BORN.

JOHANNSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Johansson at their home at Empire, an 8½ pound son. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mrs. Johansson was formerly Miss Alpha Wicklund.

Wed in Coquille.—Dr. F. J. Hayes and Mrs. W. Jacobs were married at Coquille yesterday, Judge Hall officiating. They returned last evening and will make their home in Marshfield.

Boats Due.—The Nann Smith and the Paraiso are due in tonight or tomorrow, the Nann from San Francisco and the Paraiso from Portland.

Leaves Today.—C. A. Smith will leave on the Redondo for San Francisco today, being called there by special business, but expects to return to the Bay in a week or so.

Mirene Coming.—T. B. James has arranged to have the Mirene come here and take a cargo of merchandise to the Sislaw Saturday night as the Roamer will not be ready for the run until next week.

Elks Meeting.—At a meeting of the Marshfield Lodge of Elks last night, it was decided to meet the first and third Wednesdays of each month during the summer season. They have been meeting every Wednesday heretofore.

Not Consulted.—Two Marshfield drug store managers state they were not consulted in reference to the change in hours of closing and the statement that all druggists were agreed on the new hour was an error.

Eagles Initiate Three.—Three men were initiated into the fraternal order of Eagles at a meeting at the Eagles Hall last night. They were R. W. Harrington, William Garrett and Albert Rogers, following the initiation social activities were indulged in.

Wed in California.—Mrs. E. W. Kammerer has received an announcement of the marriage of her cousin, Miss Ramona Radcliffe, to Mr. P. E. Stalter at San Francisco, May 30. "Miss Radcliffe was well known on the Bay, having spent a couple of seasons here, her charming ways and vivacity won her many friends who will unite in congratulating Mr. Stalter on his victory in Cupid's realm.

Locates in Petaluma.—In a letter to The Times ordering the address on his paper changed from Berkeley to Petaluma, California, where the eggs come from, J. H. Miner says: "I am seeking the fountain of youth in the Valley of the Moon," so expect to pass the summer in Sonoma County. "Joe's Coos Bay friends will wish that he may find not only the fountain of youth but the hen that lays the golden egg in Petaluma."

Prohibition Debate.—Representatives of all the labor unions of the city will meet at the Longshoremen's Hall on Sunday afternoon, June 14, when the liquor question will be debated. Some of the most prominent speakers among the organizations will speak on the occasion and then the body will decide by vote whether or not they favor prohibition. All members of the unions are invited as the meeting is considered one of importance.

School Exercises.—Superintendent A. G. Raab, of North Bend, was here yesterday on business. This is high school commencement week there. The annual class day exercises will be held at the high school at eight o'clock tonight and will be followed by the Alumni banquet at the Oregon Hotel at ten o'clock. The high school band concert will be given Friday night at eight o'clock.

HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER

Miss Laura R. Turner was the honored guest at the home of Miss Gladys Perry, Miss Ferry and Miss Edith Johnson being the hostesses. The color scheme was carried out in yellow, white and green. The girls having showered their handkerchiefs at her enjoyed many fine musical selections. A dainty luncheon was served by Misses Perry and Johnson. After luncheon various games were played. Among those invited were: Lillian Seaman, Hazel Coffin, Clara Abel, Edith Ayre, Stella Magnus, Stella Haglund, Irene Oulmette, Genevieve Gosney, Rhoda Anderson, Rosy Knox, Bernice Mirra-soul and Miss Turner, Edith Johnson and Gladys Perry.

SOUTH MARSHFIELD SCHOOL

Only one word was missed in the A class in the last spelling contest. They had an average of 88 11-13. The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy the past school year: Clara Abel, Hazel Coffin and Leslie Holmes.
Stella Magnus, Hazel Coffin, Edith Ayre, Lillian Seaman, Edith Johnson and Rhoda Anderson were honorary pupils.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vaughan and sons, Archie and George, plan to leave about the middle of the month in their auto for McMinnville.
Mrs. Wm. Schrock is ill at her home on Union avenue.

AMONG THE SICK

Miss Ena McKeown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McKeown, is reported quite ill of measles at their apartments in The Chandler.

COQUILLE CONTEST.

The declamatory contest held in the Masonic Hall was a very successful entertainment. The medals were awarded in the first division to Mildred Corbit; in the second to Marvel Skeels, and in the third to Doris Peoples.—Coquille Herald.

CATCH YOUNG SEALS

When Blain Barrett was driving the stage up the beach this week, two baby seals were picked up. They were brought to Florence and J. W. Pattell, the preferred stock man, made Percy Cox a present of the little fellows and before the left named them Matt and Jeff.—Florence West.

George H. Riley Wanted—Marshal Carter this morning received a letter from A. E. Griffies, chief of police at Seattle, concerning the whereabouts of one Geo. H. Riley, who, according to the writer, formerly worked at the Roberts logging camp. He is supposed to have left there for his home in Seattle since March 1, but has not reached home and his parents are worried about him. It is thought that the young man might be corresponding with some of the men he met while working at the camp and that they might know something of his whereabouts. Anyone knowing anything about Riley kindly notify Marshal Carter.

SOMETHING TO DO

Oh, ye who complain of the grind, remember these words (which are true!): The dearest job one can find is looking for something to do! Sometimes, when my work seems a crime, and I'm sorely tempted to sob, I think of the long vanished time when I was out hunting a job. I walked eighty miles every day, and climbed forty thousand high stairs, and people would shake me away, and pelt me with ink-stands and chairs. And then, when the evening grew dark, I knew nought of comfort or ease; I made me a bed in the park, for supper chewed bark from the trees. I looked through the windows at men who tackled their oysters and squabs and probably grumbled again because they were tired of their jobs. And I was out there in the rain, with nothing to eat but my shoe, and filled with a maddening pain because I had nothing to do. And now when I'm tempted to raise the grand hailing sign of distress, I think of those sorrowful days, and then I feel better, I guess. I go at my labors again with energy vital and new, and say, as I toll in my den, "Thank God, I have something to do."—Walt Mason.
