FRANK S. GRANT
For Attorney General

The Attorney General should be a man of wide and varied experience in the civil law, as distinguished from the criminal law. Mr. Grant has had that experience as City Attorney of Portland. The Attorney General should be a broad-minded man who can view a question from every angle; a man of judicial temperament and sound judgment and one who has had experience in handling big questions involving the civil rights of the state. As City Attorney of Portland Mr. Grant displayed the sound judgment, judicial temperament and broad mindedness which are so essential in the Attorney General, and he handled with ability, matters of the greatest importance to the city.

The Attorney General has very little power in enforcing the law (criminal) of the state. These laws, including the liquor laws, are enforced by the various district attorneys and the Attorney General cannot prosecute for violation of these laws.

Frank Grant, however, believes in law enforcement, as his record in enforcing the criminal ordinances of the city shows.

Mr. Grant's only promise is that he will, if elected, render to the state the same honest and efficient service he rendered the city of Portland.—(Paid. Adv.)

OUT FOR CONGRESS.

Democrats Have Worthy Man in the Race in Person of Fred Hollister.

(Polk County Itemizer, April 2.) This paper herewith presents its readers a picture of Frederick Hollister, of Coos Bay, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress for the first district. We do this for two reasons: First, that our readers may judge for themselves what the man who would occupy Congressman Hawley's seat looks like, and, secondly, that our readers may thereby be advised that a real live democrat is in the race.

FREDERICK HOLLISTER

To the Democratic Party of the First Congressional District of Oregon:

The Democratic County Central Committee of Coos County wish to herewith state that Mr. Frederick Hollister has received the endorsement of our committee for the office of Representative in Congress from this district.

We are glad to say personally that Mr. Hollister is a clean, aggressive Democrat; that he has lived with us in Coos County for some eleven years, and that during that time he has built up a reputation among his associates and acquaintances for honesty, sobriety and ability. We cordially recommend Mr. Hollister to you for your support at the coming Primary Election, believing and knowing that if nominated that he will be in the fight all the time.

Yours for success, Hugh McLain, Chairman Democratic Central Committee, Coos County; W. J. Rust, Secretary Democratic Central Committee, Coos County.—(Paid Adv.)

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Commissioner on the Democratic ticket at the coming primary election.

O. J. SEELEY.

ANNOUNCEMENT

As I have lived in Coos County since 1872, familiar with all the roads in the county and their conditions, believing that I can be of service to the taxpayers of Coos County as a Commissioner from this district, I hereby announce myself as a candidate on the Republican ticket at the primary May 15, 1914. I stand for good roads and reasonable repair.

NOTICE

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination of county clerk, on the republican ticket of Coos county to be submitted to the vote of the people at the primary election May 15th.
F. D. KRUSE
(Paid Adv.)

Mr. Hollister is a successful business man of Coos Bay; is a lawyer of repute, and is identified with every progressive movement of the people of Coos Bay have had for years. He is an honest citizen, a man whose purpose and ambitions in life are to do things for the betterment of mankind and the state in which he lives. He has never before aspired to any office in county or state. At present he is a member of the City Council of North Bend, to which high position he was elected by the highest majority of all members now serving; is a director of the First National Bank of North Bend and President of the Lane County State & Savings Bank of Florence. He has been a resident of North Bend eleven years.

We are certain from information at hand that never before has a cleaner or more progressive man ever come before the democratic primaries and we are equally certain that never before have we had the opportunity to place a democrat in congress that we now have. This man is a coast man, and never before has the coast asked for recognition. The interests of the coast are identical with the interests of the interior, but the advantage is to be had in sending a man to congress who is advised as to the needs and requirements of the coast, instead of one who has to depend on information furnished him by his political friends. If the rivers and harbors of our state are aided by the Federal Government, the benefit will be felt by the cities of the interior.

That great undeveloped county of Coos is solid for their home man and there democrats and republicans are working hand in hand to secure his nomination. The people there believe in him and are exceedingly anxious to see him receive the nomination.

FOR GOVERNOR

GUS. C. MOSER

Republican
He Stands for Economy and Efficiency and Dignified Law Enforcement. Fewer Commissions and Reduction of Expense in Each Department of the State.

