Incomplete Returns from Ore-| mah not included. gon Primaries Indicate Their ties outside of Multnomah was 3211, Lead of Lafferty.

(By Associated Press to Coos Sav Times.) PORTLAND, Or., May 16.—As the count in yesterday's primary election progressed today, slight advantages held by a number of candidates for the more important offices gradually increased. It was noted as a coincidence that practically no leading candidate fell into second place. The number of contests continued so close, however, that not until the final ballots have been counted will the results be certain. For Republican Governor, Dr. James Withycombe forged a head of Gus C. Moser and the former's adherents are confident of success. For Democratic Governor Dr. C. J. Smith increased his lead over A. S. Bennett and the former's vote was smaller. Bennett carried glace. Bennett carried that position.
