The Royal Grand Theater TONIGHT

Entire change of program. "The Black Sheep." Two-reel Western, thrilling and exciting to a high degree.

"The Mystery of the Haunted Hotel." The Peerless Thanhouser Co. in one of its best productions.

"Caught in His Own Net." A laugh producing comedy that can't be beat.

Here's another one just as good: "Deceiving Dad," an old story told in a new and funnier way.

ADMISSION: Any seat in the house 10c. Tomorrow night, "The Silence of the Dead" in four parts. This is absolutely one of the best multiple reel offerings ever seen in Marshfield.

The peerless Royal Orchestra accompanies the picture with special music.

Coming soon, "Paul Rainey's African Hunt," in six reels—the greatest animal picture ever taken. This picture was not faked like most pictures heretofore have been, but were taken in the heart of the African jungle.

A STRANGER

Mr. Stranger-in-the-city, if you are a single man and have money in your pocket, you can take time to look around and learn for yourself the best means of securing a position, but if you are married, with some one dependent on you—or if your finances are limited—you will do well to get acquainted with the shortest route to employment in the shortest time possible.

The shortest route is through the Times Want Ads, and you'll be sure to find something to which you are fully suited in a day or two by reading them carefully daily. If you don't, why run a Want Ad of your own, telling just what you can do best. This latter means will be sure to work at once if the other fails at first.

New Auto Line.—Steve. Curren of Bandon is figuring on starting an auto stage between Bandon and Marshfield, charging $2.50 per trip.

Buy Flag.—The local Spanish-American War Veterans have just secured a large new flag for the camp here which will be used in the Memorial Day services.

Give Dance.—A big benefit ball for the Libby baseball club will be given at Libby Saturday night. Good music and a good time for all is being arranged and the proceeds will be used in providing paraphernalia for the team.

Eureka Goes Wet.—George Senk, the well-known traveling representative of Levi Strauss, received a telegram from his wife in Eureka, California, saying that city voted wet on Monday by a majority of 1100. Two years ago, before woman suffrage went into effect, the wet majority was only 200.

Honor Graduates.—The Marshfield High School Alumni met with Miss Alice Curtis last evening and decided to tender the annual banquet to the graduating class at the Chandler Hotel on the night of June 2. The Alumni will meet again Friday night with Miss Frances Williams to arrange further details. The Junior Class will tender their banquet to the graduates on May 26.

Want Oil Leases.—Henry Sengstacken and others are taking leases on South Inlet property for J. W. Perkins, Mr. Andrews and their associates. The leases are to Mr. Perkins and provide that drilling must start within twelve months. In case oil is found, the land owner gets one-eighth royalty or $100 for each gas well. In case the company want to extend their option they are to pay ten cents per acre per year.

Near Roseburg.—According to word received by Constable Cox, Ed Miller, who is suspected of robbing the Platt Pharmacy at North Bend, is near Roseburg. Miller evaded Cox at North Inlet landing and later is said to have returned to North Bend and dug up the stolen goods and then gone out over the Coos Bay wagon road. Word was sent to the Douglas county officers to be on the lookout for him as he is supposed to be selling the stolen goods in that section.

Doctor Gets Away.—Constable Cox returned this morning from Lakeside, where he went in search of Dr. Chris Melgaard, who is wanted by the authorities for practicing medicine without a license. It is thought that some one informed Melgaard that Constable Cox was after him with a warrant which gave him time to avoid the constable by going over the line into Douglas county. Melgaard, it is understood had been substituting for Doctors Bartle and Mott, who have a contract with the Southern Pacific railroad to look after the sick in the railroad camp just north of Lakeside. Dr. Mott promised Constable Cox to have Melgaard answer the warrant not later than tomorrow. Dr. Mott told Mr. Cox that they would fight the charges preferred by Dr. Melvin.

BUNKER HILL CONTEST.

Editor Times:

I deeply regret that the last silver medal contest should be the subject of much erroneous discussion; and while I speak personally I express the views of each member of the order for which I stand. It is a regrettable fact that any person or persons should take it upon themselves to inform the paper on a matter upon which they were not themselves informed, and we hope it was purely thoughtlessness.

The contest on last Saturday night at Bunker Hill was conducted exactly the same as the other contests previously held, according to rules and regulations from the department of medal contests work in Chicago, Ill. These laws require that not less than three disinterested judges shall decide to whom the medal shall be awarded. There are five points on which the contestants are judged, with the marking on a scale of ten to get the general average the chairman sums up the totals of each contestant and divides each total by three, the one receiving the highest average winning the medal.

On Saturday night we did not deviate from this rule of marking. Milo Sumner received forty-six and one-fourth, the highest average, and was therefore awarded the medal.

The statement that two of the judges felt that Mrs. G. LeRoy Hall should have had the medal is not true. Expressing themselves personally the judges stood two for Milo Sumner and one for Mrs. Hall. As to the statement that the audience was not satisfied, I want to ask if anyone ever attended a contest where the decision of the judges did not satisfy the entire audience. I never heard of such a thing. It's a hard problem to please everyone and people are as varied in opinions as in looks.

We greatly deplore that Mr. Sumner has been placed in such an unenviable position and after a careful and thorough investigation of all the facts in the case we wish to publicly state that Milo D. Sumner won the silver medal at the contest held in Bunker Hill last Saturday evening, May 16, 1914.

REBECCA LUSE STUMP.

Co. Supt. of Medal Contest Work.

MRS. HALL'S STATEMENT

Editor Times: I wish to express my regret that some person or persons, evidently sincere and desiring to do me a kindness, but misinformed as to the facts of the case, caused to be published an article in Monday's Times, regarding the Demorest contest at Bunker Hill. Mr. Sumner was awarded the medal, not through any mistake, but as a result of careful grading by the judges showing him to be the winner.

MRS. G. LEROY HALL.

STATEMENT OF JUDGES

Editor Times: We, the undersigned, judges in the silver medal contest given at Bunker Hill last Saturday evening, May 16, 1914, under the auspices of the Marshfield W. C. T. U. wish to publicly correct the statement in The Times that "there was some mixup in the marking of the standings that caused considerable discussion, as the audience and two of the judges felt that Mrs. G. LeRoy Hall was entitled to the medal instead of Mr. Sumner. However, the mistake was not corrected and Mr. Sumner was allowed to keep the medal."

There was no misunderstanding among the judges and the decision stood in favor of Mr. Milo D. Sumner.

Signed,
MRS. R. G. CULL,
MRS. ORA M'CARTY,
GEO. DOLL.

LIKES COOS BAY.

F. L. Calkins, county assessor, received a letter from Marshfield today to the effect that his son, Curtis Calkins, is delighted with the coast country and is making good there. The young man left for Marshfield last March to work in the Smith-Powers mine, and after a few weeks of in-lulls, and after a few weeks of industrious effort was promoted by the employing company. In the letter received here today the young man is highly commended by a member of the Smith-Powers company.—Roseburg Review.

MORE TRAFFIC HERE.

According to C. L. Barnard, of the Roseburg-Marshfield stage lines, the traffic between this city and the coast is increasing daily. Both the outgoing and incoming stages are taxed to their capacity, and the season's travel has only fairly begun.—Roseburg Review.

Liljeqvist Here Today.—Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist was in the city today. While here he visited the offices of several lawyers, where he discussed recent cases in which he took a prominent part. Liljeqvist left for Coquille by auto stage about 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.
