OPTIMISTIC.

The optimist is ploughing now and later he will plant and hoe,
 And hope will fill him when he sees the things which he has planted grow;
 It may be that unwelcome bugs will come to rob him of his right;
 The floods may make his toiling vain or there may be a drought to blight;
 But while he plows and plants and hoes the optimist is filled with joy,
 And does not let his hopes be killed by bugs that later may destroy;
 Each passing shower adds to his glee, he reaps in fancy and is glad,
 And, win or lose, is stronger for the pleasant dreams which he has had.

THE MARSHFIELD HIGH SCHOOL will graduate a class of twenty this year, the largest class in its history. The commencement exercises will be held Tuesday evening, June 2, at the Masonic Opera House. Prof. E. D. Ressler of Oregon Agricultural College will deliver the commencement address. There will also be music by students and the presentation of diplomas, as well as the award of the prizes in oratory, which will go to Miss Hansen and Chester Isaacson. Sidney Clarke is class president.

In addition to the commencement exercises, the Junior Class will tender the annual banquet to the Seniors and High School Faculty next Tuesday evening at the High School. The Alumni banquet will be held later. Rev. A. F. Bassford will deliver the baccalaureate sermon a week from tomorrow evening at the Marshfield Baptist church.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

ANNIVERSARY.

Last Friday, Mrs. James Forty entertained a few friends at her home in Bunker Hill in honor of her seven tenth wedding anniversary. It was a delightfully informal afternoon and delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mrs. Howard and her daughter, Mrs. Goss, Mrs. Bargelt, Mrs. C. H. Dungan, Mrs.

Ora McCarty, Mrs. W. F. Squires, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Davis and Master Willie and Mrs. Smith.

MINNE-WIS.

Mrs. E. A. Harris entertained the Minne-Wis Club in place of the intended hostess, Mrs. John Dashney, who was prevented by illness in the family. Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Dresser, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Downs, Mrs. LaChapelle and Mrs. Dashney were out, and Mrs. Geo. N. Bolt and Mrs. O. W. Briggs as additional guests. Mrs. Briggs and Wayne Harris assisted the hostess in serving the light refreshments that ended the pleasant hours of needlework. The next meeting day has been set for Tuesday, June 2, when Mrs. Dashney will entertain.

CAFETERIA CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen entertained the Club at the customary Cafeteria supper Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McEldowney, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Hildenbrand, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis and Mrs. Sutherland as guests. After supper highlight pictures were taken of the group to perpetuate in their minds the memories of the many happy evenings spent together. This was the last meeting for Mr. and Mrs. Grannis as they leave soon for California and the east respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Reid were asked to join the club and accepted. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Hildenbrand, a picnic to Sunset Bay and a fish supper at the hotel were talked of for next week but nothing definite was settled.

MEET THURSDAY.

The meeting of the North Bend Episcopal Guild planned for this week was postponed until next Thursday owing to many of the members being unable to attend on account of illness in their families. Mrs. Paul Dimmick will entertain the Guild next Thursday.

D. M. C. CLUB.

The D. M. C. Club will be entertained next week by Mrs. A. E. Morten at her home in North Bend. Continued on Page Six
