MYRTLE POINT GRADUATES.

Several Receive Diplomas From High School There.

The commencement program last Friday evening at the Unique Theater was greeted by a large and very appreciative audience and many more would probably have attended had there been a greater seating capacity. The musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental, were especially entertaining.

The following is the class roll: Eva Grace Lewellen, Dorothy Jeanette Miller, Nellie Jessie Barton, Ernest Ray Root, Harry G. Dement, John A. Robbins, Cleo Agness Dickson, Effie Weekly, Elsie Grace Philpott, Dora Beth Harrison, Lena Marion Schneider, Etta Eugenia Darnell, Nettie Esther Root and Metta Edna Hansen.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille Valley As Told by the Enterprise.

R. J. Montgomery was in town from Bridge Tuesday marketing a bunch of spring chickens.

Mrs. O. G. Thayer is at Marshfield this week, a guest at the home of her son, G. L. Brenneman.

Mrs. John Wagner went to Bandon Tuesday to be with her daughter, Mrs. Gus Barre, who is ill.

Miss Gussie Nelson, who has been a guest of Miss Jennie Shull for several days, returned to her home at Marshfield Wednesday.

Dr. C. H. Day left last Friday for La Grande, Oregon, where he will practice his profession. Mrs. Day will remain here for a few days on account of business affairs that require her attention.

T. R. Billings of Rural, who comes to town only two or three times a year, but being a veteran of the Civil War always makes it a point to have one of those times be right around Decoration Day, came to town last Friday. He took part in the G. A. R. services Saturday and Sunday and departed for home.

Misses Elsie Philpott and Effie Weekly left Monday for the lower river, the former to visit for a time at her home in Bandon and the latter at the home of her sister, Mrs. Evert Slagle at Prosper. In about three weeks the young ladies expect to leave for Monmouth to enter the Normal school. There are a number of others from the Myrtle Point section planning on attending the state normal at that place and this section will be represented by about a dozen young ladies.

The Fourth of July celebration committees will meet at the Myrtle Club rooms next Monday evening to arrange the program for the two days' event.

Leeland Karr, who has been in the employ of the Perkins Drug Store for about a year, has resigned his position, and Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Karr left for Salem, this state, where they expect to spend some time before returning to the southwestern states.

COST OF KEEPING CAT.

Coquille Firm Pays $30 Milk Bill for Pussy.

Not long ago one of our business houses was called on to pay a bill of $30 for milk for the cat that acts as a night watchman and keeps the store free from rats and mice. The cat wasn't a big eater, either, getting only a pint a day. But the account had been allowed to run nearly three years and even a three-cent-a-day item amounts to something in that time. But if the dairy that allowed the cat account to run indefinitely, should give equally long credits to all its customers, what would be the result?—Coquille Sentinel.

THREE THOUSAND BILLS.

What with the bills for the primary election and the court expenses, besides the regular monthly grist, County Clerk Watson says there are fully three thousand county warrants to be made out this week by his office force. That means not only a lot of work but likewise a considerable pull on the county's cash—or credit.—Coquille Sentinel.

COQUILLE WATER SUPPLY.

Dutch John Creek is expected to contribute about 90 gallons of water a minute to our city supply during the summer months, now that the new dam is completed. All this, however, has to be pumped up into the reservoir to get it into circulation. But the dam will make it possible to save the whole run-off of this creek now, while before much of it has gone to waste.—Coquille Sentinel.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Committees Meet at Chamber of Commerce for Discussion.

A meeting of the Fourth of July celebration committee was held at the Chamber of Commerce Friday afternoon for the purpose of allotting to the different committees the sums necessary to carry out the proposed plans. Of the six committees, appointed by J. Albert Matson, none of the chairmen were present, and in view of that situation, no definite action was taken. The financial committee reported that $1600 will have been pledged by next Monday, when another meeting of the committees will be held. Matson requested the various committees to hold meetings in the meantime and be ready to present their ideas and suggestions at the Monday afternoon meeting.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Seat News As Told by The Sentinel.

R. E. Shine, who has recently moved from Coquille to Empire City, showed his interests in the work of our city library just prior to his departure by donating to its treasury $10 in cash and contributing to its shelves a set of Dickens' works.

S. M. Nosler went over to Marshfield Sunday and brought Mrs. Nosler home from Mercy Hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis a couple of weeks previously. She stood the trip home in the car nicely and is fast regaining her strength.

Mrs. O. C. Sanford entertained a few of her friends Monday afternoon in her usual charming manner, with a little sewing party. Roses and sweet peas were in profusion in all the rooms, making the house a bower of beauty. Delicious refreshments of chicken patties and sherbet and cake were served during the afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Howard, Skeels, Sterling, Barton, Jones, Lamb, Williams, H. Lorenz, Martin, Geo. Lorenz, Ed Lorenz, Liljeqvist, Hawkins and Misses Ruth Woodford and Clara Sherwood.

Miss Clara Sherwood entertained last Thursday afternoon at her beautiful home on Sherwood Heights in honor of Mrs. E. F. Morrissey, of Marshfield, with an elaborate three course luncheon. The spacious rooms were decorated with choice roses in abundance, while the dining room was very artistically arranged in pink roses with Caroline Testouts for the table. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in social conversation, fancy work and cards, until quite late, when all reluctantly departed, declaring Miss Clara an ideal hostess.

Those present were Mrs. E. F. Morrissey, Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist, Mrs. Fred Slagle, Mrs. Ed Lorenz, Mrs. O. C. Sanford, Mrs. J. S. Barton, Mrs. J. H. Williams, Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. E. E. Johnson, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, Mrs. C. A. Howard, Mrs. George Lorenz, Mrs. Paul Sterling and Miss Ruth Woodford.

TAKE SUMMER TRIP TO NORWAY.

S. E. Aasen and wife, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Burgard, of Lampa, started for a trip to Europe and a visit to their old homes on the other side of the water. Mr. Aasen says it is forty-three years since he left Christiansun, Norway, but he has brothers and sisters living there with whom it will not take him long to get acquainted, even if they do not recognize him at first sight. He recalls that he used to get up on a big hill there in 63 north latitude and see the sun set and rise all within an hour or two, and without its getting dark at all in the almost endless days of the near Arctic summer. Their many friends here will join with us in bidding Mr. and Mrs. Aasen Godspeed, and wishing them an enjoyable visit and safe return. They expect to return in October.—Coquille Sentinel.

Camel Cigarettes

Turkish and Domestic Blend

20 for 10 cents

Premiums Are Not Needed to Sell Camels

First, there never was a cigarette, at any price, made of such a delightful blending of Turkish and domestic tobaccos; second, you can't make a Camel Cigarette bite your tongue or parch your throat or leave that ciggarettly taste common to other cigarettes!

Fact is, you haven't got money enough to buy a clever cigarette! That's a strong statement, but we'll back it up if you'll just try a package and find out something about how good a cigarette can be!

Don't look for premiums or coupons. Camel Cigarettes are not that kind of a smoke! The cost of the tobaccos prohibits the use of "inducements."

If your dealer can't supply you, send 10c for 1 package or $1.00 for a carton of 10 packages (200 cigarettes), postage prepaid. After smoking 1 package, if you don't find CAMELS as represented, return the other 9 packages and we will refund your money.
