NEWS OF COALEDO

(Special to The Times.)
On Thursday a farewell party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moore and family and Mrs. Gimmel and son and Mrs. Dameron and son who contemplate leaving Coaledo for their new homes. Mrs. Dameron and son left Friday for their home at Bandon and the rest expect to leave Sunday going beyond Myrtle Point on the S. P. Logging road. A surprise shower was given Mrs. Stennett in the afternoon of the same day. All brought their baskets well filled and had an enjoyable time picnicking in the grove near the spring. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moore and children, Mrs. Dameron and son, Mrs. Gimmel, Mrs. Medey, Mrs. Stallard and children, Mrs. Stennett and children, Mrs. Sherwood and children, Mrs. Hetherington, Mrs. Sugdan, Mrs. Geddie and children, Mrs. Witschey, Mrs. Williams and children, Messrs. Smith, Larson, Gimmel and Medey. These friends will be greatly missed but we all join in wishing them good luck in their new homes.

ALLEGANY ITEMS

(Special to The Times.)
We had a fine rain Saturday and Sunday.
The road master is making two grades near Allegany now. One at Mr. Thomas' place on the west fork of the road and the other at Gould's on the east fork, the road is being put on grade at both places and will be a great improvement.
Mr. Woodworth, wife and child were up to visit E. C. Barker's family, Saturday and Sunday.
Capt. C. E. Edwards has gone out to his claim above the Golden Falls for a few days.
Miss Lulu Hodson will open an ice cream parlor at Mrs. Edwards place in the near future.

GRAVEL FORD ITEMS

(Special to The Times.)
Mr. Herschel Bunch of Gravel Ford is in Marshfield to spend a few days with his wife.
Will Coleman left last week for Montana to spend the summer with his wife, then they are coming back to Oregon to visit his folks.
Mr. Lowell Bunch, while coming home one evening last week met two panther dogs that scared him badly.

POLITICS AT BANDON

The Bandon Recorder says: The mass meeting for the nomination of candidates for city offices will be held on June 5th, and as the time draws nearer local politics, which was relegated to the rear during the state primary campaign, shows signs of livening up.
The names of H. C. Dipple and S. C. Endicott have been quite frequently suggested for councilmen from the west ward. No new candidates for the east ward councilmen have been suggested. J. L. Kronenberg seems to be the unanimous choice for one of the councilmen from the east ward, and for City Recorder there seems to be general satisfaction with the present Recorder, E. B. Kausrud.

BANDON PORT SUIT

G. T. Treadgold, attorney for the Port of Bandon, filed a suit in the Circuit court yesterday to compel T. M. Dimmick, county treas. of Coos county to turn over the funds now in the treasury and belonging to this Port. He was granted an alternative writ by Judge Coke, and it will now be up to Mr. Dimmick to turn over the funds or show cause why he should not.—Bandon Recorder.

VOTE ON BANDON LIBRARY

The voters of Bandon will be given an opportunity at the city election in June to vote on the proposition of levying a one mill tax for the support of the Bandon Public Library and it is to be hoped that the vote will be overwhelmingly yes.—Bandon Recorder.

HOME FROM COLLEGE

Ralph Moore, son of Geo. W. Moore, of the Moore Lumber Co., arrived on the Speedwell and will spend the summer in Bandon. Ralph is a student at the University of California.—Bandon Recorder.

North Bend News

Lawrence Pickens has returned after completing his year's work at the Pacific Dental College and will take a position with the North Bend News Company during vacation.

L. E. Milledge of Roseburg will tomorrow open his new ice cream parlor and confectionery stand which he has named "The Fountain."

J. A. Allen is making many improvements in his residence property near Lincoln Square and will have one of the most beautiful places in town when he completes the work.

Perham & Gidley are now on the last lap of their $67,000 street grading contract and will finish in a few weeks. The project has made the biggest change in North Bend of anything that has ever been done here.

C. F. Chase has returned from Portland. He states that his daughter, Mrs. Alonzo Miller, was awarded a divorce and the right to resume her maiden name, Elizabeth Chase. She was formerly an operator in the Coos Bay Home Telephone company's offices and now has an excellent position in the Portland Telephone exchange.

Miss Vera Wilson is reported quite ill of smallpox. It was thought a week ago that the disease had been eradicated.

Mrs. Clarence Pulley is reported seriously ill of typhoid fever at Sherwood, Oregon, where she went recently to visit.

E. S. Barzee and wife are home from a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Max Timmerman, at Brookings, Curry County.

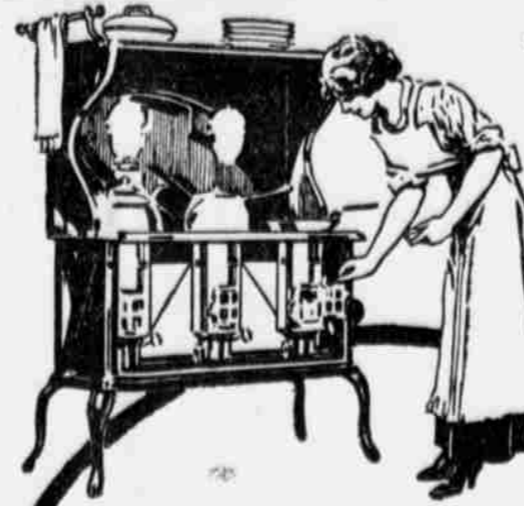

Mrs. W. H. Kibler arrived here this week from Point Terrace to attend the high school commencement exercises, her daughter, Miss Dorothy, being one of the graduates.

Peter Loggie has given Perham & Gidley the contract for bringing his lots at the corner of Sherman and Florida to grade and may have them excavate for a basement.

Judge Guerry has returned from Florence where he attended the carnival.

Wm. Hoffman of Astoria has bought Ed. Forrest's barber shop and Mr. Forrest is moving to his ranch on Larson Inlet.

Miss Grace Fulton, who has charge of the domestic art work in the North Bend schools, is arranging for an exhibition of her pupils' work at the high school next Thursday afternoon.

With a good oil cook stove there's no delay or bother—no lugging of wood, coal or ashes. There's no smoke—no waiting for the fire to "catch up". Cooking starts at once and when you're through you simply turn off the heat—no fuel wasted. The

is not just a "quick lunch", light housekeeping affair. It is a complete all 'round stove that you can bake, broil and roast on just as well as on a wood or coal range—and a lot cheaper. Best of all—it doesn't overheat the kitchen. An ideal summer stove. Doesn't smoke. Doesn't taint the food.
