FROM COOS BAY TO CONGRESS.

Over in the Coos Bay country most everybody calls him Fred—his formal title is Frederick—and one and all agree that Hollister is the bappy successor to Hawley as congressman from the first district. Also, so infectious is the home sentiment of those who have known him best, the same feeling is common in the corner councils of state democracy. Politics aside, the nomination of Fred Hollister, by the party at the primary would effectually serve the state by presenting a candidate upon whose election fair-minded and progressive men everywhere could unite.

FREDERICK HOLLISTER

While Hollister is of the coast country, his democracy is broad enough to dwarf the local selfishness of many who have aforesight sought the halls of Congress to further pet locality measures. A trained business man and attorney, with faith in his state and energy to further its advancement, he possesses

To the Democratic Party of the First Congressional District of Oregon:

The Democratic County Central Committee of Coos County wish to herewith state that Mr. Frederick Hollister has received the endorsement of our committee for the office of Representative in Congress from this district.

We are glad to say personally that Mr. Hollister is a clean, aggressive Democrat; that he has lived with us in Coos County for some eleven years, and that during that time he has built up a reputation among his associates and acquaintances for honesty, sobriety and ability. We cordially recommend Mr. Hollister to you for your support at the coming Primary Election, believing and knowing that if nominated that he will be in the fight all the time.

Yours for success, Hugh McLain, Chairman Democratic Central Committee, Coos County; W. J. Rust, Secretary Democratic Central Committee, Coos County.—(Paid Adv.)

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Commissioner

O. J. SEELEY.

ANNOUNCEMENT

As I have lived in Coos County since 1872, familiar with all the roads in the county and their conditions, believing that I can be of service to the taxpayers of this district, I hereby announce myself as a candidate on the Republican ticket at the primary May 15, 1914. I stand for good roads and reasonable repair.

FRANK FLAM, Bandon, Oregon. (Paid Adv.)

FOR SHERIFF

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Coos County, subject to the action of the Republican electors at the primaries May 15.

If elected, I hereby pledge myself to a policy of rigid law enforcement, without fear, favor, prejudice or partiality, and shall, during my incumbency, conduct said office in a business-like and economical manner.

ALFRED JOHNSON, Jr. (Paid Adv.)

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I announce myself a candidate for State Representative subject to the will of the Democratic voters at the primaries May 15. Will work for better road laws to enable the people to get Oregon out of the mud.

see the ability to transform his ideas into concrete and beneficial results—and would be distinctively a congressman from all Oregon.

Fred Hollister's home is at North Bend, so named from the conformation of Coos Bay at that point. At the present time he is serving as a member of the council—to which he was elected by the highest majority of any member now in office. He has been a dweller and a doer in the city with the curvated name for eleven years, and the home folks want him to keep on residing—which is, in itself, no slight tribute to popularity. He is a bank director and bank president in two financial institutions. Heretofore he has declined all opportunity to receive official advancement in his home county or state. In Coos county he bears the reputation of having been prominently identified with and for every progressive movement transpiring during his residence there. Throughout the state he is widely known as an exceptionally talented attorney. So much for Hollister at home.

Nomination of the Coos county man by the state democracy at the primaries would almost infallibly predict the defeat of Hawley, who seeks the republican renomination and election and whose record contains little to recommend him to the electorate of Oregon. Hollister has been hailed by a certain coast paper as the "man to beat Hawley." In the clear light of a growing statewide sentiment this seems to be as politically probable as it may well be—surely it is devoutly to be wished.

Jackson county democrats are talking Hollister with every expression of approval and will uphold these sentiments at the polls—thereby serving the district, the state and the nation. "From Coos Bay to Congress" is written in the political horoscope of Hollister—and the fall of the political house of Hawley is already attested by the rapid and alarming decay of the present congressman's prestige at home and elsewhere. It is kismet—the unalterable and unavoidable. Oregon will again signify that party politics have ceased to charm when the way to our common benefit is plain. —From the Gold Hill News, April 18, 1914.

