

We Clear Our Decks For Action in a very novel and thorough Rake-up @ Shovel-out Sale

THE MOST ENTHUSIASTIC SALE OF THE YEAR.
Commencing Saturday Next, May 9, Continuing For Seven Days Only

THE IDEA—With the advent of the "Good Roads" enthusiasm when Spades, Shovels, Axes and Rakes are brought into requisition, many of the larger mercantile firms of cities have applied this means of a general PRICE CUTTING in order to SHOVEL OUT merchandise at this time of the year at the greatest sacrifice.

IT'S OBJECT—Owing to a backward season and a large stock, we have RAKED CLEAN the stock of every department and for the next seven days will SHOVEL OUT BARGAINS heretofore unprecedented—and this—right in the midst of Spring and on the verge of Summer. Every department in our store contributes to these bargains.

BORN

RUSSELL.—To Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell of North Bend, Wednesday, May 6, an eight-pound son.

Summer Visitors.—The following came in on the Sunrise from Sumner: James Stock, J. S. Masters, Mrs. J. M. Culley, T. Colver.

To Entertain Society.—Miss Carrie Ross will entertain the members of the Baptist Young Peoples' Society at her home at 62 Golden avenue, Friday evening May 8.

Gardiner's Birthday.—Today Don Gardiner of North Bend is celebrating his thirty-fifth birthday, at least he says that he is only 35 but Harry McKeown insists that Gardiner is older than he is.

New Musician.—J. A. Martin of Anacortes, Wash., has arrived on the Bay. He is a fine cornetist and instructor in music and expects to locate in North Bend or Marshfield.

Golden Not Sick.—Tom Hall says that the report that John Golden was ill at Mercy Hospital was erroneous as he saw Mr. Golden at Coquille and he was working on his property over there.

Elks Initiate.—Jack Meroen, A. L. Kohler and F. E. Hague were initiated by the Marshfield Lodge of Elks last evening. The baseball committee has arranged for a five inning game between two teams of the lodge on the North Bend grounds next Sunday.

Gets Auto Crank.—Through a Times found ad, R. K. Ruffner has recovered an auto crank which he lost on South Second street. The crank was picked up by C. H. Codding who gave it to parties to bring to the Times office, knowing that a Times lost ad would find the owner. And it did.

Wed Tonight.—Frank Pugaley, candy-maker at Stafford's Candy factory, and Miss Mabel Barrows, will be married this evening at the Marshfield Episcopal Church by the Rev. R. E. Browning. It will be the first wedding in the new church. Only the bride's relatives will be present at the church, but later Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Stafford will entertain at a wedding dinner at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Pugaley will reside at Tenth and Anderson, where they have furnished their home in advance.

Four Offenders.—Four men were brought up in the police court this morning charged with appearing on the street in a drunken condition.

They were Harry Taylor, Frank Hickman, August Hano and Henry Anderson. The first three named were fined five dollars and the latter, Anderson, was fined $10 and sentenced to five days work on the street. Anderson is accused of insulting the landlady at the Holiday House. Taylor was ordered to leave the city as he had been found begging and making himself a public nuisance for some time.

To Hold Meeting.—The Annual Parish meeting of the Episcopal Church will be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening in Guild Hall. The object of this Annual Meeting is to elect a Vestry Board for the ensuing year and to hear reports from various parish organizations. After the business is over there will be social and music features. A large attendance is looked for from the members of the Parish and its friends.
