Guy Chambers and wife returned yesterday from a week's visit at the R. J. Montgomery home at Bridge. Mr. Chambers says Mr. Montgomery has a fine chicken ranch and will soon have 1000 birds. Good Roads Day was observed at Bridge, 104 men getting out and blasting and surfacing a long stretch of highway.

MRS. E. L. BESSEY, of Coos River, is a Marshfield shopper today.

PETER MIRRASOUL returned on the noon train from Coquille today.

DR. GEO. B. DIX went to Coquille this morning as a witness in the Ferrari case.

TOM HALL returned today from a trip to Myrtle Point and Coquille in the interests of his candidacy.

MRS. WICKHAM, of Coquille, spent Sunday here as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Moehler.

MRS. G. H. MEYERS left today for a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. James Landrith, of Coos River.

MRS. L. S. DOBLE, of Eugene, is expected here soon to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Claude Nasburg.

MRS. WM. DEUBNER is expected home on the next Nann Smith from San Francisco, where she has been visiting at the home of her son.

EMMETT PIERCE was up from Tar Heel camp yesterday and is making arrangements to resume operations there before long. The camp has been closed down for several months.

AMES JOHNSON, Postmaster and general merchant at Port Orford, and wife, spent Sunday here, coming up to see Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Chandler, who is ill at Mercy Hospital.

MRS. W. J. MITCHELL, of Portland, arrived here yesterday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Mulloy. Her husband, Detective Mitchell, has been here for some time.

R. G. CULL, an experienced merchandise man and window trimmer, and wife arrived here from Portland on the last Breakwater. He has taken a position in Dindinger's Bunker Hill Department Store.

MR. AND MRS. CHAS. E. SEAFUSE returned today from Bandon, where they have been spending a few weeks while Mr. Seafuse has been looking after the decoration of some buildings there. They are highly pleased with Bandon.

JUDGE W. M. CAKE, of Portland, who is here, says Marshfield has grown more in the past five years than in the ten years previous. Judge Cake has been a resident of Oregon since 1886 and has paid particular attention to the growth of the Coos Bay country. Judge Cake arrived on the Breakwater yesterday. He will visit Coquille and Bandon and return to Portland Friday.

AMONG THE SICK

Ed McCallif was quite severely hurt by being struck in the head by a ball at the South Inlet drawbridge Sunday. He was unconscious for over an hour. It occurred near the end of a game in which South Inlet defeated Empire 22 to 8.
Jos. McKinnon, a well-known Coos Bay Scotchman, is quite ill at Mercy Hospital.
Joe Pellanti, a ranch hand, underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital this morning.

BROWN DENIES REPORT.

A Portland paper says: "J. Lee Brown, secretary of the Oregon state pharmacy board, denies that Joseph M. Rice, Portland druggist, who was convicted of selling narcotics and fined $500, was ever a prominent worker for the board. On the contrary, states Mr. Brown, the cases against Rice have all been prosecuted by the board. In the last instance Rice was not only fined $500, but he also forfeited the right to practice pharmacy in Oregon, his certificate having been revoked by the board."

PARTY AT BANDON.

Mrs. T. W. Robinson entertained at a Five Hundred party Tuesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. Denholm, and friend, Miss Donaldson, of Portland, who are visiting her. A very pleasant afternoon was spent and after cards dainty refreshments were served. Those invited were Mesdames F. J. Peoney, L. J. Radley, Albert Garfield, L. P. Sorenson, F. E. Dyer, C. Y. Lowe, Steve Gallier, Ed Gallier, E. E. Reynolds, Smith J. Mann, Geo. Geisenfelder, W. E. Craipe, E. B. Kausrud, C. R. Wade, A. S. Elliott, Horace Richards, F. S. Greenough, Arthur Gale, H. L.
