BORN.

GRAVES—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Graves at their home in First Addition Wednesday, June 3, a son. He is their third boy.

Will Give Social—The Yeoman lodge will give a dime social at the residence of J. Broeckmueller, Bunker Hill, Friday evening, June 5.

Gets Results—A. H. Stutsman says Times want ads sure get results. He advertised a house for rent last evening and about midnight received a telephone call about it and rented it at once.

Open Later—The Marshfield drug stores will remain open up to 9 p. m. from now on. Saturday nights as long as trade demands. The druggists, believing that the public and doctors will be better accommodated by these hours have agreed to close at 9 p. m. sharp instead of 8 p. m. Sunday hours will remain the same as before, 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. to 6 p. m.

Union Prohibition Debate—At a meeting of the Central Labor Council last evening it was decided to hold a debate on the question of whether to protest against the prohibition bills now before the U. S. Congress or whether to endorse the same. The gentlemen chosen as principal debaters were Theo. Meyer for the protest and Andrew Landies for the endorsement. The debate will be held on Sunday, June 14 at 3 o'clock.

Eighty-ninth Birthday—William A. Border is celebrating the eighty-ninth year of his birth today, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. W. Traver. He was borne June 3, 1825 in Bedford County, Pennsylvania, close to where the noted Bedford Springs are now located. He still enjoys good health. A few years ago he ended a term as superintendent of the U. S. Forest Reserve situated in the San Gabriel Mountains of California. His friends wish him many happy returns.

Dies in San Francisco—Word has been received here of the death of Miss Minnie Kardell at San Francisco last Saturday. Her death was sudden and is presumed to have been caused by heart trouble. She spent most of her time in San Francisco for the last few years, but visited her mother, Mrs. Kardell, in South Marshfield, every summer. Other relatives here are William Kardell of Marshfield and Mr. Kardell of Coos River, brothers, Mrs. August Josephson, Mrs. A. Sandquist and Misses Emma and Martha Kardell, sisters. The funeral was held in San Francisco.

Rumor Incorrect—It was reported around today that Harry Bultmann, a well-known Marshfield traveling man, had rented the W. B. Curtis house near Ninth and Elrod and was about to join the ranks of Benedicts. However, Mr. Bultmann said that he had merely rented the house for his brother, who is going to move from Sacramento to Marshfield to make his home.

Masons Take Degree—The commandery of the Masons held two special sessions yesterday, one in the afternoon and another in the evening, at which time the meeting took the form of a banquet. The meetings were for the purpose of initiating several of the members into new degrees. The Red Cross degree was conferred upon W. F. Miller, C. R. Peck, and E. J. Loney. The Temple degree was conferred upon Messrs. Peck and Loney and the Malta degree was conferred upon Mr. Peck and C. E. Williams, of Curry county. Several important matters pertaining to the activity of the organization were discussed.
