VERA CRUZ SMALLPOX.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7. Some smallpox prevails, but the city is in a fair sanitary condition and fairly healthy at present" is the substance of a cable message to the Red Cross from Charles Jenkinson, its representative, who has just arrived at Vera Cruz to take charge of operations.

[By Associated Press to Cocs Bay Times.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7. he State Department announced that the Brazilian legation at Mexico City has transmitted information of the departure of a train bearing about $00 refugees for Vera Cruz. The train is in three sections under the Brazilian flag. Among the refugees are Dr. Edward R. Ryan, special representative of the American Red Cross, who has been held by Huerta. A resolution that would permit the President to increase the army above the 100,000 statutory limitation was introduced in the Senate by Senator Chamberfain of the Military Affairs Committee.

The Brazilian minister at Mexico City informed the State Department that he is continuing the efforts in behalf of Consul Silliman and other Americans said to be in prison at Saltillo. He adds that the probability of an attack on Saltillo by the Constitutionalists has interrupted all communication and so far rendered it impossible to free the prisoners.

Negress is Sentenced.
This morning Judge Coke called Ozelia Franklin, the Marshfield negress who pleaded guilty to an indictment charging her with wounding her husband last winter, for sentence. He sentenced her to an inde-terminate term of six months to ten years in the state penitentiary and then announced that sentence would be suspended during good behavior.

District Attorney Liljeqvist immediately objected to a suspension of sentence in this case, pointing out that the woman's actions did not justify such clemency.