Synopsis of Record and Platform
I was born and reared upon a farm in Buffalo County, Wis.; educated myself by my own efforts, and have practiced law in Portland since June 1, 1894. Have always taken an active part in public affairs, and have held several official positions.

I stand on my record as State Senator at the last session of the Legislature. I worked and voted against the new tax law, and favor a law making taxes payable semi-annually, without penalty.

Only five of the laws passed at that session were referred to the people by referendum petitions; four of these the people approved by overwhelming majorities, and I voted for them; the fifth was almost as badly defeated, and I had voted against it in the Legislature.

I worked and voted for Senator Malarkey's minimum wage bill for women, providing for an impartial commission to fix the maximum hours of labor and the minimum amount of pay.

I favor a similar law providing for an impartial commission without compensation, to fix the maximum hours of labor for men in the various industrial occupations; this in preference to a flat-eight hour law.

I favor further good roads legislation with state aid, so that we may have cheaper transportation from the farms and producers in every direction.

I favor the reduction of taxes by consolidation of various commissions, or the abolishment thereof, and placing their duties in the hands of the State Board, and by the reduction of the expense of conducting the various departments of the state.

I favor suitable appropriations for our State Educational Institutions, and the continued improvement of our great bulwark—the public school system.

And above all, I favor the vigorous and efficient enforcement of all the criminal statutes, including those regulating or prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors, and this I shall do with firmness and impartiality. The rich, the poor, the great, the humble, the capitalist, the laborer, the churchman and the business man shall be measured by the same standard, and each shall answer for his own acts.

Political Announcements

For Supreme Judge

Announcement has been made by Charles L. McNary, now a member of the Supreme Court, that he will be a candidate on the Republican ticket for one of the positions on that tribunal, there being four justices to be nominated by the people in the May primaries.

Justice McNary was born of pioneer parents on a farm in the Willamette Valley forty years ago. After acquiring his early education in the common schools and his collegiate and legal education by supporting himself, he entered upon his profession in Salem, more than 15 years ago. For several years he served as Assistant District Attorney for the Third Judicial District, and won the reputation of being a fearless and capable Prosecutor. For six years—in fact, until his accession to the Supreme Court, he was the Dean of the Willamette College of Law, and made it one of the ranking colleges of the West. With his own struggles for an education still fresh in his mind, he made it a rule to deny no student an education because of the lack of money, and dozens of graduates of this college are today indebted to Justice McNary's generosity for their legal education.

Reared with the common class he has always been a staunch champion of their cause. During his career as a Justice of the Supreme Court he has endeavored to interpret the law as a living, progressive science, rather than as a rule too old to be corrected if found inapplicable to present day conditions, and has written many important decisions. It was Justice McNary who wrote the forceful and much discussed dissenting opinion in the State versus E. S. J. McAllister. Defining the duties of the courts in this opinion, he said in part: "The value of law is its proximity to reason, its certainty and universality. The abuse in the administration of law is to adhere blindly to a rule that savors of iniquity simply because it is a judicial decision. The first duty of a court is to decide the law correctly so far as it lies within the human mind. The next duty is to smite that rule of human action which is found to be unjust, however well it may be buttressed by precedent."

The owner himself of one of the finest farms in the Willamette Valley, Justice McNary is deeply interested in agriculture development. He is now, and has been for a number of years, President of the Sales Fruit Union, an organization engaged in developing the fruit industry of the state.

Strict Enforcement of all Laws. Economy Consistent with Efficiency and good judgment.

J. A. MADSEN

CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION STATE LABOR COMMISSIONER.

Will give my undivided attention to strict and impartial enforcement of all laws pertaining to the office; practices economy consistent with efficiency and good judgment; administer all the functions of the office, including the statistical department, in a systematic and businesslike manner; will cooperate with labor and all other organizations and all citizens interested in enactment of laws for the protection of life, limb and health of the toilers of our State. Will advocate enactment of legislation based upon the experience and success of the Federal Labor Bureau in dealing with and adjusting industrial disputes, strikes and lockouts.

An Open Letter to The People of Coos County

Editor Times:

Through your paper may I say to the good people of Coos County that it has been impossible for me to visit them before the primary election May 15th, but I plan to do so soon after,

in behalf of my candidacy for the United States Senate.

