

You can now go from New York to Chicago in 20 hours for $20—because scientific methods applied to railroad building and operating have made it possible.

You can go out of this store in a few minutes wearing a fine suit of clothes for $15—because scientific methods applied to clothes making and selling have made it possible.

Science has made more comfortable trains go more miles at less cost—science has made better clothes wear longer at less cost—that is, if you make sure that your clothes have the Clothcraft label.

The makers of Clothcraft have carried out the science of clothes-making to the last degree—making it practical for us to offer you better values than can be found in any other make—that is why we bought them for you.

Spring styles are ready for you today.

Remember clothes bought here will be kept pressed free of charge

Plan Social.—Rev. Knotts, new school classes are planning for a social in the new M. E. Church hall next Friday night.

Pioneer Ill.—John Golden has been very sick the last few days and owing to his advanced age it is feared that the pioneer cannot survive long.

Improves Launch.—W. E. Piper of Coos River has installed a 12 horsepower engine in his launch. He is rapidly recuperating from his prolonged illness.

Elks Tonight.—The Marshfield Lodge of Elks will meet tonight to initiate several candidates and take up other matters including plans for a series of baseball games.

To Entertain Society.—Mrs. Lars Lillebo will entertain the Norwegian Lutheran Ladies' Aid Societies of Marshfield and North Bend at her home in North Bend Thursday afternoon.

Ferry Traffic.—Capt. Alex Hall of the Ferry Transit reports that during April the ferry carried 5,377 passengers, 123 double teams 190 single teams, 108 autos and 86 head of stock.

Recovers Pin.—Mrs. H. L. Crawford has recovered a keepsake pin which she advertised in The Times as lost the other day. The party who found it returned it when she was not home, leaving it in the door.

Decoration Day.—Preliminary plans for the observance of Memorial Day are being made here. Baker Post G. A. R. has turned over the affair to the Spanish-American War Veterans who will have charge of the details.

Summer Visitors.—The following arrived on the launch Sunrise from Summer this morning: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Stadden, Miss Olive Richards, Charles Spooner came in on the same boat from Catching Inlet.

Auto to Ten Mile.—Gorst and King are making arrangements to establish auto service between North Inlet landing and Lakeside. Wm. Penneck will be in charge and expects to try it out this week and see if the roads will permit the service to be kept up.

Eastside Contest.—Mrs. Rebecca Luse Stump has made arrangements to hold a Demorest medal contest at Eastside next Friday evening. The same class that participated here will contest again, with the exception that Mrs. Helen Downs will take the place of Dr. Shaw, who won the prize in the Marshfield contest.

Big Auto Falls.—The big auto which was especially built for the coast service between Siuslaw and Gardiner has fallen and the auto service has been taken off, according to V. C. Gorst. Arrangements may be made later to resume it. Mr. Gorst says their line between Coos Bay and Gardiner is working fine.

Rip-Rap Fill.—Hugh McLain is now rip-rapping the Southern Pacific fill across the mouth of Mill Slough. Larson's dredge being used to hoist the rock from the scows into place. As soon as this is done they will begin loading the rock from the scows on flat cars to be hauled to the fill beyond the Simpson Park cut.

No Hotel News.—Sec. Smith of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce Pettit Loggie and other North Bend men were here last evening to attend the booster meeting. They report no developments in the hotel project with Mr. Knotts and the matter is still indefinite although they are hopeful of favorable developments in it.

Big Dairy Output.—Dr. Wetherbee, who was here last night from the Star Ranch reports that his section is now producing 40,000 pounds of milk per day. He secured a number of thoroughbreds for his ranch, one of them being from the same stock as the world champion cow. He left for there again this morning.

Students Return.—Miss Zoe Dolan and the Misses Fitzgerald are expected home about May 15 from the Academy at Albany where they have been attending school. Mr. Fitzgerald will drive out to Roseburg to meet the young ladies, who will return with him.

Many At Funeral.—The funeral of George Catching at Sumner yesterday was largely attended, friends and neighbors gathering from that whole section to pay tribute to the young man. Rev. G. LeRoy Hall officiated. The pall-bearers were O. N. Wilson, Carl Smedberg, Arr Selander, Clarke Harris, Harry Boone and Fred Stock.

Organize Lodge.—The Brotherhood of American Yeomen was organized last night by District Organizer Fred L. Moore, with a class of fifteen members. All enjoyed the first meeting and the prospects for a strong order is very promising. Some of the older members were in attendance and ably assisted in organizing the new home-stead.

Library Benefit Success.—The ladies of the North Bend Library Board cleared $40 as the proceeds of the Rhododendron Ball given last Friday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and streamers and refreshments were served in the balcony. This was the first of a series of affairs the ladies are planning to give to secure money for the book fund.

Cafe Closed.—The Ideal Cafe, 312 Front street, has been closed temporarily. It is understood that C. A. Holmes, proprietor of the place, will sell out. He said this morning that he had two prospective buyers, but that the sale had not been negotiated. Holmes has owned the place since it opened in March. A man named Millard was associated with him for a time but left recently.

