PORT ORFORD OFFERINGS.

Northern Curry County News As Told by the Tribune.
In honor of his approaching marriage with Miss Lizzie Atkinson, Carl White will give a free dance in the Fromm Hall next Saturday night.
A large bear killed one of L. Knapp's sheep near the Hubbards creek bridge Monday. E. L. White put his dogs on the track and they soon jumped the animal. Bruin refused to take to a tree, however, and after a long run the dogs gave up the chase.
Cyrus Madden had business which needed his attention in town Sunday, and despite the heavy rain which was falling, he walked in from the Zumwalt farm on the Sixes. Mr. Madden is eighty-three years of age, and a seven-mile tramp through the rain and mud is a feat that not many of his age would care to undertake.

GOES TO PORTLAND.

The Rustler is expected to go to sea today and on it as passengers will be Mrs. R. E. Knorr, son Charles and daughter Miss Xenia, and Miss Stella Williamson. The boat is going direct to Portland.—Gold Beach Globe.

GO TO GOLD BEACH.

D. D. Brainard and family of North Bend arrived here Saturday evening to make their future home. Mr. Brainard will build a house immediately on the property purchased last fall.—Gold Beach Globe.

DR. WETHERBEE'S RANCH

Dr. Wetherbee stated that the Star ranch comprises 1050 acres in north Curry. It is primarily a dairy ranch and at present they are milking 150 cows and will have at least twenty-five or thirty more in a few days. The live stock is all of the highest grade. Dr. Wetherbee states that the milking machines in use at his ranch are proving a great success. With this machine he says that one man can milk twenty-five cows per hour.
Six new silos are being constructed with an aggregate capacity of 600 tons. They will be filled this summer with ensilage.
The ranch will also harvest about 400 tons of hay for home use.
The cow testing association is testing the cows at the ranch this season and it is probable a number of interesting figures will be available later.—Bandon World.

NORTH INLET NEWS.

(Special to The Times.)
Houser & Houser have the steam shovel installed at Sander's Lake, ready to begin work, with Foreman Daley in charge. It required twelve horses to haul the boom of the steam shovel from the North Inlet landing to Sander's Lake.
C. E. Johnson has shipped 3000 white cedar 6x8 ties during the past three weeks. These went to F. L. Botsford Company, of Portland and San Francisco.
The Lakeside autos are discontinued temporarily on account of recent rains.
J. H. Pinkerton has a force of six men at work getting out railroad ties. They average about 130 ties per day.
The prospects look good for an exceptional cranberry crop this season, providing there are no June frosts.
C. H. Marsh was here last week securing additional right of way along the S. P. line between Beale and Butterfield Lakes.
Dr. H. P. Howard and wife arrived from Everett, Washington, on the 24th for a short stay on his large dairy ranch here, formerly the Hope ranch.

PAULSEN'S NEW PLAN.

J. E. Paulsen, a timber cruiser from Coquille, made a trip to Gold Beach last week in an effort to interest the county court in an offer to cruise the timber and classify all the deeded land in the county. Mr. Paulsen estimates that he could do the work for five cents an acre. However, the total aggregate of the cruise would amount to over $30,000 at this price. Other counties in the state that have tried this system of getting at the true assessable valuations are well pleased with the results. Coos county is now having her lands classified and timber cruised in this manner.—Port Orford Tribune.

TEAM DROWNED IN

THE ROGUE RIVER
In crossing Rogue River at the old Bagnell ferry last Friday a valuable span of horses belonging to the Wedderburn Trading Company were drowned. The horses were hitched to a wagon and it seems that an apron of the ferry scow gave way, dumping the team and wagon into deep water.—Port Orford Tribune.

CHANDLER HOTEL NORTH BEND
MAKES CHANGE LIBRARY PLANS

Discontinues Dollar Sunday Dinner and Inaugurates Merchants Luncheon.

Commencing tomorrow Landlord McKeown of the Chandler hotel will inaugurate an important change in the dining room service of that popular hostelry.
The dollar Sunday dinners are to be discontinued and the service to be made a la carte. There will be special menus for the Sunday dinner and the music will be continued but parties who do not desire a full course dinner will now be served as they desire. While the dollar dinners were popular Mr. McKeown thinks that the plan of ordering only what is wanted and paying for what is served only will prove even more popular. An excellent menu and a special musical program have been arranged to inaugurate the new plan tomorrow.
Commencing Monday, a full course business man's luncheon will be served daily at the Chandler from 11:30 until 2 o'clock for only 35 cents. The same high class cuisine and service will be maintained at this popular price. Landlord McKeown thinks that more of the Marshfield business men should avail themselves of the Chandler dining room service and has instituted this merchants luncheon to meet the demand for a popular price midday meal with prompt service.
The Chandler hotel is one of the big assets of Coos Bay and is worthy and deserving of the support of the people and especially the business men of this community.

The North Bend Library Association held an interesting session at the newly opened library Thursday afternoon. Among the many phases of the work discussed was the advisability of organizing classes for the study of Government, History, the Classics, Art, Science, etc. It was decided to plan these classes off early fall, a class being formed in any subject that three or more persons are interested to pursue and that a teacher can be procured. Several competent persons have signified a willingness to contribute from two to eight hours a month to the teaching of a subject in their own line of work. It is hoped that a competent teacher may be found for every group of persons who care to form a class for study. The line of educational work the library association plans to do is identical with that being carried on with thousands of cities both large and small throughout the United States and is always the mark of a city's intellectual status and industrial soundness. Intelligent homeseekers look first to the educational advantages in a locality when choosing a place to live. North Bend is capable of a culture for its people that is apt to be overlooked in the manifold industrial opportunities the place affords. To develop the possibilities for culture that the place affords the Library Association will model its class organization after that being used in other cities of like size and similar opportunity.
Mrs. C. S. Winsor has been appointed chairman of an educational committee that will devote some time during the summer months to learning what classes may be of greatest interest and value in the community. The classes will be free to members of the library association. Mrs. L. C. Reynolds was elected financial secretary of the association and instructed to sell membership cards to those caring to become members.
The mixed program for the benefit of the book fund was postponed to June 12th on account of so much sickness at the present time. The association will give another ball in July.

DOUGHNUTS

I seek the high class eating joint, when my old stomach gives a wrench and there the waiters proudly point to bills of fare got up in French. I order this, and order that, in eagerness my face to feed, and oftentimes I break a spat pronouncing words I cannot read. And as I eat the costly greens, prepared by an imported cook, to other times and other scenes with reminiscent eyes I look. My mother never was in France, nor foreign jargon did she speak, but how I used to sing and dance when she made doughnuts once a week! Oh, they were crisp and brown and sweet, and they were luscious and sublime, and I could stand around and eat a half a bushel at a time. The doughnuts that our mother made! They were the goods, they were the stuff; we used to eat them with a spade and simply couldn't get enough. And when I face imported grub, all loaded down with Choctaw names, I sigh and wish I had a tub of doughnuts, made by old time dames. I do not care for fancy frills, but when the doughnuts dish appears, I kick my hind feet o'er the thills, and whoop for joy, and wag my ears.

The Sumner baseball nine will cross bats with Cooston at Cooston Sunday. The Millicoma will leave Sumner for Cooston at 9 a. m.