I appreciate to the full the kind expressions that have come to me from Coos County by letter, from interviews with residents and through the press.

As I view it, every interest of the Northwest is pleading for restoration of the Republican Party to Power. A revolt against the Democratic Tariff Act that free-listed our products is apparent throughout the State.

The best expression of disapproval of Democratic policies and the best indication of their reversal can be shown by a full party vote at the Primary.

For the Party's sake, and personally, I acknowledge in advance grateful appreciation for the votes that will be cast for me as the Party's choice for United States Senator.

R. A. BOOTH.

DOANE WRITES ABOUT ARREST

Editor Coos Bay Times:

As you have seen fit to allow the space for the Reporter of the Times and also J. W. Carter, chief of police, to express themselves, in regard to me and my ability I trust that you will grant me the privilege of reply.

With reference to the article in the "Times," of May 14th, 1914, in regards to who arrested Edward Lagus for riding a bicycle without a light. On the evening of the 9th, I was talking with Chief Carter in front of the City Hall, standing near the middle of a wheel without a light, going North, on Front street, and I called the Chief's attention to the same. I then walked up the street, South and was just opposite Matson's store, when a man passed me, on a wheel, without a light going south. I called three times, to the man before he stopped. I went over and took hold of the wheel, and told the man I would have to arrest him, and take the wheel to the station. The man was arguing with me about the matter when Chief Carter butted in, and grabbed hold of the wheel, and started for the station with the wheel. The man or boy as he proved to be following after him, I turned the wheel loose and stepped back and laughed to see the Chief but, in, with out any provocation, I did not ask him or signal for any help as I did not need any of his help. He only butted in where he had no business. Now, the young man himself, will verify just what I have said, so will A. R. O'Brien, who was standing there and was a witness to the whole proceedings. (Now who arrested Lagus?) I will leave it to the public to answer.

Then, after making a round, I dropped into the office to make some reports on other police matters, and I saw how it was entered on the books, as J. W. Carter, the arresting officer. I said to Gordon Smith that I was the one who made the arrest, but Carter butted in and took the man away from me, so Gordon wrote my name over the name of Carter, so when I saw that, not wishing to be any more than fair, I wrote making it read "Doane and Carter."

Next morning when Carter came down and saw this, he takes the pen and blots out my name, entirely. That evening when I came down to work, I noticed it and spoke to Gordon and said that Carter had done it and I told Gordon that I would speak to Carter about it, but did not get an opportunity, so Gordon wrote my name on the book again, and put the time 9 p. m. over Carter's name, then Carter came in later and put a poster over the blot and wrote "Carter" in box car letters with a pen and ink, and later wrote "Doane," with a pencil, very small under his name. Now, why did he write my name at last if I had nothing to do with the arrest? or why didn't he write it the first time if I didn't make the arrest? I will leave it to the public to decide.

What I have stated I can prove by Gordon Smith. I never wrote my name on the book and I did not scratch Chief Carter's name off the book. I did not blot his name on the book, I did not erase his name from the book, nor did I ask anyone else to do the same, but I did write Carter's name on the book after my name where Gordon had entered my name as I did not wish to defraud him of any of the credit he might possibly be entitled to.

The Chief remarked that if Doane was a sensible man he might talk him about the matter. I will leave to the public to decide whether or Carter acted sensible about the matter. The public can judge who has been the transgressor, and I am perfectly willing to abide by the decision. As to Chief Carter taking the matter before the City Council, I have my consent to do so and I would welcome an investigation as I know I am right and can prove every word that I have written here.

The only trouble with Carter I think he (Carter) is the only pebble on the beach, and he would very much like the public in general to think the same.

Respectfully,
J. C. DOANE

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try This! Darkens Beautifully and Nobody Can Tell—Brings Back Its Gloss and Thickness

Common garden sage brewed in a heavy tea, with sulphur and cobalt added, will turn gray streaks and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and fall hair. Mixing the Sage Tea Sulphur recipe at home, though troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, cost about 50 cents a large bottle drug stores, known as "Why Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Why's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. It just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray has disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft, luxuriant and you appear younger.