Three Arrests.—Three men were arrested last night by Marshal Carter charged with being in a drunken condition. They were fined five dollars each. The men are Andrew Rigg, Si Avery and Dan Donahue. They were unable to pay their fines but were allowed to go to work at logging camps and lumber mills with the promise that the fines would be paid as soon as they earned the money.

Coos River Visitors.—The following arrived on the Rainbow from Coos River this morning: Mrs. H. E. Bessey, Mr. and Mrs. Melcher Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith, Harry Smith, Miss Hazel Mason, William Woods, F. C. Gosney, Mr. C. H. Childers, C. O. Gosney, Mr. Gosney just finished a new barn for Lester Smith at Coos River. It has been planned to hold a big dance in the barn next Saturday night.

New Quarters.—It is announced that F. G. Horton has leased the Broadway portion of the former Alliance warehouse and it will be the new home of the Coos Bay branch of Allen & Lewis of which Mr. Horton is the successful manager. It is planned to build a brick veneer in front of the present building, bringing it out even with Broadway. It will give much-needed space for the growing business.

Aunt is Dead.—Dr. A. L. Houseworth today received a telegram announcing the death of an aunt in Kansas. She was one of the leading women of Kansas, having devoted her efforts after the death of her husband many years ago to educational work. She was superintendent of the Wellington Schools for a time and later head of a college at Wichita, Kansas. She was his favorite aunt and he her favorite nephew, so that the news came as a very sad shock to him today.

Test Bricketting.—A. Kennedy and W. J. Higgins are here from Seattle on a bricketting proposition that promises big things. They have made arrangements with Supt. Hennessy of the Smith-Powers mine to test out a machine and system which Mr. Kennedy, who is an expert coal mining engineer, has devised and it promises big things. Mr. Higgins will remain here in charge of the experiments and if it succeeds like they anticipate it will be one of the biggest things ever.

Point and that they will have a Fourth of July celebration there that would make the eyes of the man who started celebrations turn green with envy.

MRS. DEL SAUNDERS of South Inlet is a Marshfield visitor today.

J. H. SMITH and wife are here from Bandon for a short stay.

J. C. Kendall went to Coquille this afternoon to attend court.

MRS. R. B. DEMENT of Myrtle Point was a Marshfield visitor today.

O. C. WALDVOGEL is here from Bandon on business today.

J. R. MAGEE and J. D. KAY of the Riverton mine are visitors here today.

ROY LAWHORNE and bride have returned from their honeymoon trip to Coquille Valley points and are being showered with congratulations.

EUGENE CROSTHWAITE left this morning for Portland on business. He will return via Eugene and Florence and will probably come over the railway route.

MR. and MRS. WALTER CONDRON left yesterday for Coquille valley points. Mr. Condron has been representing a horse importing company in that section.

MISSER MAMIE and HELEN GULOVSEN expect to leave soon for Portland to visit relatives and from there will go to Seaside where they will probably spend most of the summer.

PAUL DIMMICK, manager of the North Bend Lumber Company was in Marshfield yesterday enroute to the valley. He is lining things up in fine shape for the Swayne Hoyt Co., which he represents and all that is needed now is for the lumber market to pick up some.

P. L. CIMINIO, a well known Ten Mile rancher, came in today on business. He reports great activity on the railroad and that Ten Mile is flourishing. The automobile made the first trip in from Lakeside to the North Inlet landing and got through all right, but Mr. Ciminio thinks the road is not yet in good enough shape for it to continue regularly.

G. W. DUNGAN is making a trip to Gardiner and the Siuslaw country. His new mattress equipment has added immensely to his factory and the way the trade and people are taking to him. With the advent of the railroad, he will be able to add more territory and the prospects for the growth of the industry are most rosy.

JAS. WATSON came over from Coquille last night to attend the big K. P. meeting at North Bend and returned on the morning train. He has been kept too busy with his duties as clerk to make much of a campaign for county judge but is receiving many assurances of support and so far the only opposition to him has been from a few special favor seekers who oppose Watson because they know that he will give all a square deal.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. C. W. Endicott of Coquille underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital this morning and is reported to be doing nicely.

Gerald Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Sweet of South Broadway, is quite ill of pleuro-pneumonia.

Miss Gertrude Robinson is ill of appendicitis at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Drews.

Mrs. George Elliott of Davis Inlet today underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor and is reported to be doing nicely.

Harry Bultman, representative of Baker & Hamilton, underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital this morning and is reported to be doing nicely. It will probably be two or three weeks before he can leave the hospital.

WAIVES PRELIMINARY HEARING

John Shaley, who was arrested at Bandon for getting Cal Wright to endorse a worthless $10 draft he drew on the Hartman & Thompson Bank at Portland, waived a preliminary hearing and will be taken before the grand jury.
