PROPOSED COOS COUNTY BUILDING AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

Courtesy Coos Bay Harbor.

Sketch of Front Elevation Plan for Pavilion Suggested by F. H. Brigham of North Bend for San Francisco Exposition.

The North Bend Harbor says: The building is 62 by 84 feet. There is an open court in front between the two wings 40 feet in length, supported in front by a colonnade. The main exhibit room is 40 by 50 feet and is lighted by windows at either end, and by a skylight in the center, 16 by 18 feet, covered with translucent fabric. On one side of this room is an archway 18 feet in width opening into the exhibit annex, 20 by 60 feet. On the opposite side is a gallery above the entrances to the rest rooms and office extending the length of the room. The ceilings of the exhibit rooms are 20 feet in height.

In the opposite wing of the building are the ladies' and gentlemen's rest rooms, and the custodians office. A dressing room is connected with the ladies rest room, with lavatory, closets, etc. Ceilings of the rest rooms are 14 feet in height and each room contains a fireplace. Ceiling of the office is 11 feet in height and above this are rooms for the janitor. The building is well appointed for the purposes intended and every convenience has been provided. It is proposed to finish the exterior of the building with alternate courses of red and white shingles, between the pilasters which are two feet in width, shingles to be stained a light terra cotta and the pilasters and other trimmings two shades of cream.

OUR SOLDIERS MEMORIAL DAY, 1914.

By Arthur J. Burdick.

Not now the firm, elastic tread
As when to war they marched away;
They're battling time, are warring years,
In bloodless battles of today.

The whitened hairs above their brows,
The wrinkles and the bended
forms—
These are the scars they now receive,
The wounds that fall in silent storms.

Ah, once they faced the deadly fire
And stood where shot and shell fell fast!
They fight time's battles bravely
now
As fought they battles of the past.

And though no fields of carnage
now
Spread horrors to the shrieking
eye,
Upon time's field each passing day
The victims of the battle lie.

So now we pluck the fragrant flower
And weave the laurel wreath today
To lay beside the silent forms
Of those who fell beside the way.

Our Boys In Blue

A Memorial Day Poem Dedicated to the G. A. R.

Sleep sweet and rest, brave ones! The air is teeming
With sunshine golden and with bird song gay.
Sleep sweet and rest. The blossoms fair are leaning Their bright cheeks on your graves the livelong
day.

Above you floats the flag so well defended,
The dear old flag—the stars and stripes we love.
Hither your comrades true their way have wended
Their loyalty and loving praise to prove.

Softly and solemn plays the dirge above you.
With bowed heads turning gray and growing old
Stand silently the comrades brave who love you,
Whose day will soon be as a tale that's told.
Sleep, then, brave hearts, with pale hands folded meekly;

Sleep sweet and take your rest, brave hearts and true.

Like lilies fair your memory blossoms sweetly Forever in our hearts, O boys in blue!

—Harriet Francene Crocker.