I Stand For Justice

In twenty years of active life in Portland I have always stood for justice between man and man. I have stood for justice in the shop, in the factory, in the store, in the laundry, in every activity, in every branch of industry. As a candidate for the nomination for the office of Labor Commissioner I stand for justice between man and man, between man and corporation.

I Have Stood For Justice

in the face of bitter opposition, of apparent hopelessness. I stood for equal suffrage when the movement was unpopular, and 20 years ago espoused the cause when men in Oregon opposed every effort of the active women who demanded justice. I cast my lot with trade unionists in Oregon when to do so guaranteed the loss of friends and a struggle for many years which could have been avoided by following the other channel. I stand for justice and am always glad to cast my lot with men and women who are in earnest in their efforts to give human beings the best possible chance in the world.

If I am elected Labor Commissioner the people of Oregon will uphold my hands in a broader work in the interests of humanity than I have ever been able to reach. I want to be able to serve. I believe the people will trust me.

An Open Letter to The People of Coos County

Editor Times:

Through your paper may I say to the good people of Coos County that it has been impossible for me to visit them before the primary election May 15th, but I plan to do so soon after,

in behalf of my candidacy for the United States Senate.

I appreciate to the full the kind expressions that have come to me from Coos County by letter, from interviews with residents and through the press.

As I view it, every interest of the Northwest is pleading for restoration of the Republican Party to Power. A revolt against the Democratic Tariff Act that free-listed our products is apparent throughout the State.

The best expression of disapproval of Democratic policies and the best indication of their reversal can be shown by a full party vote at the Primary.

For the Party's sake, and personally, I acknowledge in advance grateful appreciation for the votes that will be cast for me as the Party's choice for United States Senator.

R. A. BOOTH.

2 GAMES ON NEXT SUNDAY

There will be two ball games on the North Bend diamond next Sunday afternoon, the first starting at 2:30 o'clock. The Marshfield players are scheduled for a game with Bandon and the local Elks are to play the Marshfield Firemen.

Warner Ogren, manager of the coming game, says he will have his men out for practice this evening and again before Sunday.

Several of the players who made up the North Bend nine last Sunday will be selected to play with the Marshfield team against Bandon. Warner Ogren wants to see the men work out before picking the star players. Only a tentative lineup can be announced at this time.

Abbott, Horn and Murphy will try for the position of catcher. Kiasam will probably play first base, and Gaffney or Burke will play second. Sater will play shortstop. He has no opposition. Third will be filled by either Denmore or Briggs. Krause or Osborne will occupy the mound. There are seven candidates for the field positions. They are Chandler, Woods, Freeman, Crawford, McDonald and Kelly. It is understood that Baker and Myer will be the batterers for Bandon.

The local fans are anxious to encourage baseball and promise to not only attend the games themselves but invite a friend or two as well.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat Which Forms Uric Acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have back ache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

ADVERTISING PUBLIC AID

Irving Cobb Declares It Leads to Intelligent and Rational Spending

(By Associated Press in Coos Bay Times.) LAWRENCE, Kans., May 14.—"Sound advertising does not lead to the destruction of the saving instinct of the American people nor to the reckless spending of their money. It leads to intelligent and rational spending." This statement was made in a paper by Irvin S. Cobb at the National Newspaper Conference. Cobb's paper was prepared in answer to the question: "Is advertising destroying the thrift of the Nation?"

LEATON SENDS SOME POETRY

W. J. Leaton, former city recorder of Eastside, who is now serving a term in the state penitentiary at Salem for embezzling about $10,000 from that city and which he claimed had been stolen from him, has turned to poetry. One that he sent to The Times most of which he copied from Moore:

THAT BEAUTIFUL COOS BAY

There is not in this wide valley so sweet, As that vale in whose bright waters meet; Oh! the last rays of feeling and life must depart, Ere the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart. Yet it was not that Nature had o'er the scene Her purest of crystal and brightest of green.

It was not her soft magic of stream-let and hill,

Oh! no—it was something more beautiful still,

It was that my true friends and companions were near,

Who made every dear scene of enchantment more dear,

And who felt how the best charms of Nature improve

When we see them reflected from looks that we love
