WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

OREGON—Showers and thunderstorms; cooler; southwesterly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., May 22, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist:
Maximum 87
Minimum 49
At 4:43 a. m. 53
Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1913 62.86
Precipitation same period last year 60.41
Wind: Southwest, partly cloudy.

Neice Weds—Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Blanch Bates and Chas. H. Clough of Olympia, Wash. The bride is a neice of Mrs. Chas. Hilborn of Millcooma.

Opens Store—Robert Wyman has opened a small general merchandise store at Charliston Bay which will be a convenience to the people of that section as well as to picnic parties.

Gets Help—Through a Times want ad, Mr. and Mrs. Bonebrake quickly secured a ranch hand. A man answered the ad the first night it was run in The Times and was engaged and they had other applicants later.

To Return Here—B. T. VanDeCar, formerly in this section, returned here from California today and is figuring on locating at Bandon. Mr. VanDeCar's wife was formerly Miss Kruse of Isthmus Inlet, a sister of Mrs. J. Albert Matson of Marshfield.

Closes Mill—The C. A. Smith big mill was closed down this morning about 10 o'clock in order to repair a weak spot in the big drive belt. The belt did not break but the weak spot was detected in time to prevent an accident and repaired. They expected to start again this afternoon.

Funeral Held—The funeral of Miss Hilda Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Albert Hanson of Ferndale, was held yesterday afternoon from the Swedish Lutheran church and was largely attended. The pall-bearers were the members of her confirmation class. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Arrested Again—Ed. McDonald, aged 71, the old man who spent Wednesday night in the city jail after being arrested on a charge of drunkenness, was arrested again this morning by Marshal Carter for the same offense. McDonald will be given another hearing before Recorder Butler when he sobers up. He will probably be allowed to sleep through the day.

Thunder Storm—Last evening Coos Bayites witnessed one of the rare thunder and electrical storms that visit this section. It followed one of the warmest days in a long time and reminded people from the East and mid-west of a mid-summer day in those sections when a shower and electrical storm followed the intense heat.

Dairymen Coming—Prof. Pitts of the Dairy Extension Department of Oregon Agricultural College is expected here early in June by Farm Expert Smith to speak at a series of meetings in Coos county. The Coquille Valley Dairymen will have a big meeting June 2 or 3 and he will probably speak there and at other places in the valley concluding his week's stay with addresses here.

Fined $5.00 for Drunkenness—Andrew Spiker, aged 67, was arrested at 5 o'clock this morning by officer Doane, who found him on the streets in a drunken condition. When Spiker was brought before Recorder Butler this morning he could not remember the circumstances leading up to his arrest. He was under the impression that he was arrested early last evening and that he had spent the night in the Hotel de Carter. Spiker was fined $5. Recorder Butler told him he would give him just one hour to get out and get to work.

COOS COUNTY PICNIC HELD

FORMER RESIDENTS OF THIS SECTION ENJOY REUNION AT LOS ANGELES—LARGE COMPANY OF THEM THERE NOW.

The Coos County, Oregon, Society of Southern California held a picnic and reunion at South Park, Los Angeles Sunday, May 10th. It was largely attended by former residents of Coos county, some of those present having been away from Oregon for twenty years, but still glad to talk over "old times" with their neighbors. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Rennie of North Bend, now of Los Angeles. Mr. Rennie has a pretty home on Park Walk, fronting one of Los Angeles' prettiest parks. Mrs. Mary Flanagan of Empire, who is making her home at T. W. Rennie's.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Coke, formerly of North Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coke, who have just recently moved into their new bungalow on Berenice avenue.

Tom C. Stora of North Bend, who is now engaged in the door business in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Hacker, formerly of Empire, now of Pasadena, and Mrs. L. H. Haard and three children, Austin, Adrienne and Marjorie, also of Pasadena, who are well known in all of Coos county, motored over from Pasadena in Mr. Hacker's new car. Austin is now attending the Pasadena High School.

Other Coquille people present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dunlap, now at Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bullard, now of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hill, now of Los Angeles; Miss H. S. Stephenson, now of Los Angeles; Mrs. E. J. Hill, now of Los Angeles; Mrs. Frank Morse and children, Philip and Ruth, now at Pasadena; C. W. Give, who came to California 14 years ago, is now located at Terminal Island. Mr. Olive will be remembered as an old settler of Coos county, having arrived there in 1875. Mrs. C. Brandenburg, of Coquille, has lived in Los Angeles 14 years.

Myrtle Point people present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wise and children, Elizabeth and Howard, who left Myrtle Point about fifteen years ago, are located in Los Angeles. Mr. Wise is one of the Los Angeles mounted police. Mr. Peter Wise, father of M. E. Wise, also an early settler of Coos county, having moved there in 1873, was also present.

Mrs. C. B. Caldwell, now at 5271 Central avenue, Los Angeles. Mrs. L. C. Leheer, and the Misses Mabel J. and Rachel, now reside in Pasadena. Walter R. Caldwell and Miss Hazel Caldwell, now of Los Angeles. Mrs. Fred Wilcox, formerly Miss Maude Reed, who has lived here for 17 years, still likes to talk over events of her school days. Mrs. A. J. Larson, 1722 W. 5th Street, Los Angeles. D. N. Black and son Frank have lived in Los Angeles two years. R. B. Deyoe came down from Riverside in his Hudson roadster. Mr. Deyoe has been engaged in the grocery business in Riverside for about five years. M. N. Macomber is now a resident of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Greve and daughter, Maxine. Mrs. Greve was formerly Miss Merrill L. Dixon of Myrtle Point. Mrs. Fannie G. Dixon, also of Myrtle Point and who is president of the Coos County Society, lives in Los Angeles, and is spending the summer at the Beach. Miss Mary G. Harris, Secretary of the Society, and who has been away from Oregon for about 15 years, is living in Los Angeles.

"Bandon by the Sea" was represented by Mrs. Laura Young, who left there about 23 years ago, and who is now at Los Angeles.—North Bend Harbor.
