HIGH FLARE SPRING HAT.

Since small shapes prevail, trimming must be measured accordingly, so a ribbon that seems part of the brim and a bunch of wood violets complete a violet and brown hat for a brown suit.

The above amount will be paid by the F. E. Conway Company as a prize to anyone suggesting the best name for the new Conway Apartments now being erected at Marshfield, Oregon.
These will be the finest, up to the minute, apartments between San Francisco and Portland. It should be a classy name with a touch of local color. Address all communications to J. W. Motley, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Marshfield, Oregon, who will register and number the names before delivering the judges.
The name of the contestants not being known to the judges. All names

A Pose From the Pousse Cafe

Posed by Miss Wilma Winn and Mr. Everett Evans.

ONE of the most striking of the new combination dances is the pousse cafe. It was devised by Miss Winn and Mr. Evans and has just a little bit of everything in it. The illustration shows a jumpless Mercury step, which is one of the features of the dance. This can also be done to the Maxixe if the jump proves too difficult.
